FOR SALE—the personal property of Matthew A. Forcose, dec'd. See advertisement in to-day's Journal.

SELECT SCHOOL.—We have been requested to state that the Select School in Curwensville, will commence on Monday the 8th of May. Persons interested will remember this fact.

AT HOME.—Our friend Lieut. John W. Hazlett, paid us a visit this morning. He looks exceedingly robust, notwithstanding a six months sojourn in the rebel prison-pens at Salisbury.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK for May has been received. As usual, it is full of useful and pleasing designs of Spring Fashions, which cannot fail to please the ladies. No lady can well do without Godey.

BOROUGH FINANCES.—In another column will be found a statement of our borough finances, which, we are pleased to see, are in a good condition—a balance of $217.65 being in the treasury.

THE LADY'S FRIEND.—This favorite periodical, for May, is before us and contains a most beautiful engraving called "The Cup of Cold Water," besides its usual variety of fashions, plates, etc. This is one of the best that has been issued.

U. S. TAX-PAYERS.—Under the head of "New Advertisements" we publish this week the notice of the Assessor of U. S. taxes, relative to the time and places where they will meet tax-payers to receive their returns. All interested will please take notice.

SNOW.—On Sunday last, April 23d, the weather was cold and wintry in this region. Snow fell profusely for an hour or two, and the ground was covered with a white mantle, but most of it melted again during the day. Still "Winter lingers in the lap of Spring; And sends abroad his fleecy lay; Protrudes his pale and icy lips, And tries to kiss the Queen of May—The impudent old fellow."

THE DRAFTED MEN.—Very few of the drafted men in this county reported—notice having been given that orders were issued to suspend recruiting and drafting, and that those drafted under the call of December 19th, 1864, need not report. In fact, we learn, that orders had been received at headquarters in Ridgway to discharge all drafted men. This being the case, it is not likely that the recently drafted men will again be called upon to report.

DROWNED.—We learn that on Saturday 22d April, William Beyers, son of Lennel Beyers of Burnside township, was drowned while attempting to cross Chest creek, in Pierce's dam, on several logs. As he reached the middle of the stream, the logs suddenly parted and he went down to rise no more. The body was recovered after remaining in the water about an hour. He was aged about 18 or 19 years, and was a young man of good habits and much promise.

FUNERAL OBSEQUES.—On Wednesday of last week, business was suspended in our borough, flags were hung at half mast draped in mourning, and the bells tolled, as tokens of distress for the death of our noble Chief Magistrate—Abraham Lincoln. And on Saturday, in accordance with the proclamation of Gov. Curtin, the stores and public places, as well as many private houses, were closed. Whether all who participated in these indications of grief were sincere, is not for us to say. We cannot penetrate, with the eye, into the hearts of men and predict their thoughts—we must judge them by their acts—and hence we conclude that all, (at least from outward appearance) engaged in these expressions of sorrow with unfeigned sadness.

On the special tax upon incomes, California pays over $1,000,000.

(From the Harrisburg Telegraph, April 21.) The Lesson of the Hour.

Perhaps this is not the hour for eulogiums or recriminations concerning the actions of those who have heretofore so bitterly assailed and so ungenerously opposed Abraham Lincoln in an official sense. But the lesson of the hour must not go unexpressed or unheeded. The death of the President must not merely be charged to the mad impulse of an infuriated assassin. Booth is not the only man with the blood of Abraham Lincoln on his hands. The murderer does not stand alone in his great crime. Before God and High Heaven, those who have for four years made it their boast to question and deride—to vituperate as an imbecile, denounce as an usurper, advertise as a tyrant, and charge on Abraham Lincoln all the crimes known to the calendar, have as large a share in the guilt of the President's death, as the monster who slew him. It required the bitter partisanship who so ungenerously opposed Mr. Lincoln, four years to educate one man up to the degree capable of acting as the assassin of the President. These partizan leaders did this by constantly exaggerating the power reposed in the President—they did it when they put forth their sophistries concerning the distinctions between the Administration and the Government—they taught the ignorant to believe that an administration was a mere political machine created for the distribution of patronage—that the Government was lodged in mobs and not in sworn officers of the law—and as these dogmas were inculcated, the ignorant and the desperate, the depraved and the vicious, regarded the President as a tyrant to kill whom would be ridding the country of a fiend. At length we have the result of this teaching. A nation's woes attest the barbarity of partizan sophistry. The licentiousness of speech which these partizans asserted as the highest liberty, has borne its fruit. It is not possible that those who have thus debauched the popular mind—who have thus fired the ignorant—who have thus stimulated the passions, fail to detect in themselves, in this the hour of the nation's sore anguish, a portion at least of the guilt of the President's death. Let us profit by this lesson. Let us learn henceforth to practice and demand a proper respect for the men in authority. As the representatives of the majesty of the Government—as the sworn officers of the law—as the dispensers of justice, unless we honor and uphold those in authority, the assassin's blade will never be sheathed, nor encouragement cease to assail the heart of the nation with the emotions which now fill it with anguish. Henceforth, then, we will be able to measure the true lover of his country by the standard which fixes a fair devotion to those in authority.

"Suppressing Treason." A telegraphic dispatch from St. Louis says: "Several persons have been arrested for exciting over the assassination of President Lincoln, and uttering disloyal language; and two have been shot, and two wounded, for the same cause. In California men have been lynched in several places for expressing joy at the assassination of President Lincoln; and Gen. McDowell issued an order for the instant arrest of any person expressing approval of Mr. Lincoln's death, and the suppression of any journal so offending. In Cleveland, Ohio, a blatant secession sympathizer rejoiced over the death of President Lincoln in a meat shop, when the shopman made a pass at him with his cleaver. He sprang aside, but the corner of the blade made a gash in his face. As he jumped out of the door, the axe again came in contact with his shoulder, inflicting a severe wound. Another sympathizer was knocked into the river by a blow from the fist of a Union man, and would have drowned had not some person fished him out.

AN INTERESTING REMINISCENCE.—Four years ago President Lincoln, when present at the raising of the national flag at Independence Hall, Philadelphia, uttered these words: "I have often inquired of myself what great principle or idea it was that kept this great confederacy so long together. It was something in the Declaration of Independence giving liberty not only to the people of this country, but hope to the world for all future time. It was that which gave promise that in due time the weights should be lifted from the shoulders of all men, and that all should have an equal chance. Now, my friends, can this country be saved upon that basis? If it can I will consider myself one of the happiest men in the world if I can help to save it? But if this country cannot be saved without giving up that principle—I was about to say, I would rather be assassinated upon the spot than to surrender it."

FRIGHTFUL OCCURRENCE.—A telegram from Boston on the 20th says: "A terrible accident occurred this forenoon at the Charlestown Navy Yard. One of the workmen was engaged in drilling out the fuse of a one hundred and fifty pound shell, when it exploded, instantly killing Timothy Lyons, John Murphy, Nathaniel Birch and Dan Drew. All the workmen in the yard were more or less wounded, and ten or twelve others, some of them, it is feared, fatally.

THE CONDUCT OF THE REBELS—particularly the officers—captured and paroled by Gen. Grant, has been such as to occasion severe comment. Their manner is simply insulting, and one would think they were victors instead of captives. It is evident their haughty spirit is yet to be broken; and we suggest that the next business is to break it!

MARRIED: On Tuesday morning, April 25th, by Rev. G. W. Dunlap, Mr. GEORGE W. SNIDER of Clearfield borough, to Miss ELLA IRWIN of Lawrence township.

We congratulate our young friends on this union of hearts and hands. May peace, prosperity and happiness be with them all!

QUARTERLY REPORT of the First National Bank of Clearfield, April 30, 1865.

Table with 2 columns: Description of financial item, and Amount. Includes resources like notes and bills discounted, and liabilities like capital stock paid in.

I hereby certify that the above statement is a true abstract from the quarterly report made to the Comptroller of the Currency, April 24, 1865. A. C. FINNEY, Cash.

BROWNING'S EXCELSIOR COFFEE

Whist trying Coffee of all the various brands. Remember—BROWNING'S EXCELSIOR—at the head it stands. True, it is not like others that are "SOLDEVERYWHERE." A little stretch, we all do know, good goods will easily bear. (But a stretch like this—"sold everywhere"—is very apt to lead to a false purchase.) Now, I can safely say, without any hesitation, there's none like "BROWNING'S EXCELSIOR" in this enlightened nation. Skilled chemists have not found a Coffee from any store Possessing the same ingredients as "Browning's Excelsior." Nor is there any one, in or out of the Coffee trade, who knows the article from which Browning's Excelsior is made. I'm told its made from barley, rye, wheat, beans, and peas; Name a thousand other things—but the RIGHT ONE! If you stretch, you'll find it. But with the coffee-men I will not hold contention. For the many, many things they say—too numerous to mention. Whilst they're engaged in running round from store to store, I'll tell you the price of "Browning's Excelsior." To learn the current wholesale price of "Browning's Excelsior." Some who know my Coffee gives perfect satisfaction. Have formed a plan by which they hope to cause a quick reaction. The case—"is with a few, no doubt 'twill be more." To name their Coffee after mine, (BROWNING'S EXCELSIOR.) Some say their's the only brand that will stand a ready test. Now, try a little of them all—see which you like the best. Three who have passed away since first I sold a store; Never have I in your paper advertised before; Now I would I now, or ever consent to publish every-thing where, in "every store." A trade like this I do not wish; the orders I could not fill! The factory all Jersey's land would take—leave not a foot to till. My trade is not so very large; still I think I have my share; But, reader, you must rest assured, 'tis NOT "SOLDEVERYWHERE."

Manufactured and for Sale by the writer, GEORGE L. BROWNING, No. 20 Market street, Camden, N. J.

This Coffee is not composed of poisonous drugs, it contains nothing deleterious; many persons use this Coffee that cannot use the pure coffee; it takes but one and a half ounces to make a quart of good strong coffee; that being just one-half the quantity it takes of Java Coffee, and always less than half the price. RETAIL DEALERS may purchase it in less quantities than ten gross at my prices at the Wholesale Grocers. Orders by mail from Wholesale Dealers promptly attended to. GEORGE L. BROWNING, No. 20 Market Street, Camden, N. J.

RICHMOND HAS FALLEN! Richmond has Fallen!!

and so has the PRICE OF GOODS AT THE CHEAP CASH STORE OF J. I. MORRIS & Co., Philadelphia, Centre co., Pa.

Who have just returned from the city with a large and well Selected Stock of Goods (Spring and Summer), purchased since the late decline in prices, and which they are prepared to sell cheaper than the cheapest.

Prints, delaines, balmorals and hoop skirts, ladies and children's circulars, ladies baskets, &c., &c. Notions in endless variety. Boots and shoes of all kinds for ladies, men and children.

Clothing of all kinds for men and boys at sensation prices. Hats and caps in endless variety, for men, boys and children.

Hardware.—Broad axes, double and single bit axes, rafting axes, barking axes, augers, &c. Groceries.—Rio, rye and laguara coffee; Sugar, brown, yellow and white; Imperial, black and young hyson tea; Fresh candied peaches; Pickles, Jellies, catsup, pepper sauce; Syrup of all kinds, all very low.

Stoves.—Cooking and parlor stoves pipe, &c., &c. Saddlery.—Bridles, saddles, lines, horse collars, hames, harness, whips, &c. Grind stones and fixtures. Carriages, buggies, sleighs, wagons, &c., &c. Clover seed, plaster, &c., &c.

To Lumbermen and Contractors We would say, if we are prepared to furnish them with flour, feed, bacon, fish, salt, in fact any thing in our line, cheaper than the cheapest. We guarantee persons, visiting our store, to go away satisfied with the bargain they can have. Thankful for past patronage, we hope to merit a continuance of the same. We are still at the old stand in the Building known as the Exchange Hotel. The highest Market price paid for lumber, shingles and country produce. J. I. MORRIS & CO.

CARPETINGS.—Now in store, a large stock of Velvet, Brussels, Three-Ply and Ingrain Carpetings, Oil cloths, Window Shades, ect., ect., all of the latest patterns and best fabrics, which will be sold at the lowest prices for cash. N. B. Some patterns of my old stock still on hand; will be sold at a bargain. J. T. DELACROIX, No. 27 South Second Street, above Chestnut, Philadelphia, March 2, 1864.

BULKLEY'S PATENT—LUMBER DRIED BY SUPERHEATED STEAM.—The undersigned respectfully informs the people of Clearfield and adjoining counties that he has the agency of the above patent—and will sell individual, county or township rights for its use. The lumber dried by this process is stronger, finishes better, is easier on tools, and requires less time in drying than any other process known, drying 1 inch lumber perfectly in 36 hours; better than many months under the old system using the same amount of fuel per day that a common kiln consumes. The certificate of a number of resident mechanics well known in this community is amply sufficient to convince the most sceptical of its utility. Persons desirous of purchasing rights will address JOHN L. CUTLER, Clearfield, Penn'a. June 24, 1863.

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned has assumed the General Subscription Agency for the sale of United States Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three tenths per cent. interest, per annum, known as the SEVEN-THIRTY LOAN.

These Notes are issued under date of August 10th, 1864, and are payable three years from that time, in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into U. S. 5-20 Six per cent. GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These bonds are now worth a premium of nine per cent, including gold interest from Nov., which makes the actual profit on the 7-30 loan, at current rates, including interest, about ten per cent. per annum, besides its exemption from State and municipal taxation, which adds from one, to three per cent. more, according to the rate levied on other property. The interest is payable semi annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest amounts to One cent per day on a $50 note. Two cents per day on a $100 note. Ten cents per day on a $500 note. 20 cents per day on a $1000 note. $1 per day on a $5000 note.

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions. This is THE ONLY LOAN IN MARKET now offered by the Government, and it is confidently expected that its superior advantages will make it the Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $200,000,000 remain unsold, which will probably be disposed of within the next 60 or 90 days, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that the citizens of every town and section of country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

JAY COOKE, Subscription Agent, Philadelphia. Subscriptions will be received at the First National Bank of Clearfield, First National Bank of Curwensville.
