NEW GOODS .- Wm. F. Irwin has receivad his stock of fall goods which he is selling at he figures. Call and see. Advertisement next week.

CHANGE IN HOLDING ELECTION .-- The election in Burnside township will be held at Young s School House, instead of John Young's, as heretofore advertised in the Prociamation.

BROKE JAIL-Everhart, the horsethief was convicted last week, broke jail on Sunday afternoon, and although pursuit was made, effected his escape. On Sunday night, he stole a horse from James Irvin. The horse was recovered since, but the thier' is still at large.

OIL PROSPECTS .- Our friends at Cherrytree, on Monday the 25th September, struck salt-water at a depth of 300 feet, and quite a stream flows from the well in to the river. Immense quantities of gas also escapes from the well, and pipes and burners have been adjusted, so that, at night, the engine house and derrick are lighted by it. The company anticipate a flow of oil soon.

Union Meeting. On September 27th, 1865, a large and enthusiastic Union meeting was held in the Court House at Clearfield.

The meeting was organized by calling Hon. JOHN P. HOYT, to the chair, as President; and Capt. R. H. Walk, Robert Ross, A. Bell, H. Swan, J. M'Gaughey, L. J. Hurd, H. B. Bailey, H. Heverley, Jas. White, H. Bridge, A. Goss, J. B. Hewitt, and G. Hegarty, as Vice Presidents; and J. H. Fulford and D. S. Moore, as Secretaries.

A resolution was then offered by B. Hartshorn. Esq., requesting J. B. M'En ally, Esq., to address the meeting. Mr. M'Enally was then called upon, and complied with the request, in a manner highly gratifying to the andience.

H. B. Swoope was then called upon, and replied in his usual elegant and amusing a, which drew forth repeated and enthusiastic applause.

At a seasonble hour the meeting adjourn-J. H. FULFORD, D. S. MOORE, Secretaries

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Sept. 22, 1865. Mr. S. J. Row:-Dear Sir: We desire you to publish in your Journal the following Tribute of Respect.

At a special meeting of the "Belles Lettres Union Society" of Williamsport Dick-inson Seminary, held September 21, 1865, the following resolutions were unanimously

Whereas, It has pleased God in the exercise of his infinite wisdom, to remove from as by death, a warm friend and fellow member of the "Belles Lettres Uinon Society," IRA N. BOYNTON, thus brings fresh to our minds the Divine injunction "Be ye also ready," therefore

Resolved. That while we meekly bow in submission to the will of Him without whose knowledge a sparrow does not fall, we sincarely lament this early and untimely death of our cherished brother.

Resolved, That as a society we feel the loss of a zealous and devoted member, one whose kind heart and cheerful spirit have made an impression not easily effaced.

Resolved. That we tender our warmest and most heartfelt sympathies to the bereaved family, thus called upon to mourn the loss of a dutiful son and affectionate

Resolved, That as a token of respect, we wear the usual badge of mourning for the space of ten days.

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the "Raftsman's Journal" and in the "Monthly Star of Literature," and also that the afflicted family be furnished with a copy of the same. D. A. DEARMOND, C. S. Cox, T. H. MURRAY,

The duties of these Committees are manifold. They are to see that every Union man is at the polls-that every Union voter is supplied with tickets-that the tickets are not wantonly destroyed-and challenge all illegal votes offered, so that the purity of the ballot-box may be preserved. And, should illegal votes be received, we desire that they take down the name of the voter, and the officers that receive the same, and forward them to us for future reference.

Mr. EDITOR :- Allow me through you to alleged by those who wish to injure the credit of the Government, that the monied men(or speculators)of our country are disposing of their property and converting the hat are not taxed, in order to get rid of 1864.-Telegraph. their share of responsibility in paying the debt occasioned by the war; virtually repu- President Lincoln on Universal Suffrage diating that debt as far as in them lies, and throwing the weight upon labor. Now what I wish to inquire is, what has become of the contributors to, or writers for the Republican who were lately so ready to assail everything they conceived to be wrong, or correct every error they discovered? Where great that he appeared in two long articles defending a man of whom he knew nothing. against the charge of horsestealing (and yet he stole the horse?) And again he appear-ed under three stars () exposing the supposed secrets and doings of the Loyal League of Karthaus and denouncing the drafted men who got clear from deafness and stiff fingers, and "skleeted his spiteful jokes" on the man whom he immagined assisted them by styling him "a good talker?" Then an article appears on the occasion of Jacob Hertlein's death, charging it to the Republicans. Where is B. D. H., of the same locality, who mounted and rode J. D. M's mules all through Solomon's kingdom, distributing the mails, &c. And lastly, where the "fat dog" to the dislocation of the shoulder, and blew up the French doctor for his short comings and made him skedaddle? These writers, as far as I can learn. are all Democrats, and ever ready and willing to appear in print, when they can write anything that they think is a little smart, or that will make for their party. Here is a fruitful subject, and why do not some of these champions come out in favor of taxing the bonds or advocate the passage of a law to that effect? Is it because their leaders are interested in the speculation and they are afraid to speak out for fear of thereby gaining their ill will and lesson their own chances for preferment? We shall see.

QUEIRST. [The man who criticized the President's message and found it "lacking in three essential particulars, truth, common sense and good grammar," is the man to handle this subject. - EDITOR.]

A Man who has been cultivating tea, as an experiment, since 1860, writes to the Savanna Herald that most of his plants grow finally, his tea is of good quality, and that the plants will do quite as well in Georgia as in their native country. The plants require no culture after the third year. If well taken care of, by that time they will be large enough to commence the manufacture of tea from them. The yield to the acre is from three to four hundred pounds, and the plants produce good crops for eighteen or twenty years. The growth of tea is not effected by dry or wet weather, or storms and insects will not molest the plants.

The following States vote on negro suffrage this year: Connecticut, special election, on Monday last Oct. 2; Wisconsin, Minnesota and Iowa, at their regular election. which he will give a full account of the true Colorado, but the result is not known.

An Insult to the Heroes of Gettysburg. It is admitted on all sides, that Mai. Gen. Meade's great victory at Gettysburg, saved the status of the Copperhead party in this Pennsylvania from utter devastation, and no county, before the people. We would have doubt rescued the other Middle and Eastern | the people. States from invasion by an infuriated horde on that occasion was shared by every gallant | the earnestness of their souls. soldier who fought under his command. Yet, in the face of these facts-convinced and firesides of Pennsylvania from desolation, blood-stain and pollution-it was reserved for the Copperheads in the Pennsylvania Sening thanks to Gen. Meade and his army, for their great service on the battle field. The following extract from the Legislative Record for 1864, page 24, places the Copper-heads in their true position of ingratitude to MAJOR GENERAL GEO. G. MEADE AND THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC. Mr. M'CANDLESS. I offer the following

Resolved, That the people of Pennsylvania, through their representatives, tender their profound and heartfelt thanks to Maj. General George G. Meade and the Army of the Potomac, for relieving our native State from the tread of the rebel hordes, and hurling them back from the immortal field of Gettysburg, and while we thus tender our thanks to the noble living, we revere the memory of the immortal dead who sacrificed their lives on the holy altar of their beloved

On the question, Will the Senate proseed to a second reading of the resolution? The yeas and nays were required by Mr. DONOVAN and Mr. STARK, and were as follow, viz:

Yeas-Messrs. Champneys, Connell, Dunap. Fleming, Graham, Hoge, Honseholder, ohnson, Lowry, M Candless, Nichols, Ridgway. Turrell, Wilson, Worthington, and Peniy. Speaker-16.

Nays-Messrs. Beardslee, Bucher, Clyner, Donovan, Glatz, Hopkins, Kinsey, Lamberton, Latta, M'Sherry, Montgomery, Reilly, Smith, Stark, Stein and Wallace-16. So the question was determined in the

Can any soldier support the candidates of a party thus ungrateful for victories won by the secrifice of many hundreds of noble lives? We believe there is no soldier in Pennsylvania, who can be seduced into the support of the candidates of such an organization, and when William A. Wallace. Chairman of the Copporhead StateCentralCommittee,appeals to the soldier for his vote, he will be answered with indignation, by every hero who fought at Gettysburg: "You refused to render me a vote of thanks for services in which my life was put at peril, and I now refuse to vote for candidates in whose success your basest political purposes are at make some inquires. You are aware it is stake." Such will be the reply of all solout Pennsylvania endorsed the action of the proceeds into government bonds, or bonds | Copperhead Senators during the session of

and General Amnesty.

The Southern Advocate, of the 18th September, says the following extract, which has just been published, is from the late President Lincoln's letter to General Wadsworth, who was killed in the battle of the is Mr. A. whose cacocthus scribendi was so Wilderness. As Mr. Lincoln's views on all subjects bearing on the reorganization of the South, are regarded as worthy of the most serious consideration, his sentiments on universal suffrage especially will be read extract referred to, Mr. Lincoln says:

"You desire to know, in the event of our complete success in the field, the same being followed by a loyal and cheerful submission on the part of the South, if universal amnesty should not be accompanied with universal suffrage? Now since you know my private inclinations as to what should be granted to the South in the contingency mentioned, I will here add that if our sucis the Dr. who exposed the application of cess should thus be realized, followed by such desired results, I cannot see, if universal amnesty is granted, how under the circumstances I can avoid exacting in return, universal suffrage, or at least suffrage on the basis of intelligence and military service. How to better the condition of the colored race has long been a study which has attracted my serious and careful attention. Hence I think I am clear and decided as to what course I shall pursue in the premises, regarding it a religious duty as the Nation's guardian of these people who have so heroically vindicated their manhood on the battlefield, where, in assisting to save the life of the republic, they have demonstrated in blood their right to the ballot, which is but the human protection of the flag they have so fearlessly defended."

The Chicago papers give a curious chap-ter of crime. Mr. Felkner, an attorney of that city, has been, as it appears, engaged for some time in receiving stolen bonds, erasing their number and disposing of them. The detectives of that city have been on his track for some time. Recently he had an accomplice, as he supposed, but in reality a detective, arrested, and the prisoner was on Wednesday examined before a justice. The upshot of the affair was the disclosure of Felkners guilt, and his arrest in the court room, two or three free fights between the police and the culprits friends, and the rendition of Felkner to the authorities of Ohio.

The State Department are in receipt of voluminous dispatches from our Consuls at Constantinople, Smyrna, Port Mahon and Barcelona, giving further information on the ravages of the cholera in various parts of Europe. The reports from Constantino- the whole Copperhead persuasion was greatple are most all giving the deaths from this ly outraged that a "boorish tailor" should be disease as having reached the number of 2,000 per day. At Smyrna the epidemic are now willing to swallow all their old vomwas checked some time since, but it has it, if President Johnson will condescend to frightful extent.

A few Things to be Remembered. We desire to keep a few facts relative to REMEMBER, that the leaders, one and all, of drunken rebels. The battle of Gettysburg ardently sympathized with the traitorous was one of the most brilliant achievements rebels, and that they now plead for those in of the age, and the glory which Meade won the custody of the United States with all

REMEMBER, that ministers of the gospel were reviled, condemned and persecuted that Meade's victory had saved the homes because they prayed for the preservation of the institution of our fathers.

REMEMBER, that the Copperhead party in a body voted to exclude the soldier from ate to oppose and defeat a resolution render- the right of suffrage, and that they kicked men out of the party, who had the manliness to disobey the order of the leaders and vote the soldiers this privilege.

REMEMBER, that every man who has desired the success of the rebellion, who aided abetted and countenanced them in any manner, shape or form is a Copperhead leader to the extent of his intelligence.

Soldiers will REMEMBER, that if they vote the Copperhead ticket, they will stand side by side, with the distinguished parties above enumerated. Oh. soldiers, can you mix with such an array of treachery and traitors.

How the Copperhead Press Complimented President Johnson a few Months ago. Now that the Copperhead papers are vying with each other in complimenting President Johnson on account of his indorsement of Gov. Sharkey's militia policy in Mississippi, it is curious to see what they had to say about him a few months ago. The New York Evening Post is hard hearted enough to reproduce the following extract from a leader in the World on the Baltimore nomination of Lincoln and Johnson last year. which might be duplicated from the files of almost any Copperhead paper in the land:

The only merit we can discover in this Baltimore ticket is the merit of consistency; it is all of a piece; the tail does not shame the head nor the head, shame the tail. A rail-splitting buffoon and a boorish tailor, both from the back woods, both growing up in uncouth ignorance. They would afford a grotesque subject for a satirie poet, who might celebrate them in such strains as Dean Swift bestowed on Whiston and Ditton, Aristophanes on that servile demagogue, Hyperbolus.

Canada is becoming depopulated. This in itself is a sure sign that the Union is receving the mass of its emigration. The exodus as been so serious as to create a call in some quarters upon the attention of Government; but young Canada continues flocking to the border. The Bishop of Toronto lately gave as his reasons for not rebuilding his cathedral, the great losses which his diocese has sustained in numbers. In 1861 this Catholie diocese had a congregation of 42,000; bui according to the census now given by the Bishop it does not contain more than 30,000. Toronto City from having 8,000 Catholies diers to all Copperheads seeking their sup- has diminished to 4,000. Not one, but port, because the Copperhead party through- many Canadian journals, make the same complaint, and the emigration, though mostly from among the Irish, seems to extend to other sects and classes of working-men. The people," says a Montreal journal, "are leaving us by tens of thousands." This seems to be no phenomenon but only the reasonable out-working of that natural law which seeks every good opening, and which, some day, may influence Canada itself to come into the Union.

Jerry Black Buchanism. HON, JOHN B HASKIN, who was chairman of the resolution Committee in the New York Democratic State Convention, in a letter giving the secret history of the democratic platform of that state, says, that platform as originally drawn up by the leaders contained a resolution endorsing the Ohio, with more than ordinary interest. In the Pennsylvania and New Jersey platforms, and that he induced the Committee to throw it out, adding that his object in going to the Convention "was to avoid the Bourbon, Valandinghamism of the Ohio, the Jerry Black Buchananism of the Pennsylvania, the Camden and Amboy Rip Van Winkleism of the New Jersey Democratic Platform." "Jerry Black Buchanism" is good. it expresses fully the character of the Pennsylvania democratic platform; and that character was so bad, it seems, that even a New York Convention of democrats could not be got to en-

> THE PIRATE SHENANDOAH. -As soon as the dispatch reached Acapulco giving the news of the destruction of American whalers by the rebel pirate Shenandoah, the commander of the English war steamer Devastation, then lying in the harbor, sought an interview with Captain G. P. Scott, of the United States steamer Saranac, and informed him that he should set sail immediately with the Devastation in pursuit of the Shenandoah, and should treat the rebel cruiser as a pirate and capture her wherever she might be found. He was as good as his word, and left the port as soon as his ship could be got under way.

By a whaling vessel arrived at New London, from the Arctic Ocean, advices have been received from Captain C. H. Hall, the Roid. explorer, who left the United States in 1864, under the patronage of Henry Grinnell, Esq. Mr. Hall's letters were expressed one hundred and fifty miles over ice, on dog sledges to reach the open sea. He has obtained much valuable information in regard to the Franklin expedition. Mr. Hall expects to spend most of his time in King William's Land, and on Boothie Felix Peninsula, and desires that a vessel shall be sent in the spring of 1867 to bring him home.

In 1863 the copperheads in our State Legislature refused Andrew Johnson permission to speak in the Legislative Hall at Harrisburg-a permission that they granted we believe to every other applicant. he was nominated to the Vice Presidency, elected for such an exalted position. They broke out afresh, and is now spreading to a give them an occasional suck at the public frightful extent. A great people are the Copperheads.

The New-Jersey Copperheads seem to be unlucky in their canvass. The Trenton Ga-zette tells of a good Union man who was a Democrat in his less enlightened days, and who was lately invited by a Copperhead Committee to stump the State for Runyon. "What!" said the Unionist, "do you mean to insult me? I'd rather lose this right arm of mine than be heard to say one word for your Copperhead candidate. believed in the War, and believe in the soldiers who fought that War through. Some of the bravest of them were New-Jerseyboys, and one of their best friends was Marcus L. Ward, and I'm going to stump every county in the State for him." About that time the Copperhead Committee left.
