Aaftsman's Journal.

CLEARFIELD, PA., AUG. 30, 1865.

FROST - Last week there were several light fiests on the ridges, but, we believe, no injury was done to the buckwheat and burg.

THE WEATHER AND CROPS. -The weather has been quite propitious during the past week or two, and the growing cops promise an abundant yield.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE. -John Scott, a min ister in the Society of Friends, will hold a meeting for worship in the M. E. Church, in Clearfield borough, this (Wednesday) evening, at candle lighting. The public are respectfully invited to attend.

New Goods.-Boynton, Showers and Graham, are just receiving and opening an extensive assortment of new dry goods, etc., which they are prepared to sell at moderate prices, as their purchases were made when goods were low in the east. Give them a

THE OIL WELL.-We understand that the oil company has been compelled to suspend boring, for a want of the requisite power. The stock holders now contemplate purchasing an engine of sufficient power for any emergency, when operations will be resumed with renewed vigor.

PREPARE. - We hope that the farmers throughout the country are active in their preparations for the coming Agricultural Fair; if not they should be, as upon them, in a great measure, depends its success. We advise all to remember this fact, that the sooner you begin, the more thorough will be | Castle. the preparation and the more creditable the exhibition CBITUARY. - Died, in Clearfield borough. at the residence of his father, Jonathan Boynton, Esq., on Tuesday morning. August 29th, 1865, IRA N. BOYNTON, aged 18 years, 8 months and 27 days. The deceased was afflicted, for a number of years with a sore leg. Notwithstanding his afflictions. he was still able to go about until about three months since, when his other leg also became deseased. Althoughlying prostrate and helpless, and at times even suffering intense pain, yet he was ever cheerful and resigned to his situation; and for several weeks previous to his death was conscious of his approaching dissolution. He was affectionate, generous, kind and accommodating, and greatly beloved by all who knew him. His death will be deeply mourned by his parents and relatives, and sincerely regretted by his numerous companions and friends. Let him rest in peace.

LOREN GOODFELLOW .- Among the most deplorable consequences of the late war-a war instigated and prolonged by Northern treatment they received while prisoners in advertisement in another column. the hands of the rebels. All over the land these victims of worse than vandal barbarity are to be seen-their strength wasted, and their constitutions broken-hastening to premature graves. Among the number was SMITH LOREN A. M. GOODFELLOW, who recently died at the residence of his father, G. D. Goodfellow, in Lawrence township, in the twenty-fifth year of his age. He was a member of Capt. M'Gaushey's company, of the 5th Penn'a Reserves-a regiment, than which none made a prouder record during 1865, FANNY LABORD, wife of Ja ob Lathe war. On the discharge of the Fitth, he re-enlisted in the 191st regiment. He was taken prisoner at Spottsylvania Court House, and remained confined at Richmond over eleven months, or until the city was captured by the victorious legions of Grant. He was found by his Father in the Hospital at Fortress Monroe, who brought him home, where he lingered a few months, and died. His vivid description of the hardships the prisoners were compelled to endure, caused the very blood of the listener to curdle in his veins. In a letter to his Aunt he said, "If I die, I want inscribed upon my tombstone, starced by the chivalrous Southerners!" He was a noble young patriot-a brave soldier, and has yielded up his life for his native land. Let those of us who survive these martyr heroes of the war, strive of the sacrifice.

And that must be well improved for it is the last UTAHVILLE, AUG. 18, 1865.-MR. ED-ITOR: I have the honor to report you a sketch of another celebration on the funeral of the past war. Unpleasant showers, muddy and disagreeable as was the day, no less was the enjoyment, dinner and orations. We had very distinguished expounders of the past, the present, and the future. We were also endowed with sweet melodious music, such as I heard once upon a time when a neighbors bees swarmed, when he, thinking they would seek some wilder abode, succeeded in rallying all the sauce pans connected with his cookery, in order to get them reconciled. There was but one battle fought during the day. Casualties: one man wounded below the eye, with a steel ball. What a pity (for such aristogracy) that the war closed so soon! I feel assured they would get a sufficient portion-enough to live in peace. The "lame" one of the party has fought in the past trouble. Thus ended a great day ih our midst; and we returned home nearly as wise as we went.

DIED: In Union township, on Friday August 18 bord, aged 34 years, 6 mo iths and 1 day.

> Why should our tears in sorrow flow When God recalls his own.
> And hids them leave a world of woe For an immertal crown. Is not even death a gain to those Whose life to Goo was given? Gladly to earth their eyes they close To open thence in Heaven. Their toils are past, their work is done, And they are fully blest:

They fought the fight, the victory won. And entered into rest.

Then let our sorrows cease to flow, Gob has recalled his own; And let our hearts, in every woe, Still say-Tay WILL BE DONE! D. E. B., Rockton, Pa., 1865.

INSTRUCTIONS TO JUDGES .- No animal to receive an award in more than one class. Judges are expressly required not to award pre-miums to over-fed animals. No premiums are to be awarded to bulls, cows or heiffers, which shall appear to have been fattened, only in the class of fat cattle, the object of the Society being to have superior animals of this discription for breeding. FAT CATTLE .- The judges on fat cattle will give particular attention to the animals submitted for examination. It is believed all other things being equal those are the best cattle that have the greatest weight over the smallest superficies. The judges will require all in this class to be weighed, and will take measures to give the superficies of each, and publish the result with their reports. They will also, before awarding any premiums, require of the competitors full statements as to the manner and cost of feeding as required by the regulations of the premium list.

When there is but one avhibitor although he may

When there is but one exhibitor although he may show several animals in one class only one premi-um will be awarded, that to the first, or otherwise as the merits of the animal may be judged. The superintendent will take every precaution in his power, for the safety of stock and articles on exhibition after their arrival, and arrangement on the grounds, but will not be responsible for any loss or damage that may occur. The Society desires exhibitors to give personal atten-tion to their animals and articles and at the close of the fair to attend to their removal as the Society cannot take further care of them. RULES OF PLOWING -The name of the plowman must be given as well as the kind of plow to be used, at the time of entry.
