Raftsman's Journal.

CLEARFIELD, PA., JUNE 21, 1865.

THE NEWS.

The Indianapolis Journal of the 13th says: "The last rebel shook the dust of Camp Morton from his feet yesterday, entered into life, liberty, and the pursuits of happiness. about a dozen still remain in hospital. who will, as soon as they are able to travel, follow in the steps of their illustrious predecessors."

From evidence before the Military Commission at Washington, it is evident that the great explosion on the vessels discharging stores at City Point, on the 9th of August last, was caused by an infernal machine secret service.

The ship C. S. Kimball, from Hamburg, arrived at New York on the 14th, with 550 passengers; thirty children died on the passage. The ship Dutchland also arrived from Hamburg, with nearly 500 passengers; twenty-three deaths having occurred on that vessel.

We see it stated that many of the soldiers are taking "French leave" of the army and going home-believing they have fulfilled their obligations to the Government, now that the war is over. Better wait and be honorably discharged, than be marked as deserters.

A serious railway accident occurred near Washington last Tuesday evening. Two trains, one filled with soldiers, collided, killing six, and more or less severely wounding from thirty to forty others. One of the conductors is said to blame.

The Indians attacked a Mormon train at North Platte crossing, and at Ragle Creek Station on the overland route recently, killing and wounding all the stock-tenders and soldiers. Gen. Conner has sent troops out to keep the mail-route open.

The President has issued a proclamantion appointing William L. Sharkey Provisional Governor of Mississippi, and providing for the establishing of rules and regulations and the early calling of a convention as in the case of North Carolina.

The treaty between the United Stats and Honduras provides for perpetual amity and a reciprocal freedom of commerce and navigation. The right of way of the contemplated Honduras inter-oceanic railway is also secured.

The army to be retained in service is as follows: Regular Infantry, 45,000; regular cavalry, 14,000; regular artillery, 15,000: Hancock's corps, 30,000; veteran reserve corps, 25,000; colored troops, 50,000; total, 147,000.
