A Rich Performance. On Friday last, September 1st, the "harmonious" Democracy met at Luthersburg, in this county, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Assembly. Shortly before the appointed hour, as we are informed, the Conferees from Clearfield and Forrest counties were induced through the "Spiritual influence" of some renowned political jug-gler, to meet and organize-which was accordingly done. After the organization a committee, consisting of one Short Irishman, was appointed to inform the Conferces of Elk county, that they had organized and were now ready to proceed with the nomination, and that they wanted them (the Elk wire-pullers in all their glory. Presto, change! and Dr. Early was kicked overboard That the whole affair was a rich and racy performance, will not be denied; and is only equaled by the mysterious slight-of-hand tricks of the famous Signor Blitz. How this "harmonious" piece of political jug-

A report has been put in circulation by certain officious and meddlesome persons for their own purposes, that Judge LINN was about to resign, in order to accept the appointment of State Reporter. We have been assured by Judge Linn himself that the story is entirely false-that he has no present intention of resigning, and would only consent to do so in obedience to the expressed wishes of the responsible business men of the District. It is only just to say that there has never been a Judge upon the Bench, in this county, who gave more general satisfaction, and none whose resignation would be more universally regretted. We are glad therefore to assure our readers, that the report above alluded to is entirely without foundation.

Hon. G. W. Scofield. We clip the following paragraph from the Erie Gazette, of August 23d:

Our able and efficient Representative in Congress, Hon. G. W. Scoffeld, has accepted the invitation extended him to deliver the Annual Address before the New York State Fair, to be held at Utica next month. He will, we doubt not, acquit himself creditably on the occasion. Referring to Judge Scorield, we are reminded of the remark made to us a few days ago by an eminent citizen of our State, "that he regarded him as one of the ablest members of Congress from Pennsylvania." He added that "his speech in reply to James Brooks was a mas-terly effort, ranking with the best pronounc-ed either in the House or Senate during the

On Monday morning, during the viclent thunder storm which prevailed, the distilery of Mesrs, Edward Ames & Co. at Chicago was struck by lightning. The electric shaft made for its mark a large alcohol itub, the cover of which was blown off and the contents ignited. Through the presence of $67,274 05; manufactures of iron, $471,459mind of Mr. Hutchinson, the distiller, the flames were speedily extinguished.

THE SOILDIER'S REMEMBER.-The Copperhead papers throughout the country are endeavoring to explain away the force and meaning of the taunts and insults they heaped upon the soldiers in the service by calling them "Lincoln hirelings." The Copperheads now wince, and well they may. The soldiers have not fergotten this. Nor have they forgotten the fact that these men are the same who boasted that they had refused to vote

Speech of Maj Gen. Hartranft.
The people of Non-rown, last week, serenaded the Hero of Fort Steadman, now the Union candidate for Auditor General. After a congratulatory speech by Benjamin F. Hancock, Gen. Hartranft responded to the calls of the people as follows:

My Fellow Citizens:-J. thank you most sincerely for this compliment to night. It assures me that you endorse my past pub-lic life and that I hold your confidence and support in the public contest soon to be in-augurated. I also thank you, Mr. Hancock, for the kind mention of my military history. Of this I will not speak nor detain you but a moment. As a soldier I feel it my duty to give my humble aid to the great party which has during the rebellion so nobly supported the Government in the struggle for existence and national honor. It put forth its strong arm and assisted the Government in filling our depleted ranks. If this had not been done we would still be digging in front of Petersburg, or perhaps been compelled to accept a dishonorable peace. To do this in a righteous cause would have been a disgrace to every soldier. If the soldier is true to himself he must be true to the Union party. His pension list, his bounty for his early enlistment, his right of suffrage, his protection through life all appeal to him.

I need not say that every effort should be made now to protect and encourage labor. You well understand that it is the wealth of a nation. And while this is so, also from patriotic considerations see that the returned soldier is honorably employed. It is the highest favor that can be bestowed upon him or his country. He will then soon forget his camp life and become an industrious and prosperous citizen.

The military power of the rebellion is crushed, I may say forever, and the nation ooms up amidst the ruins more grand and powerful than it ever seemed before. But remember the spirit of rebellion is still alive and must be more carefully guarded. Let it be shorn of all political power, for in that is concealed all its strength and danger.

I hope soon to see the immense armies of the North and South engaged in civil and peaceful pursuits, all adding their energy to restore our happy, glorious country to its former wealth and prosperity. Allow me a-gain to return my thanks for your compli-

Emigration South. Should a large and spontaneous current of emigration set in toward the South, it will be a thing to be wondered at, an anomaly, almost, in the history of modern migrations. Emigration both from the North and South has been mainly Westward. The same attractions which have caused this acicdental tendency continue to operate. No new attraction in the South will be likely to produce a cross current of any considerable magnitude. It is time, that very many persons, in the aggregate, were residents of the South, according to the last census, who had been born in other States. But they men) to come in. But Dr. Early, and the pect to make their living or their fortunes Elk county conferees, "couldn't see the point," and departed—leaving the Clearfield such, as a general thing, the West has still more attractions than the South. The efforts of Emigration Associations will not be likely to cause the removal Southward of and Dr. T. Jefferson Boyer nominated! this class; but this, and the manufacturers with capital, are the classes which are most needed in the Southern States Common labor is sufficiently abundant there already, if it were well employed and well directed, as it will be, if well paid.

Kentucky.

Excluding the new, thinly-peopled Wolfe County-which is reported to have given a pro-Slavery majority of 12-the total vote for State Treasurer compares with that for President last Fall as follows:

1864—President. 1865—Treasurer. McClellan. 64,301 Total. Garrard. 42,240 Total incoln. 27,786 92,087 Neal. 42,082 84,322. Pro-Slav maj 36,815. Pro-Slav maj 158.

Several counties made no return last Fail because of the War, and 'Little Tennessee' (that portion of Kentucky westward of Tennessee River) gave but a light vote and a small pro-Slavery majority, owing to the absence of her men in the Rebel armies. Now they are at home and voted in spite of the law, substituting a "Conservative" for a "Radical" Representative in Congress, and giving a heavy majority for Garrard-much heavier than the district gave McClellan. But for this, the Emancipation victory would have been overwhelming.

The Cincinnati Inquirer, the leading organ of the copperheads of Ohio, still insists that the war has been a failure. The Doylestown Democrat, owned and controlled by W. H. Davis, the copperhead candidate for Auditor General, has never changed its opinion on the same subject. When the Government was forced to resort to arms to put down the slaveholders' rebellion, Mr. Davis' newspaper declared that it was infamous thus to treat the Southern people, who had a right to secede, and up to this time, that same sheet insists that the war has been a failure. According to Mr. Davis' own showing, he has been a failure as a soldier, and yet he wants people to vote for him on his military merits. - Telegraph.

The State of Massachusetts has paid to he National Government in taxes on manufactures for 1864 as follows: Confectionary, $46,990 83; on cotton goods, $1,128, 928 67; fermented liquors, $97,831 59; gas, 25; leather $1,615,158 17; petroleum, $206,-291 51; paper, $226,677 60; refined sugar, $81,349 43; wooden ware, $183,740 86; woolen manufactures, $1,191,17791. UNION COUNTY CONVENTION.

Pursuant to previous notice, the Union party of Clearfield county, assembled in Convention in the Borough of Clearfield, on Thursday, August 31st, 1865, for the purpose of nominating a county ticket.

The Convention was called to order by the Chairman of the County Committee, and upon motion Arthur Bell Esq., was chosen President. Capt. J. L. Rex, Sansom Lingle, Capt. E. Kratzer, and Wm. Zimmerman, Vice

Lieut. J. Patton Bard, and Sergt. W. A.

Nelson, Secretaries. On a call of the several election districts. ninety delegates answered to their names. On motion, J. B. M'Enally, Esq., Joseph Winery, James P. Nelson, Gen John Patton, and Hon. John P. Hoyt, were appointed a committee to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the Convention.

The Committe retired, and after a short bsence reported the following resolutions: Resolved, That we devoutly acknowledge that God has mercifully interposed to save us as a nation, and we gratefully return thanks to Him who rules over all.

Resolved, That we heartily concur on the Declaration of Principles adopted by the U-nion State Convention held at Harrisburg on the 17th of August; and esteem those patriotic men, Gen. John T. Hartranft, for Auditor General, and Col. Jacob M. Campbell, for Surveyor General, standing on such a platform as entitled to the cordial support

Resolved, That we have full confidence in Andrew Johnson, the President of the United States, and will, as heretofore, rally to his support in every proper effort to save the country, preserve the Union, and rebuke, crush and punish treason and conspiracy. Resolved, That Andrew G. Curtin, the oldiers friend, as Governor, has fully justified the expectations of his friends, and merits the lasting gratitude and thanks of the whole nation for his official services. Resolved, That the Hon. G. W. Scofield our representative in Congress, is hereby tendered our thanks for the ability and patriotism he has displayed in the discharge of his public duties. Resolved, That those brave men who have fought our battles by land and by water, have through the blessing of heaven, preserved the nation, and are entitled to the grateful remembrance of the people who enoy those benefits, which their tool and suffering and blood have secured. The report of the committee was unanimously adopted, after which the Convention proceeded to make nominations, and On motion of Gen. Patton, Col. John Irvin of Curwensville, was nominated, by ac-

On motion to proceed to the nomination of a candidate for Treasurer, John W. Wright, Esq., suggested the name of Samuel Mitchell,—J. B. M'Enally, Esq., suggested the name of Capt. J. E. Kratzer and Gen. Patton suggested the name of Col. Alfred M. Smith. Upon a ballot being taken, Capt. Kratzer, of Pike township received a majority of all the votes cast, whereupon the nomination was made unanimous. On motion of D. Livingston, Esq., Horace Patchin, of Burnside township. was nominated for Commissioner, by acclama-

On motion of Mr. Hemphill, Lieut, Wm. R. Brown, of Clearfield Borough was nomi nated for Auditor, by acciamation.
On motion of S. J. Row, Thomas W Moore, of Penn township, was nominated for County Surveyor, by acclamation. On motion, the nominee for State Senator was granted the privilege of selecting his own conferees. On motion, J. B. M'Enally, Esq., Joseph R. Arnold, and John B. Hewitt were appointed Representative conferees-with power to substitute. The Convention having concluded the business assigned it, on request, Messrs. M'Enally and Patton entertained the delegates present in a few brief and pointed remarks; after which the Convention adjourned.

Centre County Convention.

Our Republican friends in Centre county, held their Convention last week, and nominated the following ticket: For Assembly, Gen. James A. Beaver; Treasurer, Capt. R. C. Cheesman; Dristict Attorney, R. G. Durkham; Commissioner, Thos. Hosterman; Auditor, J. W. Packer.

We clip the following from the proceedings of the Convention, as published in the Central Press. On motion, Wm. H. Longwell, Jas. F. Riddle and Andrew Gregg, Jr., were appointed a committee to wait on H. Bucher woope, Esq., and invite him to address the Convention. The committee returned in a short time accompanied by Mr. Swoope, who addressed the Convention in a speece which elicited the hearty approval of every man present' and was received with enthusiastic applause. The thanks of the Convention were then tendered to Mr. Swoope for his eloquent defence of our cause.

A Fire in the Rear.

All good soldiers take every precaution.

as they advance on the enemy, to prevent the forces which they lead being assailed by a fire in the rear. This was not the case with Col. Davis, the copperhead candidate for Auditor General. When he marched to the contest with traitors, he left an enemy behind in the shape of a newspaper he owned and cotrolled, which was unceasing and unre lenting in its abuse of those in authority, and in its fiercely tenacious misrepresentation of the objects and the efforts of the Government to put down rebellion. If half the charges could be proven which Col. Davis' own journal preferred against those engaged in sustaining the Government, he would stand to day fairly accused of murder, rapine and robery. And yet for being engaged in what his own newspaper characterized as damnable outrages on the people of the South, Col. Davmore impertinent and ridiculous.

Testimonial of Regard. Killed in action, at Fort Steadman, in front of Petersburg, Va., March 25th, 1865, Sergt. Charles E. Hemphill, aged 21 years

In the grave calmly sleeping, secure from all

No pain, and no sorrow, nor harm shall there reach thee, Or hinder thy waking again into life.

We loved the most dearly, the parting was It grieved us to lay thee so soon in the grave. But He who first gave thee, has seen fit to take And we still trust in his power to save, Hemphill, to know that it was merely lack of time, that prevented a Company meeting, and passage of Resolutions, at the the time of his death. And we can now only repair the delay, by the meeting of Officers and men, now in this immediate vicinity, (composing in part the defunct Co. F. 211th P. CHARLES E. HEMPHILL was a member of Co. F. 211th P. V. I., with the rank of 3rd Sergt., and acting marker of the regt. At a meeting of the undersigned officers and members of the late Co. F, the following preamble was read and abodted :

WHEREAS, it has pleased Almighty God, in his afflicting dispensation, to remove from us by death, our esteemed comrade and brother soldier, Charles E. Hemphill, leaving us to deplore his untimely loss; And whereas, this body being duly impressed with a sense of his attachment to the company, and of his amiable disposition, and as a proper respect for his memory demands suitable action on the part of Co. F, it is therefore Resolved, That Co. F., in the death Sergt. Hemphill, has lost a worthy and efficient member, and the Union a brave soldier. Generous to a fault, manly and winning in his ways, he made himself unanimously beloved by his associates and by attention to duty won the esteem and respect of his superior officers.

Resolved, That we sincerely sympathize with his friends in their very severe bereavement, in the common loss that we have sustained; and by it they are solemly admouished of the extreme uncertainty of life and the instability of human affairs, and that we hereby tender to them our sympathy and

According to the Constitution of Ohio, the vacancy in the Gubernatorial chair created by the death of Gov. Brough, will be filled by the Lieutenant Governor, Colonel Charles Anderson, of Dayton, a brother of Maj. Gen. Anderson, of Fort Sumter fame. Col. Anderson is a native of Kentucky. At the breaking out of the rebellion he was residing in Texas, but escaped to the North and became a resident of Dayton. He was nominated for Lieutenant Governor in the fall of 1863 and stumped the State of Ohio with great force, contributing largely by his eloquence to the success of his ticket. He is an able, sincere and pure minded man.

The Philadelphia North American well says of Gov. Curtin: "He has saved Pennsilvania from an ocean of debt, and it is to his credit mainly that the finances of the commonwealth are now in a far better condition than they have been during the past twenty years. Very few States of this U nion can say this after the experience of the past five years. The fidelity displayed by him toward the citizens of the pending war, has been everywhere the subject of praise. No soldier of Pennsylvania has been by him left uncared for anywhere. To this record even the Democratic members of the Legisture have occasionally borne testimony.

There are few countries, which if well cultivated, would not support double the num ber of their inhabitants, and yet fewer where one third part of the people are not extremey stinted even in the necessaries of life.] send out twenty barrels of corn, which would maintain a family in bread for a year, and bring back in return a vessel, of wine, which half a dozen good fellows would drink in less than a month, at the expense of their health and reason.

SUNDAY AMUSEMENT IN NEW YORK .-A fire company in New York procured a fire to be lighted, on Sunday last, in a straw bed, to draw out a rival company, with which it was at enmity. The two met, and all having pistols to extinguish the fire with, commenced peppering at each other. The result was, one killed, tour wounded by pistol shots, and a number of others injured by Mr. Joseph Evans, of Erie, Pa., met with a most lamentable, untimely and melancholy death on Friday last. While sawing an ordinary clap-board, it caught in some manner flying into several pieces,, one of which struck him in the throat, severing the wind-pipe and arteries. Nothing could be done to save his life, and he expired in a few minutes. He leaves a wife and four children.

As the fall elections will soon be coming on, it should be borne in mind that by virtue of the proclamation of the President, of March 10, issued in conformity to a law of Congress, dated March 3d,1863, all persons duly enrolled who departed from the Jurisdiction of the districts in which they were enrolled. or went beyond the limits of the United States to avoid the draft are prohibited from exercising the elective franchise, It will be the duty of the officers to enforce this penalty in all cases at the coming October election.

Records of the Andersonville prison cap-tured by General Wilson, are missing. One of the clerks of the Quartermaster's department, who accompanied the expedition, and in whose hands the records were last seen, has peen placed under arrest by the military arthorities until he can give a satisfactory account of the disposition he made of them. It is thought by some that the records were stolen instead of being lost, for the purpose of preventing them being used as evidence against Wriz.

The latest news of the Brother Jonathan disaster states that only fifteen adults and two children were saved; that two boats were swamped alongside the ship, and three boats were left on board; that boats sent out to the rescue were unable to discover anything of the wreck, and had returned. When Gen. Wright was last seen he had a life-preserver in his hands, but his fate is unknown.

SQUIRREL LAW .- As there appears to be ome misapprehension in regard to the time when grey squirrels are legally "shootable," we would state, for the benefit of all con cerned, that the act of April 2, 1862, fixes the time from the 1st of September to the last of December. The law inflicts a penalty of five dollars for killing them at any other time.

The body of Col. Ulric Dahlgren, which was so mysteriously buried near Richmond at the time of Kilpatrick's famous raid on that city, has been recovered, identified, sent north and re-interred in Washigton. Col. Dahlgren's watch, was stolen at the time and was also recovered.

The Government is making arrangements to publish an exceedingly interesting history of the secret service of the various Union armies, which will embrace the espion age on all the military and civil acts of the Confederate officials.
