

RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., AUG. 30, 1865.

THE NEWS.

It is natural that many of the champions of slavery in our Southern States should conceive the plan of emigrating to Brazil, in order to enjoy there the blessing of slaveholding and contribute their share to the perpetuation of the institution.

In New England, the manufacturers are getting gradually back to the old gigantic work of producing millions of yards of cotton cloth.

There is much indignation manifested by the citizens of Salisbury, N. C., at the arrangement and trial of Miss Temperance Neely, daughter of an old and prominent citizen who shot and killed Galina, one of the family's female servants.

Gov. Murphy, of Arkansas, has issued an address to the people of that State, giving them some sound advice about the approaching election of Congressmen.

The Minnesota State Democratic Convention was rather a failure. But twelve counties were represented, and but one fully.

An interesting incident occurred lately in a street car in Chicago. A soldier who had lost a leg was offered a seat by a young lady, when a thankful look from the soldier occasioned his recognition by the lady as her husband, whom she had long since supposed to have been killed in battle.

A gentleman of London, Canada, named James Hunt, being taken with a fit after bathing in Lake Erie, lay upon the beach in a state of partial unconsciousness for seventeen days, unable to help himself, without food or shelter, until accidentally discovered.

The immense shaft projected by the Petroleum Shaft and Mining Company at Petroleum Center is progressing very favorably. It has reached already a depth of nearly seventy feet, and thus far the operations have not been retarded by any of the obstacles previously apprehended.

A lady of Jacksonburg, Ohio, who lost her speech twenty-five years ago while apparently in a trance, has lately recovered it in a strange manner, by taking an excessive quantity of spirits, as she was advised to do by a soldier who had cured himself of less protracted dumbness in the same way.

Fears of Negro Insurrection. In some parts of the South the unsettled social condition has led to grave fears of negro insurrection. Especially is this the case in South Carolina.
