NEWSPAPER IMPROVEMENTS.—The Bellefonte Press, Brookville Republican, last week appeared in enlarged forms and new dresses. They make a fine appearance now, and it is to be hoped that the people will appreciate the improvements made by adding many names to the subscription lists of our GREELEY'S "AMERICAN CONFLICT" is generally pronounced the best and most inseresting history of the Great Rebellion which has yet been written. Its statements are candid, liberal, impartial. Its success is unparalleled, 125.000 copies having already been sold. No library will hereafter be complete that does not contain this Work, and no family should be without it. See advertisement in another column.

THE RIVER, RAFTING AND WEATHER In our last issue we announced the partial breaking up of the ice in the river. The result was that "rafting in" had commenced in good earnest, and quite a large amount of timber was put into the water during the latter part of the week. On Sunday morning however, there was a considerable change in the atmosphere, and during the day the ground froze hard and some snow fell, which put a sudden stop to the rafting operations.

STORE ROBBED. - We learn that the store of J. C. Brenner & Co., in Kylertown, was robbed on Saturday evening, February 24th, by some unknown persons. The robbers gained admittance at a back room window, and rifled the drawer of about $250.00 in eash, whilst young Mr. Brenner was at supper. The thieves also carried off a number years, when declining health imposed the of promissory notes, but they will be of no account as their payment has been stopped. Evidently the thieves were well acquainted with the premises. They are still

A COUNTY MAP. - Last week we had the pleasure of examining a map of Clarion county, published by Mr. Pomeroy, of Philabelphia, which certainly is a most beautitul affair, besides its usefulness as a matter of reference. It is gotten up from actual surveys made, and shows the exact lines of the several townships-the locality of every tract of land and town lot in the county, with the name of the owner-all the roads and streams-the coal, limestone, and ore beds-the towns and post offices-and the distance from one town to another. We hope the citizens of Clearfield county will make a united effort to induce Mr. Pomeroy to get up a map of this county also, as it is very much needed-no regular map of this county having ever been made.

The County Superintendency. CURWENSVILLE, Feb. 27, 1866.-MR. EDITOR: I am informed, by different persons, that it is currently reported that I am a political candidate for the office of County Superintendant of Common Schools, in Clearfield county. And one individual has said, that if I am not I will publicly decline the office. I wish through the medium of the public press, by your permission, to disabuse the public mind, and set myself right on this subject.

As to my declining the office, I think it will be time to do so, when the position is hor eful. Even as death crowded slowly tendered, -a trouble I do not auticipate; and, moreover, a something I most likely would not do if brought to the test. Be that as it may; I wish it distinctly under-stood throughout the county, that I am not a candidate at all, much less a political candidate for the office of County Superintendant of Common Schools-an office which position, and although several times earnestly solicited, have steadily refused to be a

To my friends who have urged me to ask for the office I may, while I thank them for the kindness shown me, give a few reasons for my refusal, and First: If the office is to political preferences but as a teacher in the Public schools in our commonwealth for almost fourteen years, and in connection an humble minister of the gospel for half that time, I have striven not to let my political preferences interfere with my duties; and as those political opinions are my own, I do not intend to give them into the hands of any party to be used as public property. Neither do I intend to prostitute, an office so important, to political purposes. In the second place: I have not the presumption to ask such a favor from a people among whom I have lived for so short a time. And lastly: (as we preachers say) I will only fill the office when it seeks me, and not when I seek it-such, at least, is my present feel-

Hoping that it will now be fully understood that I am no candidate, I subscribe myself a friend to popular education. A. H. SEMBOWER.

and 16 days. The deceased was born in Westmoreland county, Pa., on the 6th day of June 1802. In 1836 he was appointed by Governor Ritner, Register and Recorder of Westmoreland In 1837 he started a German newspaper in Greensburg, and in 1839 he commenced the publication of the Greensburg Sentinel, which afterward merged into the Intelligencer, and later into the Herald. In 1842 he moved to Somerset, and there published the German Republikaner, and the Herald for seven years, during which time he was elected and served one term as Treasurer of Somerset county. In the spring of 1852 he removed with his family to Indiana, and there published The Register for seven relinquishment of his editorial as well as manual labors. When he was a lad of some fourteen years -having previously had the benefit of three month's instruction in a country public school -all the schooling he ever received-he availed himself of every spare moment from toil, to store his mind with knowledge. When out upon the fields of his father's farm, plowing or hauling, he always improved the moments while giving his horses a short rest, to commit to memory a verse or two from the Lutheran catechism-a book he usually carried with him. So also amid all his labors. And during the long winter nights he would seat himself by the large log fire burning upon the hearth, and there read and study, while, perhaps, other children amused themselves with play. In the course of a few years he had made such progress that he had carefully read nearly all the books constituting the meagre family library, and other works of value which he was enabled to borrow in the neighborhood. Under such circumstances he acquired much of that knowledge which served to make him what he was in later years. His life, so long as health permitted, was one of application to, and toil in the interest of good moras, and justness in all private and public affairs. Whatever his errors may have been, they were of the head and not of the heart. He early professed christianity, and united in fellowship with the Lutheran church, in which religious connection he continued to live, and died. 'His constant, chief desire was to be upright and virtuous-and in his last moments he expressed lively hopes of

I have arm and leg. Finally his sight, which had never offered myself in this county for this been impaired some thirty-five years, forsook him. In this condition he was wont to have some one to entertain him with readings from the Bible, and the newspapers of the day. He ever manifested great interest in current events, and derived sweet consolation in his recollections of the precepts he had learned from his catechism in the days be made a political one. THE KIDNEYS.

The kidneys are two in number, sitnated at the upper part of the loin, surrounded by fat, and consisting of three parts, viz: the anterior, the interior, and the exterior.

The anterior absorbs; the interior consists of tissues or veins, which serve as a deposit for the urine, and convey it to the exterior; the exterior is a conductor also, terminating in a single tube, and called the ureter; the ureters are connected with the bladder.

The bladder is composed of various overings or tissues, divided into parts, viz : the upper, the lower, the nervous, and the mucous. The upper expels, the lower retains. Many have a desire to urinate without the ability, others urinate without the ability to retain. This frequently occurs in children.

To cure these affections we must bring into action the muscles, which are engaged n their various functions. If they are neglected Gravel and Dropsy may ensue.

The reader must also be made aware that however slight may be the attack, it is sure to affect his bodily health and mental powers, as our flesh and blood are supported from these

The Gravel.

The Gravel ensues from neglect or the improper treatment of the kidneys. These organs being weak, the water is not expelled from the bladder, but allowed to remain; it becomes feverish and sediment forms. It is from this deposit that the stone is formed and Gravel

TREATMENT.

Helmbold's highly concentrated Exract of Buchu is decidedly one of the est remedies for diseases of the bladder, kidneys, gravel, dropsical swellings, rheumatism, and gou-ly affections. Under this head we have arrang-Dysuria, or difficulty and pain in passing water; Scanty secretion, or small and frequent dis-charges of water; Stranguary, or stopping of Hæmaturia, or bloody urine; Gout and Rhematism of the kidneys, without any change in quantity, but increase of color or dark water. It was always highly recommended by the late Dr Physick in these affections.

This medicine increases the power of digestion, and excites the absorbents into heal-thy exercise, by which the watery or calcareous depositions and all annatural enlargements, as well as pain and inflamation, are reduced, and is er, for upwards of twenty years, with gravel, bladder, and kidney affections, during which time I have used various medicinal preparationS, and been under the treatment of the most eminent physicians, experiencing but little relief.

Having seen your preparations extensively advertised, I consulted with my family physician in regard to using your Extract Buchu.

I did this because I used all kinds of advertised remedies, and had found them worthless, and some quite injurious; in fact, I despaired of ever getting well, and determined to use no remedies unless I knew of the ingredients. It was this that prompted me to use your remedy As you advertised that it was composed of BUCHU, CUBERS, and JUNIPER BERRIES, it oc curred to me and my physician as an excellent combination, and, with his advice, after an exam-ination of the article, and consulting again with the druggist. I conculuded to try it. ced its use about eight months ago, at which time I was confined to my room. From the first bottle I was astonished and gratified at the beneficial effect, and arter using it three weeks, was a-ble to walk out. I felt much like writing you a full statement of my case at the time, but thought my improvement might only be temporary and therefore concluded to defer and see if it would effect a perfect cure, knowing then it would be of greater value to you and more satisfactory to me

I am now able to report that a cure is effected after using the remedy for five months.

I have not used any now for three months, and feel as well in all respects as I ever did.

Your Buchu being devoid of any unpleasant taste and odor, a nice tonic and invigorator of the system. I do not mean to be without it when ever casion may require its use in such affections

DR. MAGGIEL'S PILLS AND SALVE.

These Life-giving remedies are now, for the first time, given publicly to the world. For over a quarter of a century of private practice the ingredients in these

Life-Giving Pills!

Have been used with the greatess success. Their mission is not only to prevent disease, but to cure They search out the various maladies by which the patient is suffering, and re-invigorates the falling system. To the aged and infirm a few do-ses of these valuable PILLS will prove to be

A VERY FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH,

For in every case they add new Life and vitality, and restore the waning energies to their pristine state. To the young and middle aged, they will prove most invaluable, as a ready, specific, and sterling medicine. Here is a dream realized, that Ponce-de-Leon sought for three hundred years ago, and never found. He looked for a fountain that would restore the old to vigor and make youth ever

An Eternal Spring! It was left for this day and hour to realize the dream, and show, in one giorious fact, the magic that made it fair.

These famous Remedies Cannot stay the flight of years, but they can force back, and hold aloof, disease that might triumph over the aged and young. Let none hesitate then, but seize the favorable opportunity that offers. When taken as prescribed—

FOR BILLIOUS DISORDERS Nothing can be more productive of cure than these Pills Their almost magic influence is felt at once; and the usual concomitants of this most distressing disease are removed. These reme dies are made from the purest Vegetable Compounds. They will not harm the most delicate female, and can be given with good effect in prescribed doses to the youngest babe.

FOR CUTANEOS DISORDERS And all eruptions of the skin, the SALVE is most invaluable. It does not heal externally a-lone, but penetrates with the most searching effeets to the very root of the evil!
