Col. W. H. H. Davis, the Copperhead candidate for Auditor General, during the war, and still is, the editor and proprietor of the Doylestown Democrat, one of the most poisonous copperhead sheets published in the State. While he was drawing $2,500 a the State. Also in New York; the Royal and Etyear from the Government his paper was mast Hartford; and the Liverpool and Londow engaged in the work of denouncing the war as | capital $6,000,000. cruel and unjust toward the South, Abraham Lincoln as a tyrant and a usurper, and every effort of the Government to maintain its existence as an infraction of the Constitution and a blow to civil liberty. It was prominent, too, among the journals which sought to undermine the public credit, upon which national integrity depended. It scoffed at the eurrency, glorified the Chicago platform which declared the war against treason "a failure," and consequently pronounced the rebellion a success. Yet all this time Davis, its editor and proprietor, was accepting from the Government his sheet reviled. the pay of a Colonel ! and doing his utmost at the War office to get a Brigadier's commission !

But in playing this double game Col. Davis, only exhibited the animus of his party during the nation's trial. We affirm from positive knowledge that the most shameless v persistent office seekers who grovelled in Washington during Lincoln's term were copperheads, and most bitter revilers of the Gevernment. Still, they did not disdain to ask and receive their bread from the "tyrant" who occupied the Executive Chair. And Col. Davis is neither better, nor worse, than the balance of that faction which repays, kindness with black ingratitude.

The Chambersburg Repository sympathises with the Copperheads in the adjoining county in their manifold and heart-rending sorrows. The list of their grief may be said to record the grief of the Democracy throughout the country They have lost elections; they have lost a war; they have lost organizing conscripts : they have lost offices ; they have lost the loaves and fishes; they have lost hopeful sons for a season in the rebel armies; they have lost upright, eminently order-loving citizens from social circle for the mere eccentricity of murdering a Deputy Provost Marshall and enlisting in a varied assortment of furniture, among which is, the rebel army to devastate their own homes; and to crown their deluge of grief, the Ethiopian now threatens to arise from his abject degradation, marry their daughters, confiscate their lands, and crack their master's whip about their loins as they go forth from day to day to unrequited toil."

Among sundry old papers lately discovered at the Methodist Book Room in Cincinnati is an account of the venrable Bishop McKendree, one of their pioneers in this country. The ink though faded by time, shows the neat handwriting of the good old man. In the year 1808, it seems, his receipts from seven different Conferences, on account of salary, amounted to $173; histravelling and other expenses were $61,63; and as his salary was $80, he was careful to note that it left a balance of $33,37 due to the church.

The Copperheads insist that the people of one State have nothing to do with the uffrage question in another State. Why, then, do the Copperheads of this State persist in agitating the question of suffrage in Southern States?
