POCKET PICKED. -We are informed that Mr. H. L. Henderson of Bell township, was Harrisburg and Tyrone, one day last week.

Boots Taken .- On Wednesday last, a person whose name we did not learn, stole a pair of boots out of Daniel Connelly's shop in this place. The offender was arrested and lodged in jail, but was afterward released.

The next Pennsylvania State fair will be held at Williamsport. The rich border counties of our own State, and those of New York, have all promised to do their best to make this exibition a credit to the fertile regions they so successfully cultivate.

ROBBED.-We learn that James Irwin, Esq., of Lawrence township, last week, on the cars between Harrisburg and Tyrone, was relieved of his pocket book containing about fourteen hundred dollars. In what ty barrels per day; but many of the wells manner the pocket-book and money were | yield only about twenty barrels a day. lost, Mr. L. does not know.

BOUNTY LOANS. - The question of the legalty of the loans made by counties, cities, oroughs, and township, to pay bounties to fill quotas, was before the Supreme Court in Harrisburg, on Tuesday of last week. It was argued at length. The decision of the Court has not yet been made.

House Robben.-On Wednesday night, May 24th, the house of Milton M'Bride, of Lawrence township, was entered by some unknown thieves, and a watch, some money, an album, a suit of clothes, three ladies cloaks, and a large amount of other clothing was several hundred dollars. So far, no discoveries have been made as to who the thieves

A VILLIANOUS ASSAULT. -On Wednesday night, May 24th, at about 10 o'clock, several unknown men stopped at the house of Barthol Stumph in this borough, and called him out of bed. As he opened the door to ascertain their will, one of the villians struck him a heavy blow on the right cheek, cutting a severe gash, and felling him to the floor someless. It is supposed that steel knuekles were used in the assault. It is a great pity that the scoundrels can not be identified, arrested and punished for this murderous assault upon an unoffending citizen.

AN IMPROVEMENT. - We are glad to observe that some effort is being made to better the condition of the streets and alleys in our borough. In the alley, on the north side of Market street, and alongside of the "Republican" office, the mud and filth was shoveled up during the past week, while on the south side of Market street, in the same alley, Mr. Mossop is having stone broken, which is quite an improvement to that thor oughfare. We hope that others will follow the example set them, in the improvement referred to; while the borough fathers attend to the principal streets.

DAY OF PRAYER AND HUMILIATION.-To-morrow, Thursday, June 1st, is the day and as becomes a religious community.

DEATH OF AN OLD CITIZEN. - Died, at his residence in Ferguson township, on Wednesday the 19th of May, DAVID FER-GUSON, aged 79 years and 9 months. The deceased was a resident of this county for many years, and was acquainted with most of the early settlers. Mr. F., some years since, was twice elected to the Pennsylvania | the arrest of Lee. Legislature, which position he filled with ability, and with credit to himself and constituents. He also was county surveyor for some years, and in that capacity he is well and favorably known to many of our citizens of the present day. He was industrious and frugal, and a kind and considerate neighbor. His death will be deeply mourned by his many relatives and friends. Let him rest

ANOTHER ROBBERY .- We learn that some unknown person, on the night of May 24 h, feloniously entered the house of John S. Radebach, in Decatur township, and stole therefrom a rifle gun, and some other arricles. The gun was afterwards found some distance from the house, lying alongside of the road. The post office, in pected in the Presbyterian church, in this the same building, was also entered by the place, on next Sabbath, June 4th, and every same scoundrels, and all the letters purloined, a number of which contained money and checks. What amount of money was obtained by the thieves is not as yet ascertained, but it is said to be over two hundred dol'ars. Our county, at present seems to be alive with thieves. Efforts should be made to have them arrested and punished as they deserve.

TITUSVILLE. -A Clearfield correspondent, now in Titusville, Venango county, writes us a brief sketch of his observations in the oil region. He says: Titusville is located robbed of thirteen hundred dollars, between on Oil Creek, midway between Corry and Oil City, and is rising up with almost magie rapidity-that it is quite a flourishing town, well located, with a railroad running through it-and that there are at present about three hundred buildings in the course of construction and contracted for. Work for all kinds of mechanics and laborers is PREACHING. -By Divine permission, the plenty, and wages range from three to four Rev. Monroe will preach in the M. E. Church | dollars per day. Boarding seven and eight goods and groceries are a little higher than in Clearfield. The oil business is in rather a flourishing condition, and an enormous number of wells are being sunk, in addition to those already yielding the "greasy fluid." Several days since I visted Watson's Flats, a few miles below this place, and on my return I counted upwards of four hundred derricks, of which number about one hundred cover yielding wells, the rest being in all states of progress. Prominent among the wells that yield is the "Coquette Well," which is said to flow four hundred and thir-

DEATH OF A SOLDIER, - Died at Cairo. Illinois, on May 14th, 1865, SAMUEL CALD-WELL, son of Alex. Caldwell, Esq., of this county. The deceased laft his native county and friends in 1857, for the Western country and settled in Scott county, Iowa. Here he married in 1860, and enjoyed the e-teem and confidence of all who knew him. In the latter part of 1863, when the Government again called for men to aid in crushing out the wicked rebellion and restoring our beloved country to peace and prosperity once more, he volunteered his scrvices and enlisted in the 20th Iowa Regiment; which carried off. The articles taken are worth organization composed a part of the Gulf squadron, and where his soldierly conduct gained him the esteem and confidence of his superiors, and the good will of his fellow soldiers. In February last, when his regiment was being sent on a transport from Brownsville, Arkansas, to New Orleans, the vessel was wrecked, and he sustained "such serious injuries as to ultimately cause his death. Although not killed in the front of battle, yet he is but another victim of the cruel uncalled for rebellion just brought to close; and, in his death, his country has lost a fearless and gallant defender of her free institutions, and his family a kind and beloved husband and father. And, while his friends grieve for his loss, it is still a consolation for them to know that he was loyal to the old flag, and died in defence of his country. Peace to his ashes. AFRIEND.

LIVELY PLACE.—The Winstead, Conn., Herald says of its village: "Not a house building in Winstead, not a new manufacturing concern opening, not a school existing where boys or girls can pursue the advanced studies, not a mother's son in college or fitting to go in, not a library existing, not even a grave yard in which a feasible lot can be

GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These Bonds are now worth a handsome premium, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds, from State, County, and Municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. per annum to their value, according to the rate levied upon other property.
