

RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., JULY 19, 1865.

THE NEWS.

The Cincinnati Gazette publishes a list of the sales of Merchants doing a business of $200,000, or more, of that city for the year ending the first of July. The list includes bankers, but not manufacturers. We subjoin the names and amounts of all doing business of two millions of dollars and upwards: Perin, Gould & Co., $4,216,000; Davidson, Tyler & Co., $3,500,000; Gibson, Doud & Co., $3,318,000; Brown, Butler & Co., $2,904,000; R. M. Bishop & Co., $2,826,000; J. Shillito & Co., $2,400,000; Jones Brothers & Co., $2,334,000; T. R. Briggs & Co., $2,142,000; L. C. Hopkins & Co., $2,071,516. There are thirty-one firms doing a business of between $500,000, and $1,000,000 yearly. There are one hundred and seventy-six houses doing a business of from $200,000 to $500,000 yearly.

The Democratic Organs are resentfully opposed to the decision of the Supreme Court affirming the constitutionality of the Bounty Laws. It was a political calculation with the Democracy, that the law would be declared unconstitutional, that the debts incurred by the operation of the law, would be repudiated, and that out of the misery produced therefrom, the Democratic leaders could have created sympathy for their organization and opposition to the authorities encouraging such loans. But the action of the Supreme Court defeated these plans, and hence it is that the copperhead organs and leaders are chagrined and resentful.

"Stick to Your Party," is now the only appeal the copperhead leaders have to make to the masses whom they have so long misled. The appeal is as meaningless as it is useless. Party obligations are no longer in force. "Stick to the Country" means something more than the shallow appeal for adherence to party, and there are few honest and intelligent men who will fail thus to approve their attachment.

Two young girls were outraged in the woods near Albany, last week, by a gang of four ruffians. Two of the latter were secured, and as they were placed on trial, the brother of the girls shot the elder of the prisoners through the arm and leg, while the mother struck him a heavy blow with a hatchet. Mother and son were both placed under arrest.

A good deal of difficulty is experienced in Philadelphia from the large number of counterfeit fractional currency notes in circulation. The fifty cent fractional notes are in such bad repute that many persons object to taking them at all. Arrests continue to be made of persons charged with passing the counterfeits.

In consequence of the cholera having broken out in Egypt, the whole of the India, China and Australian mails were sent from the general post-office, on the 26th, in boxes instead of bags, to prevent infection from being carried out of Egypt by the mails passing through that country.

The German bankers and money men, who about a year ago, made a proposition to the Treasury Department to take a premium loan sufficiently large to cover the whole United States debt, have renewed the same on terms equally advantageous at the former proposition.

Only 200 Rebels have yet been pardoned under the terms of the Amnesty Proclamation, but a large number of cases have been reported upon favorably by Attorney-Gen. Speed and only await the approval of the Executive.

The Fourth was celebrated with a spirit in Savannah. There were parades of the military and the colored Fire Department, an excursion down the river, a display of fireworks, and the usual observance of the day.

The growing cotton crop in Alabama was estimated at 125,000 bales, and in all the States at from 500,000 to 750,000 bales. With favorable weather, the total crop, it was thought, might reach 900,000 bales.

Secretary Seward is quite restored to health, the splint having by order of his surgeons been removed from his face, leaving very slight traces of the original accident and the subsequent assault.

The State election in Kentucky takes place on the first Monday of August next. A State Treasurer, members of Congress, members of the Legislature, and county officers are to be chosen.

Our East India Naval squadron will shortly be largely reinforced, and placed in a position of complete equality with war fleets of England and France, in that portion of the world.

The New York Herald wants to know what is the difference between John Brown and Jeff. Davis? Only this: One was hung; the other is going to be, if justice is done.

Prof. S. M. McCullough and Gen. Thos. A. Harris, prominent Florida Rebels, have been brought to Washington from that State and lodged in prison.

Emmerson Etheridge has been arrested at Columbus, Ky., by the military authorities, on a charge of delivering incendiary speeches in Tennessee.

Michigan furnished more than ninety-one thousand men for the war, or one eighth of her population.

The thermometer at Fortress Monroe on Saturday a week stood at 109° in the shade.
