Raftsman's Journal.

CLEARFIELD, PA., SEPT. 27, 1865.

INSESSION-our courts. The attendance, se fir, has been large.

THE WEATHER continues favorable in this region, and crops are maturing rapidly. Corn and buckwheat are good, but potatoes are rotting considerable, yet, the supply may equal to the demand.

CLEARFIELD ACADEMY.—This institution was again opened, on Monday last, under the supervision of Rev. Harrison, who has the reputation of being a most excellent teacher. It is to be hoped that he will receire a liberal encouragement from our citi-

New Store. - By reference to our advertising colums it will be seen that Stacy W. Thompson, has just opened a new store at Marysville, and solicits a share of public patronage. Give him a call before purchasing elsewhere, as he is determined to sell goods low.

The mystery of the Boyd's Hill, (Pittsbug,) murder has been solved, by the disevery and arrest of the murderer. His name is Benj. Bernard Marshall, a hotorious character, who resides near the place where the horrible deed was committed. He is now in custody, and awaiting his trial.

Billy Wallace's "show" exhibited last night. The performances were "rich, rare and spicy." William undertook the difficult part of white-washing his record against the soldiers' right to vote in the army, and his retusing to allow the use of the Senate however, in showing-how the menkey climbed the pole.

Godey's Lady's Dook.-This valuable monthly, for October, is befor us, and contains all its interesting features. Now is the time to commence making up your clubs for 1866. The terms are as follows: One copy, one year, $3; 2 copies $5; 3 copies. $7.50; 4 copies, $10; 5 copies, and an extra to getter up of 'club $14. Address, L. A. Godey, N. E. corner 6th and Chestmut streets, Philadelphia.

TAX-PAYERS, TAKE NOTICE. - In another part of to-day's Journal, will be found "A Card" of Capt. J. Elliott Kratzer, the Union nominee for County Treasurer, in County Treasury-should he be elected. This is a matter well worthy the attention of the tax-payers of Clearfield county, as it thousand annually.

SPLENDID STOCK OF GOODS:-Messes. Irvin & Hartshorn, of Curwensville, have just received at the "corner store," the largest and best stock of seasonable goods ever brought to the county, which they are silling at prices to suit the times. Persons degrous of purchasing goods should give them a coll, as it is always an advantage to select from a large stock. Besides a merchant who buys extensively, generally makes his puchases at the lowest figures, and hence can sell cheaper than his neighbors. Purchasers should bear these facts in mind.

Letter from Elk County.

RIDGWAY, Sept. 25, 1865. FRIEND Row :- Our usually quiet little town was the scene of considerable excitement in the latter part of the past week, the cause for which was two-fold. The first grew out of the re-assembling of the Deniocratic County Convention, on Friday, and the appearance thereat of one D. W. Daniel of Clearfield, whose mission was, it possible, to induce the Democracy of Elk to ratify the nomination of Doctor Thomas Jefferson Boyer for the Assembly. But, unlike the experience of Daniel of old, the mouths of lions were not stopped, and this modern Daniel was giad to make good his escape. Pale, trembling, and chop-fallen, he retreated in the direction of Centreville, and has not been heard of since. If he should haplen to make his appearance about your town, please let us know. The Democracy of Elk in the meantime stood out firmly for their rights and confirmed the nomination of Dr. C. R. Early, who they expect to elect triumphantly on the second Tuesday of

On Saturday evening excitement No. 2 took place. Shortly after dark, a stunning report of artillery broke upon the stillness of the night, and was soon succeeded by another. Everybody wanted to know "what's Some thought the Southern Confed-Jeff, not Boyer, was hung, and others thought a great battle was going on in Mexico, whilst the more thoughtful concluded it was artillery practice at Pittsburgh. Suddealy a third report was heard, and then along the streets was heard the cry of Oil! Oil!!! Upon enquiry it was found that the greasy fluid had been "struck" in Judge Dickson's well, on the opposite side of the River. It seems whilst at work oring, the drill all at once dropped about fourteen inches, and a strong stream of gas ushered from the mouth of the well. The sand pump was immediately brought into requisition, and drew forth oil, in what quantities is not known as yet, but will be tested as soon as possible. This settles the question as to the existence of oil in this region beyond all doubt. I believe you have it in Clearfield also, for I am told you have the same surface indications which exist here, and if energetic men take hold of it I would not be surprised to hear that their efforts were crowned with success. Yours, EVER AND ANON.

The feelings of lovers at the alter are often altered afterwards.

A CARD.

To the Tax-payers of Clearfield County : As I have been placed in nomination for the important and responsible position of Treasurer of the county by a portion of my fellow citizens, and believing, as I do, that the duties of that office can be faithfully performed for the sum of One Thousand Dollars, I hereby agree to enter into Bonds in the sum of fifty thousand dollars, that I will faithfully perform the duties of the office for that sum-the balance of the fees to be paid into the County Treasury-whichwill be a saving of from two to fourthousand dollars per year to the tax payers of the County, if I 'am elected, and offer Wm. Irvin, Esq., Hon. John Patton, Samuel Mitchell, G. H. Lytle, M. A. Frank and Stacy W. Thompson, as sureties, for the faithful performance of the above agreement.

J. ELLIOTT KRATZER.

Color in Connecticut. The people of Connecticut are soon to decide whether they will strike the word 'white' out of that clause in their State Constitution which prescribes the qualifications of voters.

It seems very absurd at this late day, to make mere color a ground of exclusion from political suffrage in such a State as Connectient. There are probably less than two thousand colored persons in that State to be affeeted by it, and so far as we know they are quite as intelligent and well-behaved as the average of the working classes to which they belong. At all events Connecticut requires that every man who votes shall be able to read and write, and blacks would, of course, be held to this test in the same way as Unquestionably there is a predjudice in the public mind against the blacks,—and so long as four million of them were held in slavery it was not wholly unnatural. There was a certain show of reason, moreover, in doubting the propriety of conferring political power upon a class of men who would unquestionably use it always in favor of the slaves without regard to other demands of Hall to Andy Johnson in 1864 to speak in the public good. But circumstances have defence of the Union. Billy succeeded only, changed all this. Slavery no longer exists. The blacks everywhere are now free, and with the destruction of slavery the predjulice which grew out of it ought also to die away. So far as political rights and responsibilities are concerned, the mere fact of color should no longer e-eate distinctions among different classes of people. If colored men are as intelligent, as moral, as thrifty as worthy and reliable citizens as white men, they should be admitted just as freely to the exercise and enjoyment of political power. This should be the case everywhere, -though t is easy to understand that predjudices on he subject may be so deeply rooted in some rections as to render such an experiment, rashly made, unsafe and unwise. But Connecticut certainly ought to have outgrown all such narrow and illiberal sentiments.

The Democrats allege that our government is solely for white men. They do not base their hostility on grounds of expediency. which he agrees to enter into a bond of Fifty on consideration of the public welfare; they Thousand Dollars, to discharge the duties the rights and privileges of Democratic inof the effice for One Thousand Dollars stitutions. This is simply absurd and wicked a purpose, and was never advanced except in aid of slavery. But it is now wantouly and flagrantly cruel. This govern-ment is for the good of every body who lives would reduce their taxes from two to four under it. All races and all classes, are entitled to its advantages. There are none too humble for its care. And the notion of excluding a whole race, numbering four or five millions, from its benefits and advantages. solely on the ground of color, is one of those sweeping absurdities or which nobody in these days, but the Democratic party could possibly be guilty.

The question at issue in Connecticut purely one of domestic interest. It ought to be decided solely and exclusively on grounds of the public good, and mere prejudice should have nothing whatever to do with it. If colored men wouldvote as intelligently and honestly as white men, they should be admitted—otherwise not. We shall be very much surprised if Connecticut should fail to adopt the amendment proposed. -N. Y. Times.

An exciting scene occurred in the Wirz trial, in Washington, September 22, near the close of the session. One of the witnesses testified to several murders committed by the prisoner, and indentified him as the person who came riding up as he and a comrade were carrying the corpse of a prisoner to the dead house, and asked them by what authority they were there, and when answered by proper authority, shot his comrade dead on the spot. The prisoner was directed to stand up that he might be identified with more certainty, when he became excessively agitated, and after attempting in a stuttering and incoherent manner, to address the witness and the Court, seemed about to sink down in convulsions, when the court was cleared, and he was taken in charge by his physician.

At Wilmington, Delaware, on Saturday last, a terrible accident occurred at the foundry of JOHN V. RICE & Co. A number of men were engaged in easting a water wheel shaft for E. I. DUPONT & Co. An open pit, twenty-four feet deep, had been dug, and into it a flask twenty-six feet long was set. Four tons of melted iron were poured into this flask, when a leak was discovered. Water and sand were then thrown upon it to chill it. Three more shanks were then poured in, and while the last one was run-ning in, the metal suddenly fell, the blaze and hot steam flew up the pit and injured ten workmen.

While our brave boys were at the front, facing the enemy in the field, they also had a foe harrassing them in the rear. Having gloriously flogged the enemy that faced them, it would hardly be creditable to surrender to the guerrillas who were picking them off in the rear, and yet the bushwhakers actually expect to capture them at the polls.

The Union men should organize without delay, and see that every loyal voter is assessed and at the polls armed with his paper bullet for a shot at the rebels. Have a committee of the boys in blue to attend to the skedadlers and deserters. No man who copied after Benedict Arnold has any say so now. This is not his country.

Emerson Etheridge will be tried by courtmartial at Memphis in a few days, for sedition, in villifying and holding up to public infamy Governor Brownlow and President and of the Independence of the United States the Johnson. JACOB A. FAUST, Sheriff.

The entire revenue receipts from internal ! revenue, from the first day of July, up to and inclusive of Monday, amounts to the handsome sum of $80,479,502.41. This far exceeds the expectations of Commission 5 ORTON, and, in fact, is a much greater sum than the most sanguine well-wisher of the Government has calculated upon.

The trial of the rebel steamboat-burners has commenced at St. Louis. The attorney for WM. MURPHY, the first prisoner arraigned, informed the Court that he proposed to call as witnesses JEFF DAVIS, Secretary MALLORY and Secretary SEDDON, of the late rebel government, and Admirals PORTER and FARRAGUT, of our navy.
