A WILD HOG SHOT .- A correspondent informs us that a hog, belonging to Jacob ping wild in the woods for about three years -and that, a short time since, Mr. A., with a dog, tried to capture it, but the hog provel too fierce and strong for hunself and dog. On Friday, February 10th, Mr. A., accompaned by two young men and three dogs, port search they found it in a clump of hard bushes. The dogs were at once set upon the hog, but in an instant it killed one of them and severely wounded another, with its enormous tusks-and then, without hesitation, made a fierce attack on Wm. Mulhollen, cutting him in both legs to the bone. It is supposed the hog would have killed Mr. Mulhellen had it not been for the timely assistance of his dog, and a bullet from a rifle in the hands of a Mr. McCarty, which

West Virginia. When the conquered rebels of Virginia commenced their demonstations to recover possession of West Virginia, we thought it would be a long time before success would grown their efforts, the West Virginians being too firmly devoted to the Union cause. and too well satisfied with their separate organization to give themselves up voluntarily to the embraces of the old rebel dynasty at Remaind. It seems, however, that the By Assessors' wages, calculations of the latter were shrewder than we supposed, and the West Virginians are beginning to be seriously alarmed at the to peet of being overwhelmed by returned eles from all quarters, who will get possession of the new State government, vote it back again into the Richmond government. and so permanently re-establish the reign of terror there. The large predominace of the nion men in West Virginia was owing chiefto the absence of the rebels in the armies I Jeff. Davis. Now, however that peace re-established, all the rebels have returned their old quarters, and it does not admit t loubt that they are really numerous, perhaps the majority in many counties. This relief ascendancy involves for us the loss of two Union Senators and three Union members of the lower House of Congress, in case its success. It does more, since it brings ack the old regime to the very borders of Pennsylvania and Ohio, from whence the Uon power in West Virginia had removed We preceive that the Union papers in West Virginia are discussing the matter in earnest, and intend to oppose the further uflux of rebels from eastern Virginia.

Perfect free trade and unfettered competition will be found the best protectors of American industry, as they have proved to e of the industries of Great Britain and Switzerland, who alone, as yet, have had the intelligence to adopt this wise policy.' So says the New York Commercial Adverliser, in defiance of the fact that great Britain raises some $100,000,000 or more yeary from customs, with an average tariff on er dutiable imports quite as high as ours, and a duty on millions of pounds of American tobacco of four times its cost, amounting in 1859, to over $19,000,000! Bad disorder the Commercial has-"British free trade" on the brain.

An extensive conspiracy has just been discovered, and which is said to have had its agents in every large city in the world, the bject of which was to create a panic on the value of American securities. Like all the plots to injure the people of the United States, this last scheme originated in Lonon, and is one of the many games of the London Times to destroy free government By bal. transfered to County 3,325 46 in America. But it is not likely that the scheme will succeed. American securities are now more valuable in Europe than those of any government in the old world.

A lady who was coming from Montreal to ortland, had bought a lot of silk at the ormer place, and, after entering the cars, a custom-house officer asked her if she had anything that required examination. Very cently she produced her valise, the said silk lying in her lap all the while, done By Relief orders redeemed officer to held that parcel while she exhibited the contents of the valise. The innocent victim, not suspecting that common looking Ry Bal transfered to County Parcel of being an offender, allowed her to so on her way rejoicing.

THE LAST LOOK .- A committee of the National Monument association recently visited Oak Hill Cemetry, near Sprinfield Ill. for the purpose of officially noting the fact that the remains of President Lincoln are buried there, that they might furnish the record with an attested proof of the burial. Arrives at Tyrone at : : : 5.40 p. m. The face of the lamented dead was seen and To balance last settlement recognized, and the look of the committee on the form of the martyr President will be the last until the angel's trump shall sound a summons to final judgment.

In the U. S. Court of Claims on the 14th an adverse opinion was given in the case of Floyd's acceptances. A large amount of money is involved in this case, which originated in the term of James Buchanan, by the Secretary of War, John B. Floyd, endorsing certain bills of exchange, drawn by Russel, Major and Waddall on him, on account of contrasts for the War Department. These bills were marked accepted by Floyd, Authory of Jefferson county, has been run- and afterwards passed as regular bills of exchange. The case will be carried to the Supreme Court.

The following is as true now as when Andrew Jackson uttered it in 1824: "Take from our agriculture 600,000 men, women and children, to be employed in manufactures, and you will at once give a home again went to look for the hog. After a market for more bread-stuff than all Europe now gives us. We have been too long subject to the policy of British merchants. It is time we should become a little more Americanized."

> The Herald's Havana letter of the 7th says: Mexico city papers contain full accounts of the seizure of Bagdad, and express the hope that the United States will make reparation, and thus remove the necessity of a declaration of war.

> The Ohio House of Representatives have passed a bill, by a vote of seventy to fourteen, fixing eight hours for a day's labor.
