AFFAIRS IN MORTH CAROLINA.

Late accounts from North Carolina are not pleasant. It is reported that a too liberal use of the pardoning power has given the upper hand to the most uns rupulous til all arrearages are paid, except at the option of the publisher. S. J. ROW. enemies of the Union, and that real Union men are persecuted and kept under by such enemies. Hon. William A. Graham, a high-priest in the late Confederate Senate, is boasting that if negroes are to be allowed to vote he will not consent that North Carolina shall return to the Union. It may be that Mr. Graham's consent will be unnecessary; but his ex cathedra declaration at least shows the spirit of his class. A Mr. J. H. P. Russ, who has been designated as representative in Congress, who has just received a Federal appointment, is evidently trying to out-rebel Graham, and boasts that if he had the power he would at once reduce every black person to slavery. These, we submit, are rather poor specimens of oath-taking loyalists. Others less voilent, but who still cling to the old institution, want the State Convention to establish an apprenticeship system, binding the former years. Indeed, all these representatives of State sentiment seem to ignore the great fact that there are no slaves in North Carolina. A few copies of the President's procto Messrs. Graham, Russ & Co., since they have evidently forgotten that such a document was issued. The raleigh Progress, in an article on the subject of pardoning, says:

leading rebels of the State, who are daily receiving pardons, still more defiant and disloyal than before. Comprising the public men of the State, they have all been designated as delegates to the coming State Convention, which body it is known they will control. The negroes and Union men are the special objects of their hatred, whose protection depends entirely upon the en-forcement of the Confiscation Law, which disforcement of the Confiscation Law, which disarms only the disloyal who will be beyond the reach of the federal authorities as soon as the new State Government is inaugurated. It is understood that this element who war purposes, will make a strong effort to have the same assumed, by not providing against it in the constitution, but leave the same assumed. pected exhibition of loyalty and vindictive arrogance the Union men are endeavoring to have the call of a State Convention delayed until after Congress meets, which will pudiated by the people, as it is very appa- mings, Braids. Vails, etc rent it will be of an obnoxious character, judging from the material designated to compose that body. These treacherous leaders, who have been pardoned through Gov. Holden's recommendation, are now organizing in every county, and openly assert that their party is strong enough to defeat Mr. Holden or any othe r candidate for Governor, who fails to identify himself with | bowls, plates, dishes, etc. them.'

A Bit of Political History.

It is a little curious in the discussions which have lately sprung up in relation to the Monroe Doctrine, more frequent reference has not been made to certain political enunciations in the year 1864. One significant sign was the resolution of the 4th of April of that year, reported from the Committee on Foreign Affairs, which was unanimously adopted by the House of Representatives of the United States, one hundred and nine members being present and every member yoting yea. It was as follows: Resolved, That the Congress of the United States are unwilling by silence to leave the nations of the world under the impression that they are indifferent spectators of the deplorable events now transpiring in the republic of Mexico; therefore they think it fit to declare that it does not accord with the people of the United States to acknowledge a monarchial government erected on the ruins of any republican government in America, under the auspices of any European pow-

The other event to which we allude, occurred on the 8th of June, 1864. The Baltimore Convention, which on that day nominated Abbaham Lincoln and Andrew Johnson, adopted unanimously and with great applause, as a part of the platform of the party, the following in response to the Congressional resolution:

Resolved, That we approve the position taken by the government that the people of the United States can never regard with indifference the attempt of any European power to overthrow by force, or to supplant by fraud, the institutions of any republican government on the Western continent. [Prolonged applause.] And that they will view with extreme jealousy, as menacing to the peace and independence of this our country, the efforts of any such power to obtain new footholds for monarchial governments sustained by a foreign military force in near proximity to the United States. [Long continued applause.]

The shore end of the Atlantic cable was landed, and connection made with the land instruments on July 22, in the presence of a large concourse of people. Enthusiastic speeches were made by Sir Robert Peel and others, and three cheers were given for the Queen and President Johnson. Two miles had been payed out to sea.

A Showman, while descanting on the habits and ferocious character of the allegator, having represented the one on exhibition to be some twenty feet in length, when, in truth, it was but seven. Nick said it reminded that the Building known as the Exchange Hotel. ed him of the Western orator's response to his opponent: "That allegation is false, and the allegator knows it."
