DEATH OF HON. JAMES BLOOM.-It is with emotions of deep regret that we record the death of Hon. James Bloom, of this county. He died at his residence in Bloom to suship, on Monday morning, September 11th 1865, of typhoid fever, aged about 71 years. William Bloom, the father of the 1802, with his family, where they have resided ever since. In 1861 James was elected Associate Judge, and discharged the duties of his office with fidelity. He was a man much beloved by all who knew him, on account of his kind and friendly dispostion, and jovial and pleasant address. His death will be deeply mourned by his numerous family connections, and regreted by his many warm and admiring friends.

A NEW RAILROAD PROJECT.

The following letter and article, in reference to a new projected railroad connection with Clearfield, will be read with interest, and is worthy the attention of our people :

BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 5, 1865. M. A. FRANK, ESQ:-DEAR SIR: Not knowing any one in your county, personally, I send this to you, with the request that you will hand to some public-spirited individual, who will consult with others, and, if the subject strikes them as important, take steps to secure to you, and to us, a valuable connection.

You have in Clearfield county 736,000 acres of land, and in all probability, if you had a railway connection with this great emporium of the lakes, every acre would be enhanced in value not less than five dollars per acre-a sum of 3,500,000 dollars in all. You are making efforts to have railroad conrections with the east, but consider, if you could come where your coal is wanted, and everything lelse you have to sell is wanted. is four or five hours travel, how much more valuable would be the connection to you. Millions of tons of coal would find a market here for home use, for use in Canada and on our lake steamers, and in towns all along the western shores of the lakes, east as well as were. Take it east and it is not wanted, because coal can be had from points nearer, and cheaper. The Lake Basin is to be your market. Measure the distance on the map and you will see that you are within 130 miles of this great city. Such a railroad brings you at once to the frontier of this rich lake basin, with its millions of people and rising manufactures. Your people have only to assist in building this road. It will go to Emporium, and the true course from that point is to your place—and thence to Tyrone. on its way to Washington. The great iron-works here, and the steamers, etc., now use nearly half a million tons of coal per annum, from Wyoming coal fields, Ohio, and Blossburg sources of supply, much forther off than Clearfield. Nearly all the way from Emporium the grades up grade, and that not excessive and shortjust the rout for a coal road, when very mission of wrong and of crime. heavy loads can be taken to market. For back loading, the very rich ores of Canada (70 per cent.) could be taken back to work in your furnaces, if needed to mix with your

This connection will add immensely to the wealth and importance of your whole region of country, and aid us also, very much-giving us just what we want, h cap and abundant supplies of bituminous coal—a material benefit all round. Good bituminous coal sells here now for $7.50 per ton. Last year it was $12 and $13 per ton. Once it was as low as $4.50 a Yours Respectfully, C. B. From the Buffalo, N. Y. Express.

BUFFALO WANTS COAL .- A company has been formed in our city and a charter obtained from the Pennsylvania Legislature for the portion of it in that State, for the construction of a railroad from Buffalo to Emporium, in Cameron county, Pa., situated on the line of the Philidelphia and Eric Railroad, called the Buffalo and Washington Railroad Company.

Much money has been sunk by our citizens in a railroad project leading to the coal mines of Pennsylvania, all of which may be to Miss Mary Ann McGarvey. looked upon as lost.

We must have this coal. Upon a full supply of coal at low prices depends the future growth of our city. Without it this never can be a great manufacturing place.

The coal exists in great abundance all around this place Emporium. East, west The cash must accompany the notice, invariably. and south of it, as long ago as 1804, the coal fields at Clearfield, in Clearfield county, were worked. That point is not more than 130 miles from here. Persons well acquaint- 5th of September, 1865, SAMUEL SPENCER, ed with the neighborhood of Emporium aged nearly 50 years.

and Ridgway say those places are over thirty miles south of the northern out-crop of the coal of the great Appalachian coal fields.

Such being the facts, indisputable, all we have to do is to build the railroad and the coal will come. Surely, this city can do this

The motives are the very strongest which call upon us to build this road to the coal region. With cheap bituminous coal we can enter into manufacturing a great variety of commodities, and that will bring in a great population. Without low-priced fuel our growth must be moderate. All we require to make this a great manufacturing city is this one item of coal, and there it is, awaiting an outlay of one or two millions of dollars to build a road to it.

How long would such a community as that of Chicago neglect their opportunities as Best heiffer, 2 y's old. we are doing. They would call a meeting and subscribe the needed sum in one eveally, every one of which promotes their growth, but not one of all their roads has been so advantageous to them as a road leading to the great of th leading to the great coal fields of Pennsylvania would be to us.

It is said that a railroad of about 120 miles would penetrate 40 or 50 miles into the coal fields south of us. The city of Philadelphia, which is a vast manufacturing Best Station Best Mare and colt city, the most so on this continent, brings the majority of the coal used there about the same distance.

Cincinnati, which consumes in her manufactories a great deal of coal, has to rely on the supplies brought from a long distance up the Ohio and Monongahela.

Few places would procure their fuel from shorter distances than we, if we had a railread leading down into Elk and Clearfield

Doubtless our people are tired of hearing about coal from Pennsylvania, and coal railroads; still coal they must have, if not for manufacturing, for heating and cooking, and pay ten to fifteen dollars per ton for it

The saving a railroad would effect, on our present consumption, in a very few years would build such a railroad as is needed. Look at it as we will, the commonest dicdeceased removed to Clearfield County in tates of thrift and prudence, call upon us to take steps once more to give life to some good, sensible plan for reaching these coul deposits, which we by this time feel sure lie so near us, and to give our money too. Will not our real estate owners, and our commercial men, countenance the construc-tion of this needed railway. C.

The Carnival of Crime.

There never was, perhaps, a period of time when the baser passions of men run riot to such an extent as at present. Scarcely a newspaper can be picked up that does not record a murder, robbery, or some other hienous offence. The poisoning of seven persons by a Mrs. Grinder, in Allegheny city, Pa., has already been mentioned in our col- Best 2 in 3 on time in harness umns. If anything, a still more horrible affair occurred recently in England. A man Best trotting horse, or mare in single harcalling himself Ernest Southey, a billiard marker, went with three children of a Mrs. White, his paramour, to a coffee house in London, and after having been there a few days, put them to bed in the evening, and next morning they were found in bed poisoned to death. Whilst the news of the deed | CLASS II-Trotting colts 2 years old, open to all was filling London with excitement, the perpetrator, having made good his escape, was engaged, 70 miles off, on other work equally horrible. It seems his real name was Stephen Forwood, and that, some years ago, he had abandoned his wife at Ramsgate. Having found her, he asked to have a private conversation, which being granted, he' confessed that he had murdered the three chileren in London then drew a pistol and shot his wife and himself. A few days since at Dedham, Mass., Mrs. Susannah Marston, Best pig under six months whilst laboring under a fit of insanity, administered chloroform to her husband and a daughter, and then with a pistol, inflicted such wounds as to cause almost instant death. Last week Mr. David Muir, the Superintendant of the New York and Schuylkill coal company was foully assassinated at New Mine, in Schuylkill county, Pa., and thus far the perpetrators of the deed have eluded the officers of the law. The recital of these crimes is not at all consonant with Best plow for stubble or sward our sense of taste. We make this brief sketch of them only to give an insight into the moral condition of the world, in our day, and of showing the necessity of every orderare down; but one place where there is an loving citizen exerting himself in such a way as will tend to restrain men from the com-

Being unable to sell their fruit, they ate it themselves and died to the last man. It was necessary to employ forced-labor to bury the last. It is said that in alleighty-two thousand victims of the contagion and bad living were buried in Egypt within six weeks.

Thirty-five millions, nine hundred and sixty thousand dollars of the compound interest notes have been printed by the Treasury Department, to place the same amount taken at the treasury and cancelled.
