

To the Afflicted.—The surest remedy, for Cough, Croup, Whooping Cough, Sore Throat, and all the ailments of the Throat, is Dr. T. J. Boyer's.

CONVALESCENT.—The Democratic county official, who had a Revenue stamp attached to his nose on the morning after the election.

WOULD'N'T TAKE.—The Copperhead trick of sending Liddell tickets all over the county by express riders. Union men can't be gulled by "Secession" chaff!

RE-ELECTED.—It gives us pleasure to announce that Hon. G. R. Barrett, has been re-elected in the Judicial district composed of the counties of Carbon, Monroe, Pike and Wayne.

QUERY.—Wonder if the "rank and file" of the Copperhead party have seen anything of "that glorious victory" that their leaders have promised them from year to year? Honest Democrats, what do you think of such leaders? Are they false prophets, or don't they know anything?

CLOSED UP.—The case of Daniel Goodlander, one of the so-called Clearfield county "conspirators," was taken up in the U. S. District Court, on last Friday, and after the hearing of one witness, a verdict of "not guilty" was rendered. In the case of Dr. Krise a nol. pros. was entered.

On Friday, Oct. 22d, in the U. S. District Court at Pittsburgh, a man named Eddy was "found guilty in manner and form as indicted," for passing a $20 "greenback" on a returned soldier. Eddy has led a gay and fascinating life, and to fast women and wine are his short comings chargeable.

ARRESTED.—On Friday last, two men were arrested at Lock Haven for passing and having in their possession counterfeit "greenbacks." The notes were of the denominations of $5, $10, $20, $50, and $100, and are said to be well executed. The whole amount is said to have been about $20,000.

On the 16th of October, a dispute arose between James Crawford, clerk in the Farmers store at Hollidaysburg, Pa., and Nicholas Riley, an employee, high words ensued, during which Riley struck Crawford with such force in the pit of the stomach as to kill him almost instantly. Riley is a large strong man, while Crawford was a slight built lad of 17 years of age. The latter was a son of Col. Jesse R. Crawford.

NEW MUSIC.—We received, last week, the following pieces of new music from the publisher: "A Maiden for Sale," "Too late to Marry," "The Martyr of Liberty," "Give me honest friends and true," all most excellent pieces. Price, 30 cents each. Address HORACE WATERS, 481 Broadway, N. York.

WHICH HORN?—Senator Wallace, the Chairman of the Copperhead State Committee, in his last card "To the People of Pennsylvania," insisted that "negro suffrage" was a "vital issue" that must be decided at the October election. The State having given over 20,000 Union majority, to be consistent Mr. Wallace must now insist that Pennsylvania has endorsed the doctrine of "negro suffrage," or acknowledge that he used the "nigger" argument as a mere scare-crow to gull unwary voters!

SIGNIFICANT.—The result of the recent election in this State establishes one important fact, to wit: That the people of Pennsylvania cannot be hoodwinked into the support of the copperhead ticket, by a man who, by his vote, refused to let Andy Johnson speak in the Hall of the Senate of Pennsylvania, and who voted against giving the elective franchise to our soldiers in the army. We presume the Democracy will not soon again select a man with such a record, as Mr. Wallace possesses, as Chairman of their State Central Committee.

A REMINDER.—During the progress of the war, after the receipt of a Union victory, the Cops in this place would retire to their dens, with long and sorrowful faces. This fact was again brought fresh to our memory, on Thursday evening after the election, on the receipt of the news of the glorious Union victory achieved in Pennsylvania, on the Second Tuesday of October. No sooner was the victory announced, than the "snakes" began to scatter hither and thither, and crawl into their holes, as of old, looking chopfallen, dejected, disheartened, grieved. Surely, "the way of the transgressor is hard."

Tyrone and Clearfield Railroad. The following communication will, no doubt, be read with interest by many persons in this place and vicinity:

MA. EDITOR:—It will be recollected that, as part of the consideration of the repeal of the tonnage tax, the Penn'a Central Railroad Company agreed to endorse the Bonds of the Tyrone and Clearfield Railroad, for a limited amount; and by a private arrangement get control of the road, which has been mainly under their management since the running stock was placed thereon. The mortgage given for the security of the Bonds is held by Edgar Thompson, and has been purchased with a view of selling the road. As there are a large number of stockholders residing in Clearfield county, it is but proper that they should be made acquainted with the ungenerous course proposed to be pursued by the Penn'a Central Railroad.

FIRE.—On Wednesday night, October 18, the Drug Store of Hartwick and Huston, in this place, caught fire, and the contents were pretty much destroyed. The fire, evidently, originated at the desk, as it was entirely destroyed. The books and accounts, of the firm were also consumed. The end of the counter burned off, and a large hole through the lower floor. The heat was so intense that most of the liquids boiled out of the bottles, and the paint was roasted black in every part of the room. It is a mystery how the building and contents escaped entire destruction. The fire was not discovered until Thursday morning. How it originated is unknown. The loss is estimated at from $1,500 to $2,000. No insurance.

A country friend sends the following:

"Nat, a neighbor of ours, is very poor, rather light fingered, and it is said, not as bright as his parents could wish."

"The other day, while passing a neighbor's, Nat saw a brood of chickens, and immediately caught a fine one to carry home. He had not gone far, however, before he saw the owner coming up the road, and not knowing what to do with the chicken, to conceal it, he hid it under a pile of straw in his yard. But the chicken, having a long-ling for liberty, and being also pressed for air, managed to thrust his head through an opening in Nat's old straw hat. Nat was presently accosted with—

"What have you got in your hat?"

"Nothing but my head," said Nat.

"But I see a chicken's head sticking through the top of it," said Nat.

"Nat, taking off his hat, and looking at it in feigned astonishment, exclaimed:

"Wal, how d'ye suppose that critter come in there? I swear! he must have crawled up my trowser's leg!"

THE TRIBUNE FOR 1866. PROSPECTUS.

The Military and Naval successes of 1864, with the auspicious result of our Presidential contest, have lifted a heavy weight from the breasts of the Loyal Millions of our countrymen. It is now plain, even by those who have been distrustful and faint-hearted, that the Union is to emerge triumphant from the deadly strife, which she has so bravely and bravely sustained. It is to be remembered that the perils of foreign intervention and of Western insurrection are safely passed; Abraham Lincoln no longer assailable as the hero of a nation; the rebellion, palpably weakened by its defeats and losses during the year now closing—with its credit so reduced that its purse-bearer officially declares that its Treasury Notes can only be exchanged for coin at the rate of twenty-five for one, while its bonds command but six cents on the dollar—await the blow which shall strike the sword from its paralytic hand and remit its master-spirits to the justice, or it may be to the mercy, of a society wronged and justly incensed by forbearing and magnanimous People. Such are the auspices which justify our yearning to open will see the Stars and Stripes float unchallenged from every corner of our country, and the perils of the Constitution of our Union.

The New York Tribune, founded in 1841, will enter upon its twenty-fourth year with quickened hopes and enlarged means of usefulness. Its prices need no statement; its aims are the diffusion of intelligence and the inculcation of a spirit of Freedom and humanity. When this truth shall have generally been recognized and established as the basis of our institutions and polity that injurious to the weaker, the weaker, most despised, is a fearful mistake that uncommonly or State can afford to wrong even its humblest member—then will our land bask once more in the calm sunshine of peace and prosperity.

The Tribune has for the last year been published without profit to its proprietors, solely because of the depreciation of our Currency below the specie standard, compelling us to buy paper and other materials at a cost considerable above the face amount received from our subscribers. On our Weekly edition, the net loss has amounted to many thousands of dollars; while our large receipts from Advertising have been wholly absorbed by the extraordinary expenses for Correspondence, Telegraphing, &c. devoted upon us by the War. As we do not suppose our patrons desire that we should work at our own cost, and prefer not to be patronized by any who may desire it, we have somewhat advanced for the ensuing year the prices of our Semi-Weekly and Weekly, as we had already done with those of our Daily editions. This increase is purely nominal; there never before was a time when the farmers of our country could buy The Tribune for so little of their own products or labor as they can by the following Terms:

SINGLE COPIES. DAILY TRIBUNE. 4 cents.

Mail subs., 1 copy, 1 year—312 numbers, $10.00.

SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE. 4 cents.

Mail subs., 1 copy, 1 year—164 numbers, 4.00.

do 2 copies, do do do 8.00.

do 4 copies, or over, to one address, 3.00.

do for each copy 3.00.

WEEKLY TRIBUNE. 4 cents.

Mail subs., single copy, 1 year, 52 numbers 2.50.

do Clubs of five, to one address, 10.00.

Persons remitting $20.00 in copies, to one address, will receive one copy extra, gratis.

Persons remitting $40.00 for 20 copies, to one address, will receive one copy Semi-Weekly gratis.

Persons remitting $80.00 for 40 copies, to one address, will receive one copy Daily, gratis.

Drafts on New York payable to the order of the "Tribune," being safe, are preferable to any other mode of remittance. But where drafts can not be conveniently procured, United States or National Bank bills are the next best, and may be sent by mail; but in case of loss, The Tribune will not be responsible unless furnished with a full description of the bills, including the name of the bank, denomination and number, and the time and place of the making of the letter with the indorsements.

Address: THE TRIBUNE, New York.
