THE NEWS.

On the visit of the Military Commission to Ford's theatre, it was found that the assassin ran, after falling on the stage, ninety feet. The passage was six feet wide, and entirely unobstructed, and is on a level with the ground in the rear of the of B. MOSSOP, Clearfield, Pa. cend or descend. There is a narrow hall DR. LITCH'S MEDICINES.-A fresh supleading from the stage on the South side of the theatre, on Tenth street, on which the building fronts. It was at the front door of the theatre, a great cure for colds and cough; and Anti-Billous Physic. They have been thoroughly tested in this community, and are highly approved. Any person sending $1 Sergeant Joseph E. Dye, as detailed by him in his testimony. Yesterday everything re- ment. mained undisturbed inside of the building just as it was at the time of the assassination, except the chair in which Mr. Lincoln sat when he was shot has been taken away, and the blue flag which hung in front of the box and in which Booth's spur caught, has been removed.

The identical palmetto flag which was suspended in the Capitol at Columbia, South Carolina, upon the organization of the se- eounty. The stock consists of Dry Goods, Grocession convention, in December, 1860, was ceries, Hardware, Queensware, Glassware, Wilcaptured at Columbia by Gen. Blair, and low-ware, Woodenware, Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, has been presented to Gov. Fletcher, of Missouri. When the flag was first suspend-ed in Secession Hall, Lawrence W. Keitt uted in Secession Hall. Lawrence W. Keitt uttered the following words: "We have carried the body of this Union to its last resting-place, and now we will drop the flag over its grave." Keitt and the rebellion have gone to their graves since that time, but the Union still lives.

The Springfield (Ohio) News of Friday, says: Gen. Fog was behind time on Thursday night, and General Frost had the country to himself. He did not have time, however, to destroy all the fruit. In some places, cherries, apples and pears do not appear to be at all injured; in other places they are injured severely. Strawberries are partially cut off. The trees are so full of young fruit that half the crop might be cut off, and nipped in some places.

The arrival of a large number of Polish emigrants is expected soon. They are exiles, and have been forwarded from European ports under the auspices of the Emigration Society, established lately to provide new homes for them.

A monster snapping-turtle was lately captured in Green-lane dam on the Perkimen creek, in Mariborough township, Montgomery county, by a party of men, one of whom was bitten in the leg. The monster weighs 326 pounds.

It is said that our Government will call the British authorities to an account for allowing the rebel pirate vessel Stonewall to coal at Nassau. The administration seems determined to have this settled at once.

Chas. E. Clark, the absconding teller of the Commercial Bank of Philadelphia, has implicated John Anspatch, of the Dry Goods firm of Anspatch, Reed & Co., of that city, as an accomplice in the defalcation.

In Louisville the secesh are trying to bribe Unionists for certificates of past loyalty. The rebels sent north of the Ohio, under bond not to return during the war, are informed that they can't yet return.

The rebel leaders in Texas still declare reir intention to continue the rebellion. They say they can see nothing discouraging for the rebels in the present military situation.

The President has respited the Indiana conspirators, Bowles and Mulligan, to the second of June; and commuted the sentence of Horsey to imprisonment for life.

It is understood that Jeff Davis will not be tried before the military commission, but before the U. S. District Court at Washington, on the charge of high treason.

A special session of the Kentucky Legislature has been convened, to try Chiet Justice Bullit on the charge of conspiracy to overthrow the Government.

It is reported that the rebel General Forrest was killed by Capt. Walker, of the rebel army, in revenge for shooting his son.

The pirate Stonewall was in Havana on the 11th, and was to sail for Galveston, Texas. Our fleet is on the lookout for her.

The rebel General Joe Johnston is at Charleston. It is said he asked for permission to go to Canada but was refused. Government horses and mules are being furnished to the farmers of North Carolina to enable them to put in their crops. The pirate, Capt. Semmes, with others, is trying to reach the coast and make his escape out of the country by sea. Gov. Brown of Georgia was arrested on the 9th, and was at Louisville on the 16th on his way to Washington. It is said that a detachment of cavalry is in pursuit of M'Grath, the rebel Governor of South Carolina.

Old Sterling Price of Missouri, and Gen. Hindman of Arkansas, are said to be alive and in Texas.

OF HARDWARE, he has axes, saws, chisels, knives and forks, locks, hinges, screws, augers hammers, nails, spikes, Stoves of various patterns and sizes, flat irons, etc. OF GROCERIES, he has coffee, sugar, molas ses, teas, rice, pepper, cinamon, cloves, Flour, hams, sides, shoulders, fish, etc.

OF QUEENSWARE, he has ten sets, cups and saucers, cream jugs, tea and coffee pots, pitchers howls, plates, dishes, etc.

OF CLOTHING, he has coats, pants, vests, un dershirts, shirts, drawers, neck-ties, gloves, socks, hats, caps, boots, shoes, etc.

All the above, and numerous other articles, for sale cheap for cash, or exchanged for all kinds of lumber and country produce.
