GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK.—The Christmas number of this unexcelled magazine is out, and is decidedly a pretty, as well as an interesting one. Send for it. Now is also the time to make up clubs for 1866.

DUFF'S COLLEGE.—By reference to our advertising columns, the reader will find the advertisement of Duff's Commercial College, Pittsburg, which has the reputation of being one of the best institutions of its kind, in the country.

No. 1.—Read the advertisement of the "No. 1, Clearfield Store," at Philadelphia. If you desire to purchase cheap goods always consult the advertising columns of the Journal. Those who do not advertise, seldom sell as cheap as those who do. Then go to "No. 1," by all means.

NEW GOODS.—Messrs. Kirk & Spencer, of Lumber-city, have just received a new and well-selected stock of seasonable goods, to which they invite the attention of their customers, and the public generally. This firm has the reputation of selling the cheapest goods in Lumber-city, and hence it would be well for buyers to give them a call.

MUSIC.—We have received the following new music: "The First Kiss at the Gate," a Ballad; words by T. Johnson, music by A. A. Crilly. "Our Soldiers' Last March," and "The Gem of the Mountains," by Mrs. Parkhurst—all most beautiful pieces. Price 30 cents each. Address Horace Waters, 481 Broadway, New York; where you can always find the best and latest music.

THAT'S RIGHT.—Last week, says the Lewistown Gazette of Nov. 16th, the Court ordered the District Attorney to prepare bills of indictment against several of the Election Boards in Mifflin county, which were returned by the Grand Jury for having taken the votes of illegal voters. And also against those illegal voters who voted, or offered to vote, at the late election. This is a move in the right direction and will settle much of the bickering, ill will and trouble occasioned at election windows on every election day. All such offenders should be punished, and we know of no county where they are more numerous than in Clearfield.

SENTENCED.—The Burkholder family, some eight or ten in number, tried in the Blair county court, on Nov. 3d, have been sentenced each to pay a fine of $5 and undergo an imprisonment in the Western penitentiary for the period of two years. The Court, after having kindly admonished them, gave them some wise counsel and good advice, stated that out of mercy their sentences were made equal, in order that all should come out of prison at the same time, when their family relations could be renewed with a view to a better and happier life. The Burkholders were convicted of grand larceny—having stolen a large amount of goods from the cars of the Pennsylvania Railroad company.

A WORD TO EVERYBODY.—Parents are often very scrupulous about over-working their children, and neglect to develop in them good habits of industry. We know families where there is great danger that the children will grow up to indolence and ignorance of practical life, from a foolish tenderness on the part of the parents. A contemporary in referring to this subject says: One of the greatest defects in the education of children is in neglecting to accustom them to work. It is an evil peculiar to large towns and cities. A certain amount of work is necessary to the proper education of children. Their future independence and comfort depend on their being accustomed to provide for the thousand constantly recurring wants that nature entails on them. Even if this necessity did not exist, moderate employment of some kind would preserve them from bad habits; promote health, and enable them to bear the confinement of the school-room, and teach them more than anything else, appropriate habits respecting their future welfare. It is too often the case that children after school, are permitted to spend the rest of the day as they please. They do not consider that success in after life depends upon the improvement of their youthful hours. They grow up in the world without knowledge of its toils and cares. They cannot appreciate the favors bestowed on them by their parents, as they do not know the toils they cost. Their bodies and minds are enervated, and they are constantly exposed to whatever vicious associations are within their reach. The daughter probably becomes the pitiable object, a fashionable girl. The son, if he surmounts the consequences of his parents' neglect, does it probably after his plans and stations for life are fixed, when a knowledge of some of its important objects comes too late. No man or woman is thoroughly educated if not required to labor. Whatever accomplishments they possess, whatever their mental training in the voyage of life, they require some practical knowledge and experience derived from accustomed themselves to useful labor of some sort.

SOLDIERS DISCHARGE PAPERS.—It will be remembered that we have frequently referred to the attempt to set up a system of lunkstering in soldiers discharge papers, and that we denounced the swindles practiced in the matter of these discharges. The purchase of them, is we believe, no longer attempted, but various imposters, are traversing the country claiming to be agents of the State, for the purpose of collecting them, in order to secure additional bounties for veteran soldiers. In many cases soldiers have parted with these, to them, invaluable documents, without even taking a receipt, and they are therefore lost. It may as well be said here and now, that no such agents have been appointed, and those who represent themselves to be so are swindlers. Again we advise soldiers to keep their discharge papers in their own hands.

ECONOMY.—The necessity of economizing is being forced upon many persons. The necessary articles of food have advanced to an enormous price, and wearing apparel is generally in proportion. Americans will have to learn that they eat too much, and dress too fine, as a class, and perhaps it will be a useful lesson. The wonderful resources of the country, and the rapidity with which fortunes are accumulated, have generated a spirit of extravagance through all classes. Persons of quite limited means try to emulate the example of their more opulent neighbors. Many persons who should attend to their own households hire help, have increased the costliness of their dress, and the abundance of their tables, until such a climax has been reached that a reaction must take place. Retrenchment is necessary, and the sinner that it takes place the better. The wise will heed the warning, lest the evil day will overtake them when least prepared.

THE USE OF TEA.—Tea is much used, especially at meals, on account of its being a very palatable and pleasant beverage, and an exhilarating and cheering stimulant. Yet, if we take the testimony of a writer on the subject, this is a mere temporary refreshment—producing a pleasing and joyous sensation for the time being, but as soon as its incitement has subsided leaves the system in a more enfeebled condition than previous to partaking thereof. The writer says: "The frequent drinking of a quantity of strong tea, as is the general practice, relaxes and weakens the tone of the stomach, whence proceeds nausea and indigestion, with a weakness of the nerves, and flabbiness of the flesh, and very often a pale, wan complexion. Milk, when mixed with it in some quantity, lessens its bad qualities by rendering it softer and nutritious; and with a moderate quantity of sugar, it may then be a proper breakfast, as a dilutant, to those who are strong, and live freely, in order to cleanse the alimentary passages, and wash off the salts from the kidneys and bladder. But persons of weak nerves ought to abstain from it as carefully as from drams and cordial drops; as it causes the same kind of irritation on the tender, delicate fibres of the stomach, which ends in lowness, trembling, and vapors. It should never be drank hot by anybody. Green tea is less wholesome than black or bohea.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.—A term of Court was held last week, for the trial of civil causes. The following cases were disposed of: Thomas Graham vs. A. B. Shaw.—This was an action involving the true location of two surveys in Goshen township, near the river, containing respectively 1037 and 536 acres. It was a long, tedious case, resulting in a verdict for the plaintiff, with $50 damages, for timber taken off by the Defendant. Swoope for Plaintiff; Wallace for Defendant. Robert Porter vs. Wm. H. Miller.—An action of ejectment for 150 acres of land on Clearfield Creek. The plaintiff had sold to the defendant 150 acres of land out of a survey in name of "Mary Reed," alleging that it was located so as to be bounded by the Little Clearfield Creek. Defendant claimed that he was in possession of 180 acres, outside of the lines of the "Mary Reed" survey, which he claimed under an improvement right, and that plaintiff's location of the "Mary Reed" would compel him to take as his purchase the land he already owned. An unusual degree of interest was felt in this case. Verdict for the Defendant. Wallace for Plaintiff; Swoope and McCullough for Defendant. Isaac and Allison Hunt vs. Jacob Mock.—Trove and conversion, for crop of grain, hay, &c., raised on a farm belonging to the plaintiffs in Morris township—which the tenant, one Chapman, had wrongfully sold to the defendant. Verdict for the plaintiffs, with $112.50 damages. Swoope for plaintiffs; Wallace for defendant. Benj. Spackman et al. vs. Robert Litz.—Replevin for 2,500 feet of timber, cut on land claimed by plaintiffs. The question involved, was the true division line between two surveys in the name of "Peter Martin" and "William Martin." The plaintiffs claimed to hold to a consentable, or compromise line, the existence of which the defendant denied, and claimed to hold to the true division line between the tracts. The Court reserved the point as to whether or not the action could be maintained; but the jury found for the defendant, generally. McEnally for plaintiffs; Swoope for defendant.

On Saturday night, the motion for a new trial, in Porter vs. Miller, was argued by Wallace for, and Swoope contra. The decision was reserved.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—We learn that, on Thursday November 9th, Mr. John Brown, of Burnside township, met with a serious accident, whilst helping to raise a house. In putting up a log, it slipped and fell on a cant hook, which struck Mr. Brown in the groin with such force as to knock him entirely senseless for some time. On Sunday morning last he was still living, but no hopes were entertained for his recovery.

A "SHAD" MEETING.—In accordance with a call, a meeting of citizens of Clearfield county was held in the Court House, in Clearfield, on the 14th day of November, 1865, for the purpose of furthering the effort now being made, in all the counties bordering on the Susquehanna river in Pennsylvania, to devise some means to cause the dams on said river to be so constructed as not to prevent the passage of fish. The meeting was called to order by Wm. T. Gilbert nominating D. W. Moore, Esq., as President. C. Kratzer, Charles Schnarrs, Edw. McGarvey, and John J. Reed were elected Vice President; and D. F. Etzweiler and J. H. Faldorf, Secretaries. On motion, W. A. Wallace and H. B. Swoope, Esqs., were elected delegates to the convention to meet in Harrisburg in January, 1866. On motion, it was ordered that the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Clearfield Republican and Raftsmen's Journal. The meeting adjourned.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK FOR 1866.
THE FASHION MAGAZINE OF THE WORLD. Literature, fine Arts and Fashions. The most magnificent Steel engravings. Double Fashion-plates. Wood engravings on every subject that can interest ladies. Crochet, Knitting, Netting, Embroidery, Articles for the Toilet, for the Parlor, the Boudoir, and the Kitchen. Everything, in fact, to make a complete Lady's Book. THE LADIES FAVORITE FOR 36 YEARS. No Magazine has been able to compete with it. None attempt it. GODEY'S RECEIPTS for every department of a household. These are all worth the price of the Book. Model Cottages (no other Magazine gives them), with diagrams. Drawing lessons for the young. Another speciality with Godey. Original Music, worth $3 a year. Other Magazines publish old worn-out music; but the subscribers to Godey get it before the music stores. Gardening for Ladies. Another peculiarity with Godey. Fashions from Messrs. A. T. Stewart & Co., of New York, the millionaire merchants, appear in Godey, the only Magazine that has them. Ladies' Bonnets. We give more of them in a year than any other Magazine. In fact, the Lady's Book makes every lady to be her own bonnet maker. MARTIN HARLAND, Authors of "Alone," "Hidden Path," "Moss Side," "Nemesis," and "Miriam," writes for Godey each month, and for no other magazine. We have retained all our old and favorite contributors.
