

THE NEWS.

Stephens, the ex-rebel Vice President, is represented as being in a precarious state of health, a condition not produced by any lack of palatable food or kind treatment, as he is entertained with consideration in his confinement at Fort Warren.

Robert E. Lee has been tendered and accepted the Presidency of Washington College, a leading Virginia institution of learning.

General Sigel, who now conducts the Wecker, of Baltimore, one of the ablest of our German newspapers, proposes, in order to gratify those white citizens who dread coming in contact with black voters at the polls, that special ballot-boxes should be kept for the latter class, just as has been the practice with regiments of soldiers voting in the field.

A gentleman who has just arrived from Vicksburg, says that twenty-five planters are under arrest there, all charged with either maltreating or willfully killing their former slaves.

Lawlessness to an alarming extent prevails in all parts of Baltimore, which is accounted for by the re-appearance of large numbers of rowdies who left that city to engage in the rebellion, and who, since their parole, have returned to take up their old occupation of robbery, theft and murder.

The Southern crops, the Richmond Times says, are the most abundant ever known in that part of the country, and the people are saved all danger of famine and suffering.

The Hamilton, Ohio Telegraph says that Sylvester Irwin, the young man who recently killed his father and step-mother, near Darrown, Butler county, was the leader of the mob who drove the negroes away from Darrown some time ago.

The Nashville Republican says that the profts that the Alabama slave oligarchy intend to re-establish slavery as soon as the Federal troops are withdrawn from the State, "crowd thickly upon us almost every day."

The Chicago papers inform us that one hundred and fifty gamblers had been arrested in that city in one day.

We have further information that the said gamblers were fined at the terrific rate of five dollars each.

"If you admit the negro to this struggle for any purpose, he has a right to stay in for all, and when the fight is over, the hand that drops the musket cannot be denied the ballot."

Dick M' Cann, the rebel cavalry raider in Tennessee, has been arrested on a charge of having been a member of a Court Martial that hung several citizens of Knoxville during the war.

The Courts in South-Western Missouri are steadily refusing to take the oaths of returned rebels in civil and criminal cases, in accordance with the new Constitution.

The friends of Mr. Seward, it is said, do not relish the removal of Mr. Draper and the appointment of Preston King to the collectorship in New York.

The oil springs that are creating such an excitement in Crawford county, Wis., were examined and reported upon by a Government surveyor in 1845.

The Columbia Spy urges upon the Pennsylvania Railroad Company the necessity of rebuilding the bridge over the Susquehanna.

It is reported that one-third of the members of the Canadian Parliament are in favor of annexation to the United States.

Queen Victoria is said to have a touch of the petroleum fever, and invested a few thousand in a London company.
