UNION HASS MEETING!

The true friends of the Union-the men who stood by the National authorities during the late rebellion and preserved the Union from destruction by traitors, and who now favor the election of Gen. Geary as Governor of Pennsylvania, will assemble in Mass Meeting (in conjunction with the 'boys in blue') at the Court House in Clear-

ON WEDNESDAY EVENING, September 26th, 1866.

Our friends throughout the county, as well as all others who desire to hear the truth, are cordially invited to at-

Come one! Come all! and hear the vital political question of the hour free. ly and fairly discussed.

Several eminent speakers are expected to be in attendance.

D. FAUST, Sept. 12. Ch. Union Co. Com.

DIVINE SERVICES.-Rev. Archer will reach in the Presbyterian church, morning ad evening, on Sunday, September 16th. Rev. Sembower will preach in the Bapthat church, on Sunday evening, Sept. 16th.

COURT -In view of the vast amount of criminal business to be disposed of at the September Court, the civil list has been continued. Parties and witnesses in civil causes, need not, therefore, attend. A PRESENT. -Our friend Robert Owens of Lawrence township, on Monday last, presented us with four very nice eels-the largest of which weighed 31 pounds. He will please accept our thanks for the same. Notice.-A meeting of the subser bers of the fund to improve the navigation at Spruce Island, in Clearfield creek, will be held at the store of James Forrest, at Clearield Bridge, on Tuesday, Sept. 18th, 1866, at 2 o'clock, p. m., for the purpose of appointing a committee to superintend the GEARY MEETING .- A large and enthusiastic meeting, was held on Saturday last at Pennville, under the auspices of the Soldiers' Geary Club, of Penn township. Some three hundred persons were present. The meeting was ably addressed by Messrs. Me-Enally, Tate and Fulford of Clearfield, Mr. Ross of Curwensville, and John Russell of Pennville. A splendid supper, prepared for the occasion was also freely partaken of by those present.

BABN BURNT. -On Friday night, Sept. th, at about 11 o'clock, the barn of Stacy W. Thompson of Boggs township, was burnt to the ground, together with one horse and a lot of grain, hay, harness, buggy, etc. The loss is about two thousand dollars. The fire was evidently the work of an incendiary, for the purpose of plunder, as, during the burning of the barn, an attempt was made to rob Mr. Thompson's store—the thief having broken into the back room, but failed to get into the store-room, on account of the communicating door being

A DARING BANK ROBBERY. -- On Saturday afternoon Sept. 8th, a daring robbery was committed on the First National Bank of Clearfield, by Enos Bloom and Antis Bloom, of Pike township, and Cortes Erhard, of Knox township, this county. The officer in attendance having just passed into the Directors' room, and upon turning around observed some one pass out of the front door stealthily, hastened into the banking room, when he discovered the robbery by some bank bills being displaced. Pursuit was made at once, and Erhard captured within a few squares of the bank. Just before Erhard was overtaken he was observed to throw something over a fence and into a lot, which, on being picked up, proved to be $90, the money he had taken -whereupon he was lodged in jail. According to Ernard's statement, afterwards, the robbery was preconcerted-that Antis Bloom entered the bank just as the bank officer walked into the directors' room and leaning over the counter succeeded in getting hold of a package of money without being detected, which, on being counted by the party just outside the borough limits, proved to contain $250-that having been thus successful without detection they concluded to make another "haul," and that he, Erhard, of Samuel Watson, late of Bradford tp., Clearfield county dec'd of freedom and progress, until all men of make another "haul," and that he, Erhard, accordingly entered the bank as in the first instance and made a "grab," and then made off as speedily as possible; but was apprehended in the mannner above stated. The two Blooms were also arrested and indged in jail on Tuesday forenoon.

THE FALL ELECTIONS.

THE FIRST GUN OF THE CAMPAIGN.

Union Victory in Vermont.

Vermont voted on Tuesday, Sept. 4th, for Governor, three members of Congress, and members of the State Legislature. The State Senate is unanimously Union, and the House 68 to 2. In the Third Congressional district there has been no choice, the two Republican candidates running about even. In the other two districts the Republicans are elected by handsome majorities.

result, and is worthy the patriotism and principles of the "green mountain boys."

Delaware in Line.

The election in the city of Wilmington, Delaware, on Tuesday, Sept. 4th, was a signal triumph for the Republican candidate for Mayor, Joshua S. Valentine; who was elected by 381 majority. The whole Union ticket was elected by increased majorities.

San Francisco.

The average majority for the Union candidates, at the recent election, was 1,700

WHY MR. STANTON DOES NOT LEAVE THE CABINET.—The N. Y. Herald's correspondent states that the reason why Mr. Stanton does not leave the Cabinet is: that Wm. T. Smithson, a wealthy Washington city banker, who was arrested early in 1863 by order of the War Department, and confined in the old Capitol prison, on a charge of corresponding with the rebels and dealing in Confederate currency, and subsequently convicted by military commission, sentenced to ten year's imprisonment in the Albany penitentiary, but after the lapse of a year pardoned by Mr. Lincoln, has instituted proceedings against Mr. Stanton, laying his damages at $30,000. The defense will rely mainly on the Act of Congress indemnifying certain officers of the Government for acts done in their official capacity to further the suppression of the rebellion, and as this case will test the constitutionality of the Act in question, it has been considered that the defence can be better conducted by Mr. Stanton retaining his official position, The Attorney General has been directed to appear for and defend the Secretary of War, and that officer is now engaged in preparing answers to the declarations of the com-

THE PHILADELPHIA CONVENTION.

The Southern Union men assembled in Philadelphia, on September 3d, agreeably to the call issued. Thomas J. Durant, of Louisiana, was the temporary Chairman. Hon. James Speed, of Kentucky, late U.S. Attorney General, was chosen as permanent President. A large number of Vice-Presidents and Secretaries were also appointed. The entire proceedings were harmonious, and the enthusiasm that prevailed was unprecedented.

Besides the Southern delegates, large numbers from every northern State were in the city, and a convention of Northern Unionists was also organized, of which Gov. The victory in Vermont is a most glorious | Curtin was chosen temporary Chairman. A Vice President from each of the States in attendance, and seyen Secretaries were also chosen. Gen. Burnside then offered a res- they live. olution that the gentlemen selected as temporary officers, should constitute the officers of the permanent organization; which was unanimously adopted.

On Tuesday evening a general Mass meeting was held at the Union League House, on Broad Street, which has not been equal ed by any demonstration in this country. The visit of LAFAYETTE, forty-two years ago, was the only event claimed to bear any likeness to it. In fact, it is the judgment of those who participated in the massive gatherings of 1840 and 1844, that this was unquestionably, in point of numbers and enthusiasm, the mightiest popular demonstration ever witnessed in the United States. As the various city delegations approached Broad street, earrying torches, and ever and anon sending up rockets and burning bluelights, etc., they presented a grand spectacle, which seemed at one time to extend over the whole city. Speeches were delivered from four stands, the most important speakers being Gen. B. F. Butler, General Schenk, Senator Wilson and Senator Chan-

On Thursday, the Southern Convention adopted an address and resolutions, in which the members of that body declare that Mr. Johnson's policy is responsible for our present troubles, and testify that the encourigement given the rebels has placed the ives and fortunes of Southern Union men abused their power. Congress is earnestly sustained and asked to give further protection to the loyalists in the Southern States.

The following are the resolutions as read and unanimously adopted:

1. Resolved, That the loyal people of the South cordially unite with the loyal people of the North in thanksgiving to the Almighty God, through whose aid a rebellion unparaleled for its causelessness, its cruelty and its criminality, has been overruled to the vindication of the Supremacy of the Federal Constitution over every State and 'erritory of the Republic.

2. Resolved. That we demand now, as we have demanded at all times, since the cessation of hostilities, the restoration of the States in which we live to their old relations with the Union, on the simplest and fewest conditions consistent with the security of the nation and with the protection of our lives, property and political rights, now in copardy from the unquenched enmity of rebels lately in arms.

3. Resolved, That the unhappy policy pursued by Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, is in its effects upon the loyal people of the South unjust, oppressive and intolerable, and accordingly, however ardently we desire to see our respective States once more represented in the Congress of the United States, we would deplore their restoration on the inadequate conditions prescribed by the President, as tending not to abate but to magnify the sorrows and perils of our condition. 4. Resolved, That with bride in the patriotism of the Congress, with gratitude for the fearless and persistent support they have given to the cause of loyalty, and their nion, we will stand by the positions taken by them, and use all means consistent with a peaceful and lawful course, to secure the ing the arrival of the cars was struck down ratification of the amendments to the Conby paralysis of the brain and right side, in stitution of the United States, as proposed by the Congress at its recent session, and regret that the Congress in its wisdom did not provide by law for the greater security

> 5. Resolved. That the political power of the Government of the United States in the administration of public affairs is, by its Constitution, confined to the popular lawmaking department of the Government.

> 6. Resolved, That the political status of the States lately in rebellion to the United States Government, and the rights of the people of the United States, are political questions, and are therefore clearly within the control of Congress, to the exclusion of the independent action of any and every > other department of the Government. 7. Resolved, That there is no right, political, legal or constitutional, in any State to secede or withdraw from the Union; that they may by wicked and unauthorized revolution and force sever the relations which they have sustained to the Union, and when they do so and assume the attitude of publie enemies at war with the United States, they subject themselves to all the rules and principles of international law and the laws of war applicable to all belligerents, according to modern usage. 8. Resolved. That we are unalterably in favor of the Union of the tates, and earnestly desire the legal and speedy restoration of all the States to their proper places in the Union and the establishment in each of them of influences of patriotism and justice by which the whole nation shall be combined to carry forward triumphantly the principles of our country, have accorded to them freely all that their virtues, intelligence, industry, patriotism and energy may entitle them to attain. 9. Resolved, That the organizations in the unrepresented States, assuming to be State governments, not having been legally established, are not legitimate governments

until recognized by Congress. 10. Resolved. That the welcome we have received from the loyal citizens of Philadel phia, under the roof of the time honored hall in which the declaration of Independence was adopted, inspires us with an animating hope that the principles of just and equal government, which were made the foundation of the Republic at its origin, shall become the corner-stone of the Recon-

11. Resolved, That we cherish with tender hearts the memory of the virtues, patriotism, sublime faith, upright christian life and generous nature of the martyr President, Abraham Lincoln.

12. Resolved, That we are in favor of uni versal liberty the world over, and feel the deepest sympathy with the oppressed people of all countries in their struggles for freedom, and the inherent right of all men to decide and control for themselves the character of the government under which

13. Resolved, That the lasting gratitude of the nation is due to the men who bore the brunt of the battle and in covering themselves with imperishable glory, have saved to the world its hope of free government, and relying upon the invincible soldiers and sailors who made the grand army and navy of the Republic to be true to the principles for which they fought, we pledge them that we will stand by them in maintaining the honor due the saviors of the nation and in securing the finits of their victories. 14. Resolved, That remembering with rotounding gratitude and love the precepts of Washington, that we should accustom ourselves to consider the Union as "the primary object of patriotic desire," which has heretofore sustained us with great power in our love for the Union. when so many of our neighbors in the South were waging war for its destruction, our deep and abidng love for the memory of the Father of his Country, for the Union is more deeply engraven upon our hearts than ever.

Want of room precludes the publication of the address this week, but we will endeavor to give it in our next.

SOLDIERS' CONVENTION.

All honorably discharged soldiers in the County of Clearfield, are requested to assearble in County Convention. at the Court House, in the Borough of Clearfield, on Wednesday evening, September 26th, 1866, to adopt such measures as will promote the election of Maj. Gen. John W. Geary, the soldiers' candidate for Governor of Penn'a, in the hands of men who have fearfully as also the success of the other candidates of the Union party. We believe in standing by those who stood by us while fighting the battles of the Union and its flag.
