RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., SEPT. 20, 1865.

Col. Jacob M. Campbell.

Referring to the efforts of the copperhead organs to destroy the military and mainly character of the Union Candidate for Surveyor General, the Johnstown Tribune says that the Leopold does not change his spots nor the Democratic party its tactics. Downright lying has always been one of the main instrumentalities relied upon by the leaders of that party to secure success, and those leaders will now, in the day of their extremity, forgo their ancient prerogative. To magnify the merits of their own candidate for Surveyor General, they have simultaneously and hypocritically procured commenced falsify the military record of that candidate's superior officer, Col. Jacob M. Campbell, one of the best officers Pennsylvania gave to the Union Army for the suppression of a Democratic rebellion. We will not now reply to these fellows, but that a tissue of vile falsehoods may not go uncontradicted, we will state briefly the following facts:

It is NOT TRUE, as alleged, that Col. Campbell resigned his commission in the army. He was mustered out under a general order from the war department, his term of service having expired, precisely as hundreds of other good officers have been honorably discharged from the service. He could not have longer continued in service as a Colonel had he so elected, the regimental organization being broken.

It is NOT TRUE, as alleged, that Lieutenant Colonel Linton led the Fifty-fourth in the battles of Newmarket and Piedmont. He was not even in the battle of Piedmont. Col. Campbell himself gallantly and well led his own regiment in both the battles named, and in every other engagement—with the single exception of the affair at Snicker's Gap—in which that regiment participated, during the whole period of his three years' service. After the battle of New Market, General Sigel personally complimented Col. Campbell and in sight of the whole regiment.

It is NOT TRUE, as alleged, that Lieut. Col. Linton was ever one day in command of the Fifty-fourth before Petersburg, or anywhere in that neighborly od. He was not in one of the many brilliant engagements which followed the inauguration of Grant's splendid campaign against Richmond.

Quick Work.

Boston, a city tolerably given to palaver, has just set to the country a praiseworthy example. Van Weimer, Northedge Shaw and Dolan were soldiers charged with unlawfully violating the person of Elizabeth Bates. The offense was committed on the 13th of August. The offenders were arrested on the same night. A special session of the Grand Jury was ordered and an indictment found. The respondents were brought to trial on the 23d of August. The trial was commenced at 9 o'clock a. m. On account of the absence of witnesses for the defense, a recess was taken, and proceedings resumed at 10:25 a. m. The Government rested its case at 3 o'clock p. m., and the Court took another recess of one hour. The defense was then opened, and fifteen witnesses were examined and cross examined. The prisoners' counsel then occupied forty-five minutes in closing to the jury. The District Attorney followed. At 8:45 p. m. Judge Russell began to charge the jury, and at the close allowed them a reasonable time for supper. At 10:20 p. m. the jury came in with a verdict of guilty. Judge Russell, without adjournment, at once sentenced all the respondents to imprisonment at hard labor for life. The whole case appears to have occupied about twelve hours. There was no unnecessary hurry, no unfair ruling on the part of the Government, no unmerciful severity for the prisoners to complain of; but the lawyers for the State and the lawyers for the culprits were kept well to their work, no time was wasted, the examinations went on rapidly, the Judge did not go home to go to bed after the fatigues of his summing up, but waited for the jury to come in; and when those violators of woman went back to their cells, there was no uncertainty in regard to their fate to keep them awake.

RETURNING TO SPECIE.—The New York Tribune, in an article discussing the question of specie resumption, sets forth the way it is to be achieved, as follows: "We presume that the President and Secretary of the Treasury will, at the meeting of Congress, recommend the funding of our greenbacks, probably in a long loan, outtaxed at four or five per cent. And the moment the greenbacks begin to take this direction, though at the rate of not more than two or five million per week, so as to render it morally certain that the bulk of them are to be absorbed, funded, retired, you will see the premium on gold falling like a stone. It will not wait for the conclusion of the process, but only to see that it is to be a success; and it will be to almost every one interest to bring it to a speedy close."

THE RIGHTS OF COLORED MEN IN VIRGINIA.—The Alexandria (Va.) Journal says: "In the County Court of this county, recently, it was decided in accordance with the eighth section of the Bill of Rights, that colored men are entitled, in all capital or criminal prosecutions, to a trial by jury. The sixth section of the Bill of Rights gives to colored men the right to vote, and reads as follows: 'That all elections ought to be free, and that all men giving sufficient evidence of common interest with and attachment to the community, have the right of suffrage, and cannot be taxed or deprived of their property for public use without their consent or that of their representatives so elected nor bound by any law to which they have not in like manner assented for the public good.'"

A communication from General Fry to the Governor, states that Wisconsin has furnished ninety-three thousand troops to the Federal Government, whose term of service, varying from three months to three years. This is about every other one of the arms-bearing population.

Over $13,000,000 were received at the office of Internal Revenue for the week ending the 6th instant. Certificates of indebtedness to the amount of $6,046,240 were redeemed during the same period. The amount of redeemed currency for the week, was $6,395,920.
