FIRE.-During the past two or three xeeks a number of buildings have been destroyed by fire, in this county, which have proved a total loss to the owners. Insurance is the only safeguard against total losses. S. J. Row, is agent for three of the best Insurance Companies in the State. Policies issued on liberal terms.

ELECTION OF COUNTY SUPERINTEND-ANT. - In pursuance of the Act of Assembly, the School Directors of the county assembled in Convention at the Court House in Clearfield, on Tuesday, May 1st, for the purpose of electing a County Superintendant for the ensuing three years. The Convention was called to order by C. B. Sandford, Esq., the county Superintendant; after which D. W. Moore, Esq., was chosen President of the Convention, and A C. Tate and R. J. Wallace. Secretaries.

On motion, C. B. Sandford, George W. Snyder, and A. R. Height, were nominated as candidates. Upon a ballot being had the vote stood as follows: Sandford 28. Snyder 39, Height 9. Snyder having a majourned.

AN IMPORTANT OPINION. - The Rev. Andrew Manship, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in his "Thirteen Years in the Itinerancy," says "as far as earth is concerned, I know nothing so well suited to a man of limited means, who has a desire to provide for his household and leave them something to live upon when he is gone, a responsible, well regulated Life Insurance Company, into which he agrees to pay an annual amount within his reach; the company on their part agreeing to pay to his wife or children, a certain sum when he can no longer go in and out for them. I have seen the widow and the orphan children gladdened in the hour of adversity by this means. When we see its good effects who will gainsay it ?" H. B. Swoope, Esq., of this place, is the agent of the Penn Mutual Life Insurance company of Philadelphia, which has a fund liable for losses of $1,500 . I hereby certify that the above (vi).
