Tribute of a Grateful People.

A subscription is about to be raised in Philadelphia for the raising of a fund to be applied to the purchase of a farm homestead, with an appropriate mansion, near Springfield. Illinois, for the family of the late President Lincoln. It is intended to be a tribute from a grateful people to the merits of their martyr President, by which his family may be rendered independent and his memory perpetuated in a practical and useful manner. The individual subscriptions are not to exceed five hundred dollars. The money is to be enclosed to Jay Cooke & Co., or to any of their loan agents, and will be publicly reported. The fund is to be disposed of by Sénator Harlan, Secretary of the Interior and Joseph H. Barrett, Commis-THE WIATHER.-We have had several sioner of Ponsions. It is proposed that subscriptions for this object be taken up in tation of every description is advanceing churches and elsewhere throughout the country, with the name of the doner on a slip of paper accompanying the amount sub-

National Debts and U. S. Stocks. The creation of National debts is not a great nation to provide for a great debt, and to make it the most convenient and best form of rersonal property, is a modern wonder. The debt of Great Britain was begun by raising a million sterling by loan in 1692, and when her great contest with Louis XIV. was terminated, the debt had reached fifty millions. Many Statesmen and economists were then alarmed at the great burden which had been impressed upon the industry of the country, but when the war of the Austrian succession had swelled this amount to eighty millions, Macaulay says that historians and orators pronounced the ase to be desperate. But when war again broke out, and the national debt was one undred and forty millions, men of theory and business both pronounced that the fatal day had certainly arrived. David Humo aid that, although, by taxing its energies to the utmost, the country might possibly live brough it, the experiment must never be repeated,-even a small increase might be fatal. Granville said the nation must sink under it unless some portion of the load was bor e by the American Colonies, and the attempt to impose this load produced the war of the revolution, and, instead of diminishing, added another hundred millions to the burden. Again says Macaulay, was England given over, but again she was more prosperous than ever before. But when at the close of her Napoleonic wars in 1816, this debt had been swelled up to the enormens sum of over eight hundred millions terling, or four thousand three hundred million dollars, or nearly one half the entire property of the United Kingdom, the stoutest heart, the firmest believer in national development, might well have been appalled. But in the very face of this mountain of obligation .- to say nothing of the vast colmial possessions, -the property of the British nation has been more than trebled, and her debt is now a charge of but 12} per cent. gainst it. All that Great Britain has done n paying her debt, we shall do, and more, with oars. We have vast territories untouched by the plow, mines of all precious metals of which we have hardly opened the doors, a population full of life, energy, enterprise and industry, and the accumulated wealth of money and labor of the old coun-

CAUTION.—The public is hereby notified not to give employment to my son, Solomon Low, who has left his home in Woodward town-ship and is only 16 years old. I will pay no debts contracted by him, and will prosecute any person who harbors or employs him. April 17, 1865-pd. JOHN LOW.

tries poring into the lap of our giant and ever-to-be-united republic. During the fiercest and most exhausting of all possible wars, we have demonstrated our national strength-and all the world over, national strength is but another name for national credit. "As good as United Stocks" will soon be synonymous the world over with

'as good as British Consuls." For our part, we think a U. S. Treasury note, bearing seven and three-tenth annual interest, is just as much better than British Consols as the rate of interest is higher. Some of our timid brethern, who shipped their gold to London and invested in consuls, are now glad to sell out and invest at home at a round loss. Serves them right.

REMAINS OF ABRAHAM LINCOLN. Their Arrival at Springfield. THE BURIAL.

The funeral train arrived at Springfield, Illinois at 9 o'clock on Wednesday morning. May 3d. The remains were deposited in the capital building amidst the deepest solemnity. The bells were tolled and funeral guns fired. The building was draped in the most elaborate manner. Thousands of people from the adjoining States had gone thither to honor the illustrious dead; and the tears shed attest the depth of the grief which effects the hearts of those who were so well acquainted with this martyr citizen. The burial took place on Thursday, May

About noon the remains of President Lincoln were brought from the State House and placed in the hearse. The funeral procession was under Major General Hooker, marshal-in-chief, and Brigadier Generals tion. The "Soldiers Casket" is published appeared finally, and the guard of honor was the for $2 per year. Address C. W. was the same as during the entire route. the procession, including the Governors of seven States, members of Congress, State and municipal authorities, delegations from the adjoining States, Free-masons, Odd Fellows, and citizens, including colored persons, arrived at Oak Ridge Cemetery at one o'clock. On the left of the vault in which the remains were deposited immediately on their arrival. was a platform on which singers and an instrumental band performed appropriate music. On the right was the speaker's stand. The vault is at the foot of a knoll in a beautiful part of the ground, which contains forest trees of all kinds. It has a Dorie gable resting on pilasters, the main wall being rustic in style. The vault is about fifteen feet high, and the same in width, with semcircular wings of black projecting from the The material is limestone, procured at Joliet, Illinois. Directly inside of the ounderous doors is an iron grating. The inerior valls are covered with black velvet, dotted with evergreens. In the centre of the velvet is a foundation of brick work, apped with a marble slab, on which the solfin rests. The front of the vault is trimmed with evergreens. The Dead March in Saul was sung, accompanied by the band, as the remains were lenosited.

Thousands of persons assembled at the semetery, before the arrival of the procession, and the scene was one of the most intense solemnity. The religious exercises were commenced by the singing of a dirge; then ollowed the reading of appropriate portions of scripture and a prayer. After a hyun sung by the choir, Rev. Mr. Hubbard read the last Inaugural of President Lincoln. Another dirge was sung by the choir, when Bishop Simpson delivered a funeral address which was in the highest degree soleum and patriotic, and portions of it were applauded. Another dirge and a hymn followed, when the benediction was pronounced by the Rev Dr. Gurley. The procession then reformed and returned to the city. Our mournful duty of escorting the moral remains of ABRAHAM LINCOLN hither is performed. We have seen them deposited n the tomb. Bereavel friends, with sublued and grief stricken hearts, have taken their adieu, and now turn their faces home ward, ever to remember the affecting scenes they have witnessed. The injunction so often repeated on the way. "Bear him gently to his rest," has been obeyed, and the great heart of the nation throbs heavily at the portals of the tomb.

BROWNING'S EXCELSIOR COFFEE

Whilst trying Coffee of all the various brands. Remember "BROWNING'S EXCELSIOR"-at the head it stands.

True, it's not like others that are "SOLD EVERY."

A little stretch, we all do know, good goods will easily bear. (But a stretch like this-"sold everywhere"-is very apt to tear.)

Now, I can safely say, without any hesitation, There's none like "BROWNING'S" EXCELSIOR" in this enlightened nation. Skilled chemists have not found a Coffee from any Possessing the same ingredients as "Browning's Excelsior. Nor is there any one, in or out of the Coffee trade. Who knows the article from which Browning's Excelsior's made. I'm told its made from barley, rye, wheat, beans, and peas: Name a thousand other things- but the RIGHT ONE if you please. But with the coffee-men I will not held contention For the many, many things they say-too numer-

Whilst they're engaged in running round from store to store To learn the current wholesale price of "Browning's Excellior. Some who know my Coffee gives perfect satisfac tion, Have formed a plan by which they hope to cause a quick reaction. The case—'tis with a few; no doubt 'twill be more-To name their Coffee after mine, (BROWNING'S) Some say their's the only brand that will stand a ready test.

Now, try a little of them all—see which you like the best; Three years have past away since first I so'd a store Never have I in your paper advertised before; Nor would I now, or ever consent to publish more, If like some used by "everybody," "sold everywhere," in "every store."
A trade like this I do not wish; the orders equid not fill; The factory all Jersey's land would take—leave not a foot to till. My trade is not so very large; still I think I have my share; But, reader, you must rest assured, 'tis NOT "SOLD EVERYWHERE."

Manufactured and for Sale by the writer, GEORGE L. BROWNING,

No. 20 Market street Camden, N. J. This Coffee is not composed of poisonous drugs contains nothing deleterious; many persons use this Coffee that cannot use the pure coffee; it takes but one and a half ounces to make a quart of good strong coffee, that being just one-half the quantity it takes of Java Coffee, and always less than half the price. RETAIL DEALERS may purchase it in less quantities than ten gross at my prices at the Wholesale Grocers
