CLEARFIELD, PA., AUG. 2, 1865.

THE NEWS.

Ten thousand treedmen and their families are farming for themselves in the neighborhood of Vicksburg, with excellent results, doing much better than those who worked by the month for wages. The government is furnishing them with seed and other articles on credit, to be paid from the proceeds of the crops. This system is considered the most suitable for the freedmen, as it teaches them to rely on their own exertions.

The English elections show a net gain to the Liberals of seven. To the evening of are highly approved. They runn. the 12th, 184 Liberals and a hundred and two Tories had been returned. John Stuart Mill and Thomas Hughs and Baron Rothschild are elected from the London and Metropolitan boroughs. The Liberals have lost eighteen members and gained twentyfive. The returns so far indicate a complete triumph to the Liberals.

In the Buffalo Police Court it was held last week, that ladies are legally entitled to no more privileges in public conveyances than gentlemen, and that when the latter pay for seats they have a perfect right to occupy them so long as they conduct themselves in a proper manner. A conductor was accordingly fined $500 for ejecting a man from a car because he refused to give his seat to a woman.

The Tredegar iron works at Richmond have been leased by the United States to its former owners, Jos. R. Anderson and his partners, who have commenced business again as iron manufacturers. These works being held by Government agents as confiscated property, revenue is derived by the renting of them until proceedings under the confiscation act shall be determined.

The Congregation of thieves and other disreputable characters at Springfield, Illinois, assembled to prey upon the soldiers paid off there, is so great, that the Mayor has turned over the command of the city to the military authorities, and the place has been put under martial law,

The Philadelphia horses, used to draw the street cars, by resting on Sunday, are able to perform as much work in six days. as Boston horses, which work on Sundays do in nine days. Sunday travel upon Massachusetts horse railroads is said to involve a loss of $150 000 per annum.

The Little Rock Journal holds out strong inducements to emigrate to Northwestern Arkansas, and dilates with great enthusiasm,

The old elm tree on Boston Common, on which Mary Dyer was hung, two hundred and thirty years ago, for preaching Quaker doctrines, is still standing. Some of its heavy branches are supported by iron chains, and every possible care is taken for its preservation.

During the year 1863, the Southern Bank of Kentucky, at Carrolton, was robbed of over $100,000. A few days since officer D. T. Bligh arrested in Louisville Beriah Riddell, as one of the parties implicated in the robbery. Riddell was taken to Carrolton.

John Perdue of Indianapolis, who has an income of $107,000 (the largest in that city.) formerly taught school for a living at $10 per month, and was once warned out of a township because he was so poor that it was teared he might become a town charge.

There are sixteen hundred male employees in the Treasury Department at Washington at present, of which number at least six hundred are disabled soldiers. Some five hundred female clerks are also employed.

A private letter, just received by a gentleman from a reliable party in Utab, gives the details of a wholesale murder of a family of six persons by a gang of Brigham's"Danites," or "Destroying Angels."

The prize fight for one thousand dollars a side, between Clark and Keating, which was to have come off at Cincinnati, has been indefinately postponed by the arrest of Keating, who is held in $10,000 bail.

The ground heretofore occupied by Barnum's Museum and the burnt district has been purchased by James Gordon Bennett. Barnum receives $250,000. The entire purchase will amount to $450,000.

John Stewart, whose arrest was announced several days ago, on suspicion of being implicated in the murder of the Joyce children, was honorably discharged, on motion of the Prosecuting Attorney.

It is spoken of as a coincidence, that on the 8th of July the steamer Admiral Dupont was blown up, Admiral Dupont himself died, and a locomotive named in his honor was blown to atoms.

Gold is said to be found in considerable quantities in Goochland and the adjoining counties, of Virginia. Numbers of returned rebel soldiers are at work getting out the precious metal.
