BARGAINS! BARGAINS!—Mossop is selling off his stock of goods at prices far below cost. The very best calicoes are sold at 25 cents a yard, and all goods in proportion.

THE WEATHER.—During the past week the weather has been quite changeable in this country—warm sunshine, cold winds, snow-flakes, and rain prevailing in turn. This morning it is raining, with prospects of a rattling flood.

SHERMAN'S TROOPS.—In reviewing his troops at Goldsboro, on the 27th, Gen. Sherman remarked, that his command was in light marching condition—shoesless, hatless, coatless, and half-breechesless. In their recent long march they saw much of the country, and now the country could see much of them.

CAPT. R. H. WALK.—We had the pleasure of taking this gallant officer by the hand, last week. He is one of the recently paroled prisoners, who was captured on the 15th of August last. The Captain looks stout and hearty, notwithstanding his long confinement in rebel prison-pens. Success to him in the future.

JUBILANT.—On the announcement of the fall of Richmond, last week, every Union man in this place gave unmistakable evidence of gratification over this much desired event, although no public demonstration was had on the occasion. On the other hand, the Castleites were sad and sullen, and their vi-ages assumed a very much elongated appearance. Poor fellows! we really pity them in their distress at the defeat of their "Southern Brothers."

INFORMATION WANTED.—Several days since, the Postmaster in Clearfield, Pa., received a letter from Washington, D. C., announcing the death of THOMPSON BILLS, of company D 4th Penn Cavalry. No person of that name having resided in this place, the Postmaster desires information as to his residence previous to entering the army, so that the letter can be forwarded to the friends of the deceased. Besides the announcement of the death, the letter contains some valuable information.

STOLEN.—We learn that on Friday night, the 7th April, some unknown person feloniously entered the store of Samuel Hegarty, of Becunia township, and stole therefrom a considerable amount of the best goods, and a small quantity of fractional currency that was in the change drawer, besides pilfering and destroying all the letters that were in the postoffice at the time. The thieves gained admittance by the use of an arguer. No suspicions are entertained as to the perpetrators of the theft.

Letter From Rev. Gann.

LAURELTON, APRIL 1ST, 1865.—FRIEND ROW: I think it due to the readers of your well known "Journal," and especially to those in the "Phillipsburg Circuit," where I travelled last year, to return my hearty thanks for their uniform kindness towards me. With a more generous, noble, and liberal-hearted people, I never expect to meet in this life. I can truly say, they fed, paid and clothed me. The Lord loveth a cheerful giver, and I think, every creature he has made, loves the same. Previous to my leaving, I received a suit of clothes, worth one hundred dollars, from the kind friends of the Phillipsburg Circuit, besides many other presents, for which favors I hereby return my most sincere thanks. I trust that my successors may meet with the same kindness, and that God will bless their labors in the building up of the church. My Postoffice address is, for the present, Flat Rock, Seneca county, Ohio, where I will, at all times, be glad to hear from my old friends and acquaintances.

Yours truly, C. A. GANN.

Miss Jane Smith, a rebel spy from Price's army, has been arrested in St. Louis.

BARN BURNED.—We learn that the barn on Thomas McKee's farm in Knox township, was burned on Wednesday night, April 5th. It was evidently the work of an incendiary, as the person who had been residing there moved away on Wednesday.

CAMP BURNED.—We are informed that the log camp of John M. Chase, in Woodward township, was burnt one night last week. The clothing belonging to about twenty men, and some other articles, were consumed with the building. There is no doubt the fire was the work of an incendiary. We hope the perpetrators of such acts will be detected and punished as they deserve.

TO DRAFTED MEN.—The following letter has been handed us for publication, for the information of the drafted men in Clearfield county:

OFFICE OF PROVOST MARSHAL,
Ridgway, Pa., April 6th, 1865.
H. B. SWOPE, Esq., Clearfield, Pa.:—
DEAR SIR: The time for the drafted men of Clearfield county to report at Ridgway is extended five days from the time specified in their notices to report. Please give general publicity to this fact.

Yours truly, H. S. CAMPBELL,
Capt. and Prov. Mar., 19th Dist. of Pa.

Letter from W. R. B.
The following extract from a letter, written by our correspondent W. R. B. on March 30th, will be of interest to many of our readers. The remainder of the letter relates to military affairs, but as the many brilliant victories won by our gallant armies, within the past ten days, supplant his anticipations, we omit that portion.

"Quite an interest in religion has been felt amongst the men of the different commands encamped here, for some time past, and through the indefatigable efforts of the members of the Christian Commission a general revival has taken place, and many have thereby been led to make an open profession of Christianity. About thirty of the members of this Battery have embraced the faith, and bear the evidence with them, that they are determined to stand up for the gospel, and through civil as well as through good report. There is something peculiarly interesting attending these meetings here, in the Army, which cannot fail to enlist the sympathies, if not the hearty co-operation, of all others who attend them. They are characterized, at all times, by that earnestness and intensity of purpose, which only strong and determined men can exhibit, and which is always the sure harbinger of success. As an example of the earnestness and sincerity of the men of the Battery, they, on every occasion which suitably presents itself, and in the absence of those helps which are generally looked up to, meet together in some deserted cabin about the neighboring camps and there have their prayer meetings; and rarely do they leave, but with pleasing remembrances of their place of meeting. But I fear I am wearying you, so I will bid you adieu for the present."

MARRIED:
On Thursday the 6th April, by J. H. Jones, Esq., Mr. CORNELIUS DEVINNEY to Miss SARAH GRAHAM, both of Kyrlestown, Clearfield county.

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned has assumed the General Subscription Agency for the sale of United States Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three tenths per cent. interest, per annum, known as the

SEVEN-THIRTY LOAN.

These Notes are issued under date of August 15th, 1864, and are payable three years from that time, in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent. GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These bonds are now worth a premium of nine per cent., including gold interest from Nov., which makes the actual profit on the 7-30 loan, at current rates, including interest, about ten per cent. per annum, besides its exemption from State and municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. more, according to the rate levied on other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest amounts to
One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents per day on a $100 note.
Ten cents per day on a $500 note.
20 cents per day on a $1000 note.
$1 per day on a $5000 note.

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions. This is

THE ONLY LOAN IN MARKET now offered by the Government, and it is confidently expected that its superior advantages will make it the Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $200,000,000 remain unsold, which will probably be disposed of within the next 60 or 90 days, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that the citizens of every town and section of country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

JAY COOKE,
Subscription Agent, Philadelphia.
Subscriptions will be received at the
First National Bank of Clearfield,
First National Bank of Curwensville.

IN THE MATTER of the reward of James Curley.

It appearing by the memorial of leading citizens of Kyrlestown township, that they are convinced that the Jurors who held the inquest on the body of Bartley Engen, were mistaken in their verdict, and it being the opinion of the most of the citizens there, that the finding thereof, was wrong, in fact, the reward heretofore offered for the arrest of James Curley is this day withdrawn.

BULKLEY'S PATENT—LUMBER DRIED

BY SUPERHEATED STEAM.—The undersigned respectfully informs the people of Clearfield and adjoining counties that he has the agency of the above patent, and will sell individual, county or township rights for its use. The lumber dried by this process is stronger, finishes better, is easier on tools, and requires less time in drying than any other process known, drying 1 inch lumber perfectly in 36 hours better than any other process, and the old system using the same amount of fuel per day that a common kiln consumes. The certificate of a number of resident mechanics well known in this community is amply sufficient to convince the most sceptical of its utility. Persons desiring of purchasing rights will address

THE TRIBUNE FOR 1865.

PROSPECTUS.

The Military and Naval successes of 1864, with the auspicious results of the Presidential contest, have lifted a heavy weight from the breasts of the Loyal Millions of our countrymen. It is now felt, even by those who have been distrustful and faint-hearted, that the Union is to emerge triumphant from the deadly strife, whosoever she was so wickedly precipitated by her assailants, and that Slavery her relentless foe, is to encounter the fate of Haman.

The perils of foreign intervention and of Western insurrection are safely passed; Abraham Lincoln no longer assimilable as the choice of a minority, holds the helm of State for four years longer; the Rebellion, palpably weakened by its defeats and losses during the year now closing—with its credit so reduced, that its course-hoard officially declares that its Treasury Notes can only be exchanged for coin at the rate of twenty-five for one, while its bonds command but six cents on the dollar—but awaits the blow which shall soon strike the sword from its parried hand and remit its master's justice to the justice, or it may be to the clemency, of a sorely wronged and justly incensed but forbearing and magnanimous People. Such are the auspices which justify our yearning to open will see the Stars and Stripes float unchallenged from every battlement in the Republic, and the perfect law of Liberty for All immovably imbedded in the Constitution of our Union.

The New York Tribune, founded in 1841, will enter upon its twenty-fourth year with quickened hopes and enlarged means of usefulness. Its principles need no re-statement: its aims are the diffusion of Intelligence and the inculcation of a spirit of Freedom and Humanity. When the truth shall have generally been recognized and established as the basis of our institutions and polity, that injustice to the poorest, the weakest, the most despised, is a fearful mistake; that no community or State can afford to wrong even its humblest member—then will our land bask once more in the calm sunshine of peace and prosperity.

The Tribune has for the last year been published without profit to its proprietors, solely because of the depression of the net loss has amounted to many thousands of dollars; while our large receipts from Advertising have been wholly absorbed by the extraordinary expenses for Correspondence, Telegraphing, &c., devolved upon us by the War. As we do not suppose our patrons desire that we should work at our own cost, and prefer not to be patronized by any who may desire it, we have somewhat advanced for the ensuing year the prices of our Standard Edition, and Weekly, as we had already done with those of our Daily editions. This increase is purely nominal: there never before was a time when the farmers of our country could buy The Tribune for so little of their own produce or labor as they can by the following Terms:
