True bills having been found by the Grand Jury of Franklin county, at its late session against M Causland and others who were the immediate instrumentalities in the burning of Chambersburg and the pillaging of the border by the Rebels during the war. requisitions have been made upon the Governors of Old Virginia, West Virginia and Maryland for the rendition of these persons to the custody of the Pennsylvania authorities, for trial at Chambersburg. These men, if tried by a jury of loyal Pennsylvanians, will have a hard road to travel. Governor Curtin has sent officers to take them in custody.

At a late hour on Friday, Aug. 29th, Detectives Gilmore and McDougall affected the arrest of the defaulter, Edward B. Ketchum, whom they took into custody at a house in West 20th st., N. Y., where he was known under the the alias of C. R. Lowry of Cincinnati. He has not been out of the city since the discovery of his defalcations. The prisoner was at once taken to the Police Headquarters, and on Saturday District-Attorney A. Oakly Hall, representing the people, appeared in the Tombs Police Court and preferred against him a charge of forgery in the third degree.

In the Wirtz trial on Saturday, Robert H. Kellogg, who was one of the prisoners in Andersonville, testified as to the loathsome condi tion of the prison, when he with four hundred others, arrived there, in May, 1864; the men were almost skeletons, dirty, half-staryed and diseased : that firing at men for appreaching the dead line was frequent. He "also states that he had gone to the stream to wash his hands, when a shot was directed at him, but luckily missed; and that nearly 300 out of 400 who were taken with himself to Andersonville, died in a few days after they were parolled.

Speculators are engaged in buying up rebel currency, in expectation that eventually it will have an appreciable value. The assertion is openly made in Washington that inducements will be brought to bear upon some future Congress that will secure a recognition of the rebel debt. That is the copperhead programme. One of the sets of resolutions before the Committee on Resolutions in the Copperhead Convention of the 24th Aug., contained a hint on this subject, but it was rejected as being premature.

On Sunday night, August 20, a successful robbery was perpetrated in Somerset, Pa. The private banking house of Messrs. Tredwell & Co. was burglarously entered, the safe blown open, and the entire contents. consisting of a large amount of Government securities, Five-Twenties and Seven-Thir ties, and about five hundred dollars in gold and silver carried off. A reward of one thousand dollars is offered for the arrest of the robber and recovery of the property, or five hundred for either. President Johnson has issued an order an-President Johnson has issued an order announcing that persons implicated in the Rebellion against whom no special charges are pending, who desire to leave the country will be furnished passports for that purpose by the State Department, on condition that they shall not return without the Presidents permission. It is said that application has GO already been made on behalf of R. M. T. Hunter of Virginia, now confined in Fort Pulaski, for permission for him to leave the country forever. The latest news from the Empire of Bra zil is that there is an "Abolition party" tlemen who have contemplated emigrating to Brazil! They have no refuge from the If you want Boots and Shoes, "abotitionists," it appears, save in Da homey. Investigations since the Jenkins and Ketchum affairs have developed a defalcation amounting to one hundred thousand dollars on the part of the Teller of another Wall street bank, but the matter has been silenced by the friends of the defaulter refunding the money. The Buffalo Express says : We understand the petit jury of the United States District Court have accepted an invitation fromColchester to witness one of his seances at an early day-Sunday is mentioned by Colchester. He seems to be irrepressible even after defeat.
