THE RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL.

Raftsman's Journal.

CLEARFIELD, PA., AUG. 16, 1865.

THE NEWS.

The condition of Mexico is represented as becoming rapidly more desperate. The Imperial government is daily causing fresh misfortunes. Twenty plantations on the river Papatopam and the town of Sacotalpam were recently sacked, and many outrages committed by the French navy. The Egyptian troops have burned two hundred and forty houses, inhabited by workmen in Cocinto, and the unfortunate people are living in the greatest misery. The French have laid waste over seven leagues of cultivated territory on the rivers Cocecite and Halesroyan, carrying devastation everywhere, without any pretext, but merely because the people will not make war upon those who who resist French aggression.

The last of the immense boilers designed for the formidable ram Dunderberg was on Saturday a-week placed on board the ram. Dunderberg has six boilers in all, and which. in all probability are the largest ever constructed in this or any other country. One of the boilers weighs over sixty tons, is seventeen feet and a halt in hight, and its front twenty-one and a half feet. Each boiler has a fire surface of 30,000 square feet and a grate surface of 1,200 feet. The the most satisfactory manner.

A curious snake was recently found at Lee, says the Springfield Republican. It was nearly four feet in length, about the size of a man's finger, and shaped like a whiplash: and, on close examination, the whole body was found to be composed of small worms, about half an inch in length, with large black heads and semi-transparent body. On separating them into fragments they would immediately reform into the snakeshape and crawl slowly off. One or two other similar snakes have recently been seen in that vicinity.

Dauphin county, during the war, paid $794,653 bounty to her volunteers. In addition, $78,000 were paid to nine months' men in 1862, and one hundred days' men in 1864. The county during the same period also paid relief to soldiers' families amounting to $146,000.

Bishop Lyet, of South Carolina, who is now in Rome, and Miss Cora Slocum, of New Orleans, have been pardoned by the President. The confiscated estates of Miss Slocum have been restored to her, on recommendation of General Butler.

The downward tendency of wages has been felt in Erie county. Some of the machine shops reduced the wages of their employees about twenty per cent, a few days ago. The men acquiesced cheerfully in the necessity of this movement.

It is reported in Washington that Gen. Benjamin D. Hill, of the late rebel army, was arrested in that city, on Friday night, for drunkenness, and not having sufficient money to pay his fine, was sent to the workhouse for thirty days.

A colored man in Eufala, S.C. undertook to burn out a hornet's nest he found in a cotton warehouse. His triumph was complete; so was the destruction of the building and the 1.500 bales of cotton which were init. On Saturday afternoon, July 22, between three and four o'clock, McConnellsburg was visited by a snow storm, which lasted several minutes, as can be certified to by many citizens. The day was quite warm.

An account of the defeat of Cortinas by Lopez, comes to us by the way of New Orleans. Cortinas lost some 400 men; the Imperialists, only some five or six men wounded.

Paris letters say that French officials have strong hopes that our government will recognize the Mexican Empire before long. The French are proverbially a visionary people.

The Erie (Pa.) Observer says that H. D. Sherman, of the famous "Sherman well," is reported to be worth $7,000,000. Five years ago he was a poor man.

The formation of a new county out of portions of Venango, Crawford, and Warren counties, is still being agitated, and will probably be accomplished.

The Colored Equal Rights State Convention will meet to-day in Harrisburg. The Convention will adopt measures to agitate for the right of suffrage.

The Matamoras papers say that among the rebel officers making their way to the city of Mexico, was Kirby Smith, Price, Magruder, and Preston.

Some members of the 1st Ohio Cavalry, under the effects of liquor, recently robbed and destroyed goods in Florence, N. C., to the value of $2,500.

There is much sickness among the Federal troops near Monterey. General Steele, with three of his officers, are down sick with back-bone fever.

The Huntingdon Journal says that a better crop of grain than that of the present season was never cut in that county.

The old flag was raised over the State Capitol at Austin, Texas, for the first time in four years, a few days ago.

The rebel General Hill has been released from the Washington work house-a citizen having paid his fine.

The next session of the State Teachers' Association is to be held at Gettysburg. The yellow fever is prevailing to a considerable extent in Havana.
