CLEARFIELD, PA., AUGUST 1, 1866.

Inhuman Torture of Negroes. General Howard has received voluminous eports concerning the cruelties practised by Mrs. Henry Abrahams, of King Williams sounty Virginia, upon her servants. The natter came to light through the investigacion set on foot about a month ago. The eports show that on the second of June a reed girl, named Martha Anne, aged 17, was brought to a hospital at Richmond. ter. In addition to these her entire body was almost covered with scars, some old and some covered with recent scales, some the esult of burns, and some the result of whipoing. She had been so abused that she was carcely able to give expression to an inteligent idea. The investigation made before the Judge Advocate at Richmond proved hat this monster, Mrs. Abrahams, whom half the lawyers of the city volunteered to lefend, has within the last few years been he cause of the death of four of her negro ervants. An extract from the report is ubjoined

"Lucy Richardson, mother of the girl taken to the hospital, has been made blind of one eye and has been scarred in the throat with a hot iron. Five of the children of said Lucy Richardson, named Martha Anne and Mary Ellen, twins, aged sixteen, George, aged nine, Francis, aged eleven, and Robert, aged seven and a half years, have on many different occassions each of them been placed in a nude state before the fire until their backs were actually broiled, and then whipped with a birch rod on the back until it was raw, when strong salt and pepper water was rubbed on and they were whipped again. Francis died in Eebruary, 1866 from injuries received at the hands of said Mrs. Abrahams by being stamped up-The children, while being tortured, had their feet and hands bound, and were bucked to keep them from struggling or resisting. The house would be closed while they were being burned and whipped, but then their cries would be heard for a long way. They would often faint away, and Mrs. Abrahams would continue to strike them with a poker, saying, "You're dead, are you? I'll make you eatch your breath. After the punishment they could not lie nor sit down, and had to stand up a number of consecutive days and nights. Before the children recovered from their injuries Mrs. Abrahams would scar them with hot coals, or with a hot iron. She never had a servant without sears from her hands, and never did a day pass that some servant did not receive torture.

"Sarah Dandridge, milkmaid, was told to get all the milk she could in time for a dancing party, and because she did not answer soon enough 'Mrs. Abrahams tortured her to such an extent that she drowned herself in the creek.

"Eliza Hill was beat over the head with an iron poker, and pieces of flesh were cut from her head and face with a knife, by Mrs. Abrahams, until she became blind in both eyes. She afterwards died from these

The evidence fully establishes numerous instances of assault with intent to wound, maim, disfigure, disable, or kill. Much tof this cruely has been practiced since the fall of Richmond. Burning on the bare back with live coals of fire seems to have been a common punishment. Whipping was done with clubs, tongs, pokers, fire-shovels, &c. Mary and Frances were twice taken to a pond and half drowned.

Coffee, Still Nearer Perfection.

MESSRS, EDITORS : - I feel rather diffident in writing on the subject of coffee-making, after the subject has been so ably handled by Professor Seely; yet I may possibly obtain a hearing in the matter, without being deemed intrusive, when I state that years ago, after many experiments, I succeeded in obtaining the most perfectly delicious coffee ever before tasted by myself or friends. it retaining its aroma in an eminent degree, and, at the same time, possessing all the strength of extractive matter desirable. This method of making coffee I subsequent ly published in the Household Journal, in its column of recipes.

I claim, and believe, that I was the first to discover and make coffee in the-manner I am about to describe, which, although somewhat similar to the method pursued by Professor Seely, is, I think, more easily practiced by all persons desiring to do so.

Take, say a teacupful of treshly-ground coffee, one-half of which is to be put in a coffee pot, placed on a stove, and a sufficient quantity of warm (not boiling) water poured thereon, when it should be allow to boil about five minutes, and then placed on the back of the stove for a few seconds.

The other half of the coffee may be put into a pitcher with a metalic cover, or a coffee pot used on the table only, and the li-quid portion of the coffee which has been boiled poured therein, when, as the old ladies say, it draws in a similar manner to tea.

I thus without any alteration of the form of the coffee pot, or the addition of strain-ers, really obtain all that is obtainable, of both the aroma and healthful extractive matter of the coffee used; at least by the use of ordinary culinary utensils. The coffee which was in the pitcher, or table coffee pot, is either left therein, or at once placed in the cooking not, where it is boiled the next morning, and half a teacupful again put into the table coffee pot, which is treated in like manner, thus proceeding in regular routine. In very warm weather however, the coffee thus saved to be boiled should be kept in a cool place, as a few hours in a warm atmosphere is sufficient to cause the inception of fermentation, which gives an unpleasant tasting to the next morning's brewing. I may remark, in conclusion, that no cof-fee should be used that has been roasted more than forty-eight hours before; and, in fact, coffee just roasted, but allowed to get cold before grinding, is always the best—which is the method pursued in Cuba, where they make a very delicious coffee from inferior berries.
