THE RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL.

Raftsman's Journal. CLEARFIELD, PA., MAY 31, 1865.

THE NEWS.

A bill has been introduced into the Tennessee Legislature, requiring all lawyers, doctors and ministers of the gospel, and allicensed business, and all persons elected to office under the laws of the State, and all officers of incorporate companies, to take an oath that during the rebellion they have in no way aided or encouraged the enemies of DR. LITCH'S MEDICINES. - A fresh suphold such office. Such a law, we think, would even be hard on Northern Copperheads, to say nothing of Southern traitors.

It is estimated that the amount of freight shipped from the Missouri river and transported to Mexico, Utah, Colarado and intermediate points, during the last year, amounted to 40,000,000 pounds. To transport this immense amount 9,000 wagons were requisiet, drawn by 50,000 head of cattle and 16,000 head of horses and mules. The employees are estimated at 10,000.

The Exchange National Bank of Norfolk has been organized at Norfolk, Va., with a capital of $250,000, and it is a designated government depository and financial agent of the United States. John J. Knox, the popular disbursing officer of the Treasury Department, has accepted the cashiership of the institution, and will soon enter upon his duties.

Gen. Gilmore has issued orders declaring null and void all the proclamations of the self-styled Governors of South Carolina, Georgia and Florida, and also declaring that the blacks are free citizens of the United States, and are to be protected in the enjoyment of freedom and of the fruits of their industry by the Government.

It is understood that all the rebel officers concerned in atrocious treatment of our prisoners, will be excluded from the benefit of the amnesty proclamation. Also, the Fort Pillow murderers. It will also break up the great landed estates, by requiring all the possessors of such to take the oath of allegiance.

INFORMATION WANTED of the whereabouts of Jacob and Mary Gerberick, former residents of York and Harrisburg, and when last heard from they were at Pittsburg, in 1864. Any information will be thankfully received by their son, William H. Gerberick, Dayton, Ohio. Papers please copy.

The country between Savannah and Augusta is said to be filled with rebel soldiers planters have put in large amounts of seed, mings, Braids. Vails, etc.

George Driesbach, a prominent citizen of Mifflinburg, Pa., committed suicide a few days ago by cutting his throat with a razor. A little son of Abraham Waterman, of Reading, fell into a tub of water, a few days ago, and was so badly scalded that he died shortly after the accident occurred. The French Government has resolved to expedite the execution of the plans suggested for irrigating the lands by canals or otherwise, in order to give the cultivation of cotton in Algeria the complete development of which the want of water has hitherto been the only obstacle.

Two paupers, says an exchange, who escaped from a county poor house up in the oil regions of Pennsylvania made $100,000 each, operating in oil lands, before the overseers of the poor caught them. It does not add whether or not the overseers returned them to the poor house.

A private Letter from Richmond says : "The people, as a general thing, are poor and even pennyless, and there is no business doing except in the bare necessities of life, Vegetables are very scarce, and I have not seen an egg or a fowl on the table since my arrival."

Great grief and excitement was caused in Augusta, Georgia, by the announcement of the capture of Jeff. Davis. A wagon containing $243,000 in specie, belonging to the rebel government, was found in a by-road and turned over to Gen. Molyneux.

Frederick W. Seward was not informed until May 23d of the death of President Lincoln. He was much shocked at the news, and for a while after was much prostrated, but he is out of danger now.

The average pay due each soldier is $250, and the government is ready to pay off and discharge every man of the two armies now at Washington.
