UNION COUNTY CONVENTION.

Pursuant to a resolution passed in County meeting, at Clearfield, on June 21st, the Union men-all who have steadfastly supported our National authorities while suppressing the Rebellion-will assemble in the BOROUGH OF CLEARFIELD, ON THURSDAY, August 31st, 1865, at 1 o'clock, p. m. for the purpose of nominating a Union County ticket, to be voted for at the approaching party. A full attendance is requested.

S. J. Row, Ch. Union Co. Com.

THE WEATHER AND CROPS. - During the past week, we have been favored with several days of fine weather and most of the grain was hauled in. Much grass was also cut, and housed in good condition.

notified that their presence is not required at this time. See advertisement in an-

CLEARFIELD OIL COMPANY. - The stockholders of the Clearfield Oil Comyany, at a meeting held on Monday evening, July 31st instructed the Directors of said company to procure an engine, and sink another well at once. This shows a proper spirit, and we hope that other companies will imitate the example set them.

THANKS.-We are indebted to several friends in different parts of the county, for items of local interest, lately. We hope these friends will continue to send accounts of incidents, accidents, etc., and that others will imitate their example. All we ask, is a simple statement of facts, and we will put the matter in proper shape.

CAMP MEETING. - A camp meeting will be held in Smith's woods, near Burnside, Clearfield county, commencing on August 18th. All who wish to do good, and to get good, are invited to attend and tent with us. Persons desiring to board, can be accommodated at Mr. Wm. Irvin's one-fourth of a mile from the ground. H. M. Asu, Chairman of Com.

Is IT TRUE?-We hear frequent complaints against our saloon keepers, in regard to selling intoxicating drinks to minors. Indeed, it is said, that some of them not only sell lager to minors, but whiskey. Is this true? If so; enforce the laws. Keepers of saloons have no right to sell liquors to those under age, and for so doing are amenable for a violation of the license laws, and should be returned to the court. Per- raid then the dealers were not prepared, but sons directly interested should bear these facts in mind.

the following persons are entitled to one hundred dollars bounty: 1sr, soldiers of It is reported that about two hundred witthe three or nine-months' service who were discharged on account of wounds received. 2D, Soldiers who had not served two years and were discharged on account of wounds received. 3D, The father, mother, widow | Court. A correspondent denominates the or children of such as were in the three or two parties "red and white noses," and nine-months service and were killed. These facts are not generally known, and we record them for the benefit of those embraced in the provisions of the act.

THE OIL WELL.-The well in this place has reached a depth of over eight hundred feet, with an increasing prospect of obtainwell gains in depth, this rock becomes softer, and of a lighter color, which, in connection with the very strong vein of gas pretend to know. Hence a few weeks more we presume, will establish the fact that oil does exist in Clearfield County.

ANOTHER OIL WELL - We are informed that the "Cherry-tree Oil Company" will commence boring in a few days, at Cherry-tree-a derrick having been erected for that purpose. We wish the company Esq., Mr. Isaiah Bloom, of Pike township, success in their enterprise.

UNION COUNTY CONVENTION. -To-day we publish the call for a Union County Convention, to nominate candidates for county offices. According to our regulations, every member of the party has the privilege of being present, and of participating in the proceedings of the convention. At our last nominating convention a number of township were not represented. It is to be hoped, however, that every election district in the county will be represented, on the 31st of August, instant, by at least two, or more, members of the Union party.

PROFANE SWEARING .- During the past week we have had several exhibitions, of this most pernicious and fiendish practice, in our Borough, by some young men whom we could name, as we recognized their voices. Tie utterance of such horrid oaths and dreadful imprecations, has justly been styled as vulgar, abusive, mean, low, cowardly, indecent, foolish, contemptible, venomous, wicked-an outrage upon the Christian community, a violation of State law, and an open insult to Gop. The individual who habituates himself to the use of such inexcusable and detestable expressions as those we refer to-who can coolly curse his MAKER, is but a fit associate for drunkards, gamblers, thieves, and murderers, and, unless he reforms, will ultimately find himself an inmate of a penitentiary. For the good of the rising generation, an example or two should be made of those who indulge in profane swearing; and, we hope, that our borough authorities will at once take the necessary steps to arrest and punish all who may hereafter be detected in the use of such hellish language.

The Clearfield Railroad.

MR. Row :- SIR: In the Journal of July 12th, I noticed a communication, advocating the raising of funds for the continua-October election. The nominations will be | tion of the Tyrone and Clearfield railroad to made in accordance with the usages of the Clearfield, urging, with other reasons, that several rival roads are being, surveyed; among the rest one from Osceola to Madera, which is said to be a very favorable route. From that point, I presume, there would be no serious difficulty in running a road down Clearfield creek, at an easy grade, to Clearfield town; although on inspection of the map this route may appear crooked. Would "T) WITNESSES."-All persons who have it be much, or any longer, than the road by been summoned to appear at Pittsburg as way of Philipsburg? The latter route, runwitnesses in the Clearfield county, cases, are ning over the high lands, may be as long as been summoned to appear at Pittsburg as way of Philipsburg? The latter route, runthe other. I do not make any pretentions to a ly, 1865—said reward will be paid to the person knowledge, personally, which of the two routes would be most feasible; but merely throw out these remarks for information. If possible a route should be settled upon, which would unite the whole energies, and means, of the people of our county.

> I would also urge, the propriety and I might say the necessity, of making Curwensville, instead of Clearfield the terminus of the road. A very large portion of the available means of the county lies above Clearfield, which would be very reluctantly and sparingly given to a road to terminate at Clearfield, and which might eventually reach the Philadelphia and Erie road by way of Moos or Montgomery creek routes, without coming to Curwensville, or in any way benefitting the central or upper end of the county. Curwensville is the natural point of divergance towards Erie and Indiana So Modera would appear to be the natural starting point for an extension to

But let the best and most satisfactory route be selected—then hold meetings in the different townships, and enlist the feelings and interests of our whole population in the enterprise, and soon the road will be built.

Now is the time for action. Be up and doing before the means of the people is split up into rival interests and factions.

Yours, E. F.

A "Whiskey" Sensation.

Greenfield, Ohio, glories in a sensation. The ladies of the town, on the 10th of July, opened a warfare on whiskey, and in a body made a descent on the liquor shops in the place, and demolished the stock. For this as a mode of redressing themselves they now commence suit against the party. Some hundreds of the straight-forward substantial BOUNTIES.-By a late law of Corgress citizens of the town held a meeting, and resolved to stand by the ladeis and like true gentlemen see them through with the affair. nesses have been already subpænæd in the The best legal talent will be employed by the ladies, and a fund is to be raised to prosecute the case thoroughly, which will come up at next term of the Common Pleas prophecies an animated system of war, as the raiders are a most determined set of people, and propose to settle now and forever whether whiskey shall be sold with impunity in their midst.

Georgia papers fully endorse the late order of Gen. Steadman, and regard it as anindication of the liberal policy of the Federing the "greasy fluid." A heavy strata of al Government. They speak encouragingshale rock was reached last week. As the ly of the renewal of trade. Large stocks of goods are received on almost every train.

At a meeting of the State Teachers' As-"struck" several days since, is pronounced sociation, held at Elmira, a long report was as a sure indication of oil by those who adopted, in which the necessity of military drill and physical training, as a part of the education of youth, was forcibly and eloquently urged.
