ARE YOU ASSESSED ?-We again direct attention to the assessment lists. We rerecently examined several such lists, and found that the names of persons entitled to vote were omitted-whether accidentally or intentionally, we are unable to say. Have you examined the list of your election district, and is your name on it? If not, do so at once, and if your name is not thereon, go to the Assessor without delay and be assessed, or you may lose your vote.

READ THEM.-We give on our outside some extracts from President Johnson's speech at St. Louis, in which he defends the massacre at New Orleans, boasts of the great number of Rebels he has pardoned, threatens to "kick out" all the office holdindulges in language that, to speak mildly of it, is outrageously blasphemous. We shall confess ourselves greatly mistaken if such speeches do not disgust all respectable SUDDEN DEATH .- On Thursday evening, September 13th, John Selser, a resident of Williamsport, who was engaged in selling patent force pumps, died suddenly at Johnston's Hotel in this place. He retired to rest at 9½ o'clock on Thursday evening, in good health. Not appearing at breakfast table on Friday morning, at about 9 o'clock Mr. Johnson went to his chamber door and rapped, but received no answer. Mr. J. concluding there might be something wrong, then got a chair and looked into the room through the glass over the door, when his suspicions were confirmed. He at once called in several persons and forced the door open, and upon approaching the bed found Mr. Selser dead. He evidently died without a struggle-cause, apoplexy. An inquest was held by Coroner Park, and a verdict rendered in accordance with the above mentioned facts. The body of Mr. Selser was taken for interment to Williamsport, where his family, consisting of a wife and five children, resides.

'Relies of the Greely Reformation." For the Raftsman's Journal.

MR. EDITOR : - "Relics of the Greely Reform," is the heading of an article in the last issue of that Rebel sheet, the Clearfield Republican, in which a wholesale charge, by implication, is made against all returned soldiers, as being bank robbers, incendiacies. &c.

We soldiers, while in the service of our country, always considered that paper as a rebel sheet, and its editor as no better than a rebel, for his sympathies were at all times during the rebellion with the rebels and their cause; besides, he has frequently been heard to say that, every man who went South to fight for the maintenance of this government ought to be killed and buried upon Southern soil.

The editor, in his article, would fain me the community believe that all concerned in the Bank robbery at Clearfield on the 8th instant, were returned soldiers. Such is not the fact; for but one of the party implicated was a soldier; and if there are any doubts as to the guilt of either of the three, the soldier, on account of his known honesty and integrity heretofore, is entitled to these doubts.

The two younger men implicated stayed at home during the rebellion, and they and their friends were closely allied to the deserters and draft skedaddlers who flocked into Knox township, giving them aid and comfort in all their treasonable designs against the government, countenancing and, for ought we know, aiding these deserters in foraging upon known Union men, in robbing spring-houses, hen roosts, and in many instances killing and appropriating to their own use cattle belonging to their Union neighbors. Is not such conductwhen countenanced and encouraged by a party like the so-called Democratic party, and its organ the Clearfield Republican, enough to demoralize all young men who were brought within their influence? And hence the demorlization of young Erhard and the younger Bloom.

And who, I would ask the editor of the Republican, was it that during 1863 and 1864 undergo an imprisonment in the jail of the prop threatened to burn the property of Union citizens in this county, and in two or three instances carried their threats into execution? And while writing, recollections come into my mind of a till robbery which happened several years since. I would ask the editor of the Republican, under whose 'Reform' was this act committed? Were these crimes committed by soldiers? We, as soldiers, at all times stand prepared to defend our reputations against all attacks and aspersions of the editor of the Republican, as we defended our government on the battle-field against the rebels of the South and their sympathizers at the North.

Persons intending to exhibit blooded stock must produce authentic pedigrees, and are earnestly requested to furnish the Secretary, by the 25th of . 'r with a list of their stock, and the pediees of each, this will faciliate the preparations of entries and in case of deficient pedigree, will afford the owner time to correct the same INSTRUCTIONS TO JUDGES .- No animal to receive an award in more than one class. Judges are expressly required not to award premiums to over-fed animals. No premiums are to be awarded to bulls, cows or heiffers, which shall appear to have been fattened, only in the class of fat cattle, the object of the Society being to have superior animals of this description for breeding FAT CATTLE. - The judges on fat cattle will give particular attention to the animals submitted for examination. It is believed all other things being equal those are the best cattle that have the greatest weight over the smallest superficies. The judges will require all in this class to be weighed, and will take measures to give the superficies of each, and publish the result with their reports. They will also, before awarding any premiums, require of the competitors full statements as to the manner and cost of feeding as required by the regulations of the premium list.

When there is but one exhibiter although he may show several animals in one class, only one premium will be awarded, that to the first, or therwise as the merits of the animal may be
