READER! consult our advertising columns if you desire to buy goods to advantage. Men who advertise always sell the cheapest goods. Remember this fact.

THANKS.-Hon. G. W. Scofield, will please accept our thanks for a copy of "Agriculture of the United States," compiled from the original returns of the eighth Census-1860.

PREACHING. - By divine permission, there will be services in the Lutheran church, in this place, at 11 o'clock, A. M., on Sunday, Dec. 10th. Also, on Tuesday evening, December 12th.

RE-OPENED. - By reference to our advertising columns, it will be seen that A. J. Draucker has leased the Hotel, formerly occupied by B. Bloom, Esq., where he is prepared to accommodate all who may favor him with a call. Jack, no doubt will make an accommodating landlord. Give him a THANKSGIVING .- We would remind our readers that to-morrow, Dec. 7th, is the day appointed by President Johnson, and Gov. Curtin, as a thanksgiving to Almighty God for the many blessings vouchsafed to us during the past year. It is to be hoped that our citizens will observe the day in a prop-

CLEARFIELD ACADEMY. - The Second session of this institution will open on Monday December 17th, 1865. Persons should bear this fact in mind. The Principal, Mr. Harrison, is an experienced teacher, and so far has rendered entire satisfaction. He deserves a liberal support. Read the new advertisement in to day's Journal.

APPOINTED .-- We learn that Governor Curtin has appointed his relative, William C. Foley, Esq., Associate Judge in Clearfield county, in place of the late Judge Bloom. This appointment was Gov. Curtin's last official act before starting to Cuba-whither he has gone on account of his health. Mr. Feley is a man well known to the citizens of this county, and is fully qualified to fill the responsible position to which he has been appointed.

poultry generally needs feeding preparatory to their being sacrificed as an offering on Christmas, we give the following receipt for fattening the same, which is taken from the American Agriculturist: "For each turkey mix a pint of Indian meal with one pint of unbolted flour, and pour boiling water on it, stirring rapidly till it forms thin mush. Place the dish where the fowl can have access to the feed at any time. Let skimmed milk or water be given also. In two weeks they will be fat and oily as batter. They will fatten better to have their liberty in a spacious yard."

Music -We direct the attention of readers to the advertisement of Mr. B. M. Greene, of Huntingdon, Pa., who is agent for the Mason & Hamlin Cabinet Organ, and Steinway & Sons Pianos-both first class instruments. The following certificate of Mason Bro's, appointing Mr. Greene agent for the sale of their Cabinet Organs, will be of interest to many:

HUNTINGDON PA., Nov. 24, 1865. This is to certify, that we have appointed B. M. Greene sole agent, for the sale of our Cabinet Organs, for the following counties, to wit: Huntingdon, Blair, Centre, Bedford, Clearfield, and Juniata; and he has the exclusive right for the sale of the above named instruments, in the aforesaid counties.

MASON BROTHERS, per J. W. Carrier, Gen'l Agent.

A Word to Boys. - Why don't you learn a trade? This question was propounded to a young man, in one of our cites recently, who had been for several months seeking employment as a clerk or salesman, in a mercantile house. Complaining of his ill luck to a friend, who knew that the young man was possessed of considerable merchanical talent, and who doubted whether he could make himself useful either as a clerk er salesman, put the interrogatory to him, "Why don't you learn a trade?" The reply was, "that a trade was not so respectable as a mercantile occupation." This is all a mistake! The laboring man is God's noblest work. But under the delusive and foolish idea, that labor is not respectable, our stores are crowded with young men who have no capacity for business, and who, because of the fancied respectability of doing nothing, waste their salaries which cannot possibly liquidate their expenditures. And then, late, too late in life, they discover their error, and before they reach the age of thirty, many of them look with envy upon the thrifty mechanics, whom, in the days of their boyhood, they were accustomed to deride. The false views of respectability, which so generally prevail in what is termed "fashionable society" at the present day, has ruined thousands of young men, and will ruin many thousand more. Young men! remember this; and go and learn some trade. You will find more true respectability, independence and happiness, in the workshop, mill or foundry, than in "fashionable" idleness.
