Captain Wirz Defended by the Copperhead Candidate for Auditor General.

The Doylstown Democrat, owned and edited by General Davis, the Democratic candidate for Auditor General, prints an edito-rial in defence of the infamous Captain the publisher. Wirz, who starved and murdered our prisoners at Andersonsville. It asserts that the military commission, before which Wirz is on trial, is a usurpation of power, and that the prisoner has not been fairly dealt with. Gen. W. W. H. Davis makes this assertion when he knows that the testimony against the monster, Wirz, comes from Union sol-diers who suffered at Andersonville, who saw Wirz shoot in cold blood, Union prisoners who could not stand on their feet from the effects of starvation; fiem the rebel Surgeons who saw Wirz trample to death Union soldiers who were too weak to crawl on the ground. And yet W. W. H. Davis, through the store of [Mar. 22.] J. P. KRATZER. the columns of his own journal, defends the Inhuman acts of Wirz, esserting that his tri-al is unfair and that his being held to trial is Clearfield county, Pa. June 25, 1865-3mp. a military usurpation. What soldier in Pennsylvania can vote for a candidate advocating such sentiments? and may not we further ask, is their a soldier in the land who would fail to scorn any officer who thus de-fended the most brutal development of the rebellion. - Telegraph.

Soldiers! does it not disgust you to undergo the fawnings the copperheads are now lavishing upon you? They denounced you when you enlisted to fight for the flag as "Lincoln Hirelings," they refused to con-tribute to aid you when sick and wounded, and lauded the men in Congress who "never voted a man or a dollar" to re-inforce and pay you; and they desired to disfranchise you by voting against the Constitutional Amendments giving you a right to vote in the field ; but now seeing that through your sacrifices, courage and valor the rebellion has been put down, they hope by patting you on the shoulders, and with fulsome flattery, that you will forget their treachery to you and that you will give them your votes, for they well understand that without this they can never get into power.

The following is an old obituary notice of JACOB JOHNSON-the father of President JOHNSON-taken from an old file of the Raleigh (N. C.) Star, dated January 10th. 1812, "Died, in this city, on Tatuiday last, JACOB JOHNSON, who had for years occupied a humble but useful station in society. He was city constable, sextion, and porter to the state Bank. In his last illness he was visited by the principal inhabitants of the city, by all of whom he was esteemed for his honesty idustry and human control for the state of the stat honesty, idustry and humane and friendly disposition. Among all to whom he was known en and esteemed, none lamented him more (except perhaps, his relatives) than the publisher of this paper; for he owes his] life, on a particular occasion, to the boldness and humanity of JOHNSON."

for a railroad to connect Franklin. Fennsylvania, with the Philadelphia and Eric Road, have arrived at Franklin, having surveyed a route of one hundred and thirty-one and a half miles in length, with maximum grade cut of forty feet per mile, and maximum curves of six degrees. For forty miles they were on a continuous coal bed, the number of workable seams from three to five, and varying from twenty-eight inches to eleven feet in thickness. Salt springs also abound in the region, and iron ere is found in abundance.

There is growing in Mount Joy township, Lancaster county, an apple tree which is quite a curiosity in its way. In the fork of the tree a small limb grows out a length of · two inches, when it again enters the main limb, making a solid arch; and on the same premises there is a tree of "iron wood," which produces the same singular feature with the exception that, in this instance, the projecting limb grows clear through the trunk, projecting on the other side about five feet. Both of these trees are considered cu-riosities, and attract considerable attention.

The King of Siam has just ordered the reorganization of his fleet, and has decided on ordering a corvette and four gun-boats, all iron-cased, to be constructed in France. These vessles are intented to act against the numerous pirates which are incessantly ravaging the coasts of his territory. A few months back, these marauders appeared in the Gulf of Siam with fifty junks and ascended the M inam, spreading alarm even as far as the capital.

An exchange gives the following sensible advice : "Stick to your home paper. No matter if you are poor, remember none are so poor as the ignorant, except it be the depraved, and they too often go together. Keep your home paper. Remember, that, if it is not so large and imposing as some, it is the advertiser of your neighborhood and daily business, and tells you what is going on around you instead of a thousand miles away.'

Southerly, in his "Omniana," relates the following: "When I was last at Lisbon a nun made an escape from a nunnery. The first thing for which she enquired when she mostly has on hand at this "Furniture Rooms" reached the house where she was to be secreted, was a looking glass. She entered the convent when only five years old, and from that time had never seen her own face."

A good story is told of a country Methodist at whose house an itinerant preacher was passing the night, who when bed time came and family prayers were suggested, in searching for a bible, finally produced a couple of torn leaves of the good book with the native remark, 'I didn't know I was so near out of Bibles."

The counting room of the Quinebaug Company, at Danielsonville, Connecticut, was entered on Sunday night and $3,000 stolen from the safe. The keys were stolen from the clerk's room, in another part of the village.
