UNION-REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR:

Maj. Gen. JOHN W. GEARY, of Camb. Co.

The Connecticut Election.

The election in Connecticut, on Monday, April 2d, has resulted in a complete rout of the Democracy. Gen. Hawley, the Republican candidate, beats English, Democrat, by 599 majority; and the Legislature is largely Republican, thus securing the election of a Republican United States Senator.

Conservatism—What is it?

Now-a-days we hear much said about "conservatives," and hence the question, "What is conservatism?" Webster's dictionary gives, "Conservatism, n. The desire and effort to preserve what is established."

The Fenians.

Some of the New York papers got up quite a sensation last week by a report that Gen. Killian had set sail with some 5,000 men for Bermuda, and that the war for the liberation of Ireland was about to commence in earnest.

The United States and Mexico.

On the evening of the 3d April, Secretary Seward gave a handsome entertainment to Madam Juarez, the exile wife of President Juarez, of the Republic of Mexico, at which all the representatives of the Spanish-American republics were present, as was also the Russian Minister.

The Charleston Courier states that 3,200 freedmen have left North Carolina since January 1st to work in New England on contract at $20 per month, and that more will follow.

Mr. Clymer's Record.

In the State Senate, on April 12th, 1861, on motion of Mr. M. Clure, the second reading and consideration of the bill providing for the arming of the State of Pennsylvania was entered upon.

The Senate proceeded to the discussion of the bill, and upon the passage of each section the yeas and nays were required. Each division produced a strict party result.

This record, which Mr. Clymer made at the very commencement of the war, he maintained with a marked persistency, until the close of hostilities. His principles, his sympathies, and his ambition, all seemed to lean towards the side of the rebels.

The New Jersey Senatorship.

It seems that the New Jersey Legislature has adjourned, without electing a United States Senator—Mr. Scovell, the Speaker of the Senate, who held the balance of power, refusing to go into joint convention for that purpose.

"We have already demonstrated that Jas. M. Scovell is a hypocrite, a rascal, and a falsifier. A man of much pretension and little brains. It would seem that little more could be added to this catalogue of viciousness, but we have now to add our solemn conviction that this man of much conscience and little principle has been bought, and has received a portion of the purchase price."

An Honest Confession.

Mr. Clymer in his speech to the Convention that nominated him, in referring to the qualifications requisite for a Governor of Pennsylvania said: "He should stand the avowed and undoubted champion of the Union of these States in its original purity, ready and willing, if need be, to sacrifice life itself in defending from the assault of all enemies... who, under the garb of loyalty and the guise of friendship, would undermine and destroy it."

NORTH CAROLINA.

The Raleigh Standard, Gov. Holden's paper, says that "ultra secessionists now fill every office in the State, from the highest to the lowest," and that "the secession leaders are determined that the Union men shall never be permitted to govern the State."

THE SALE OF THE "SHENANDOAL."

The London Times, March 23d, says: Mr. C. W. Kellock, of the firm of Kellock & Co., offered for sale, yesterday, at Liverpool, the screw steamer Shenandoal, 790 tons, net register, known as the late famous Confederate cruiser. She was built at Glasgow on the composite principle, and has engines of one hundred and forty horse-power.

THE BOND ROBBERY.

The man who was arrested for robbing Mr. Lord, of New York, of $1,500,000 of government bonds and other securities, tried to make a bargain with the detectives. He proposed to divide with them the $200,000 offered for the recovery of the property. They assented, and then arrested him. This he resents as a breach of contract, and says they may do what they will with him, but he will not disclose where the bonds are concealed until sure of half the reward and his personal freedom besides.

EVERY DEMOCRATIC MEMBER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES VOTED ON TUESDAY MARCH 21st, AGAINST A BILL TO PROTECT UNITED STATES OFFICERS FOR ACTS DONE UNDER COLOR OR MILITARY AUTHORITY FROM PROSECUTION AND PUNISHMENT IN STATE COURTS.

The Democrats do not think any better of the "Lincoln hirelings" than they used to do.

THE VETO IGNORED.

The Civil Rights Bill Passed by the Senate by a Two-thirds Vote.

WASHINGTON, April 6, 1866.—To-day has been one of unexampled Congressional excitement. An almost undivided interest was entered in the Senate and the House. In the former it was well known that no adjournment would be effected without a vote on the President's veto of the Civil Rights bill, while a vote on the great contested election case of Dodge vs. Brooks was also anticipated in the House.

The Senate presented the same dense mass of spectators as on yesterday and the day before, and so intense was the interest that it remained filled to overflowing for six consecutive hours. Distinguished privileged characters were also on the floor of the chamber and in the adjoining galleries.

The Senate presented the same dense mass of spectators as on yesterday and the day before, and so intense was the interest that it remained filled to overflowing for six consecutive hours. Distinguished privileged characters were also on the floor of the chamber and in the adjoining galleries.

WASHINGTON, April 9, 4 p. m.

The House passed the Civil Rights bill, over the President's Veto—yeas 122, nays 41. The announcement by the Speaker, that the bill had become a law, was followed by tremendous and long continued applause.

A SPECIMEN OF THE RECONSTRUCTED.

The Richmond Examiner, of a recent date, in an article relating to the trial of Jeff. Davis, after informing the Committee on Reconstruction that in the State of Virginia "they can easily find twelve times twelve men who will eagerly undergo Mr. Davis' imprisonment and all the peril in which he stands, if thereby liberty may be purchased for him," closes as follows:

"When the man whom we placed at the head of our undertaking shall be tried for his share in that of which we were all partakers—most of us more willing, perhaps, than any one of them, to feel that it is only for him that we have taken offence to cast the first stone. More than that, all will be ready to repel the charge of treason with indignant emotions. Allegiance was due only to the State, and any duty arising from the Union only bound the individual through the State. The State absolved all obligations beyond her will, and all who obeyed the State did nothing but what patriotism justified. The people believed this doctrine before the war, and force has not changed their convictions. Courts may instruct, but as juries here have always exercised the right to judge the law, even in a matter of dollars and cents, they will not forego that privilege in a trial that involves the life of their representative man and the common honor of individuals and of States. The Committee—the whole world—may rest confident that Virginia gentlemen can under no circumstances consent that Jefferson Davis be made the scapegoat of the whole people. No, never!"

THE SALE OF THE "SHENANDOAL."

The London Times, March 23d, says: Mr. C. W. Kellock, of the firm of Kellock & Co., offered for sale, yesterday, at Liverpool, the screw steamer Shenandoal, 790 tons, net register, known as the late famous Confederate cruiser. The Democrats do not think any better of the "Lincoln hirelings" than they used to do.

FREEDMEN'S CELEBRATION IN RICHMOND.

A dispatch from Richmond, dated April 3d, says: "The freedmen here celebrated the first anniversary of their liberation from bondage to-day. The procession, embracing several thousands of men, marched from the western suburbs through the principal streets, with banners and music to Capital square, when an address was delivered by Rev. Mr. Hunnicutt. Good order prevailed during the day."

THE ELECTIONS.

DECISSIVE UNION VICTORIES.

The Democracy Badly Routed.

The election in the State of Connecticut, which attracted so much attention throughout the land, came off on April 2d, and resulted in a most signal victory for the Union party, the vote for Governor footing up as follows:

Hawley, Republican, 43,847; English, Democrat, 43,248.

Hawley's majority, 599.

The Senate stands 13 Union to 8 Democrats, and the House 141 Union to 94 Democrats, giving a large majority on joint ballot.

Rhode Island.

Gen. Burnside was elected Governor with but little opposition—the Democracy knowing that the hero of many battles would be sure to win, no matter what effort they put forth. The vote stands, Burnside 7,749; Pierce (Dem.) 2,456. The Senate stands 28 Union to 5 Democrats; and the House 65 Union to 7 Democrats.

Election in Cleveland, Ohio.

The charter election in Cleveland, on Monday, April 2d, resulted in an unexpectedly complete and sweeping Union victory. The city Union ticket was chosen by an average of 500 majority—the Republicans having carried eight Wards out of eleven. They also elected seven councilmen out of eleven, securing a Union majority of more than two to one in the next city council. They also elected seven of the eleven assessors.

Election in Chester City, Pa.

The first election, under the new charter, took place in Chester city, Delaware county, Pa., on April 2d, with the following result: For Mayor, John Larkin, jr., Republican, had 480 votes; P. Baker, Democrat, 346; H. B. Edwards, Independent, 149.

Election in Cincinnati, Ohio.

At the municipal election in Cincinnati, on Monday, April 2d, the Union ticket was elected by 5,000 majority. Twelve Union men, five Democrats, and one Independent were elected to city council.

CASE OF BRADLEY T. JOHNSON.

Baltimore, Md., April 3d.—In the case of Bradley T. Johnson, of Maryland, late of the rebel army, and who participated with police marshal Kane at the commencement of the war in the effort to repel the national troops, and who was recently held to bail in the United States District Court, in this city, to answer an indictment for treason, the President has interposed, ordering his bail to be discharged, and the abandonment of his case. Johnson claims exemption under the terms of his parole.

Senator Foote of Vermont died at Washington, on Wednesday morning, the 28th March, after an illness of several weeks duration. He was the oldest and one of the most distinguished members of the Senate, having been chosen in 1850 and served continuously ever since. Both Senators from Vermont have died during the present session, and in their death, not only that State but the nation has suffered a great loss.

The Providence Journal, referring to the Rhode Island election, says: "Rhode Island thus heartily responds to the call of New Hampshire and Connecticut, proudly crowns her gallant Burnside with civic honors, and records her vote in favor of constitutional liberty and universal freedom."

The prospect for fruit in Wisconsin is never better. An examination of the buds has shown that the frost did no harm.

HORACE GREELEY'S HISTORY OF THE WAR.

"The American Conflict." In Two Volumes. Elegantly illustrated with 144 portraits on steel; numerous maps and diagrams of battle fields; views, etc. 125,000 copies sold. Volume I. of this History, published almost two years later than the first part of nearly every other History of the war, has become a classic, and is everywhere recognized as the highest authority, even by the author's political opponents. Volume II. will be ready in a few months at the earliest day, and which will be a complete history of the war as it obtained. The entire work, inimitable alike in excellence of plan and detail, will be vastly superior to any of those now completed, (most of which were "completed" long before the war broke out), and will be regarded as the most satisfactory History of the late stupendous struggle—altogether unequalled for clearness, fullness, and accuracy of statements, combined with candor and graphic delineation of events.

If completed as designed, the work will be as authoritative as to the events of the most wonderful era in the history of the Country.—A. U. CURRIE, Governor of Pa.

It would be difficult to place too high an estimate on the service Mr. Greeley has rendered our country by the preparation of this volume. I wait the forthcoming of the second volume with eager expectation.—WILLIAM D. KELLEY, M. C. It bears the marks of labor, studied candor and accuracy.—WILLIAM H. SEWARD, Secretary of State.

The narrative is simple and clear, with so much of life and spirit in it that it is next to impossible to read a whole chapter without stopping. It will do and ought to be read by all our countrymen.—SHEWAN GOUGH, U. S. Sen. It accuracy gives it a value beyond any other history of that eventful period. The great industry and impartiality of Mr. Greeley will make this the text of all future histories of the Great Rebellion.—TRANSVALE, Wm. C. Of all the Histories of the Great Rebellion which I have examined, this one seems to be the best in the copiousness of its antecedent and contemporaneous Records, as well as of the events of the war itself.—SCOTT'S COLLEGE, Spenser U. S. House of Reps.

Volume II. will be accompanied (without extra charge) by an elegant copperplate Map of the Seat of War, worth $1.00. Sold only by traveling agents. Address: O. D. CASE & CO. Publishers, March 7, 1866-4f. Hartford, Conn.
