Rebel Outrage in Kentucky. On Tuesday night, September 20th, a large force of rebels, numbering about 200, planted a cannon near Warsaw, Kentucky, and as the U. S. Mail steamer, General Bull, came down the river, ordered the Captain and crew to land or they would sink the boat. The object of this outrage was the forcible seizure of Dr. C. W. Ferris, the Mail Agent, who had been a Provost Marshall at Warsaw, during the war. His offense was, that during his administration a rebel soldier had been hung at that place by order of General Burbridge, and another was shot while attempting to escape from a squad of Union soldiers. The boat was landed—Dr. Ferris seized by the rebel ruffians and taken ashore, and it is feared has been murdered by them. Are such men fit to be admitted to seats in Congress, and help make our laws? Let the loyal men of Pennsylvania answer this question at the polls on next Tuesday.

Their Position. GIVES BACK THE UNION AS IT WAS, about the Copperheads—Give us back our dear Southern brethren howls every Copperhead orator, while every Copperhead organ teems with the charge that all acts of the last Congress were illegal, that slavery is illegally abolished, that the debt incurred in crushing the rebellion is illegal, and that because the traitors are not represented in Congress all its proceedings are void. Now, while the demagogues are thus howling to regain back the Union as it was a Union which they warred four years to destroy—we never hear them ask for our murdered Union men. We never hear a Copperhead declare that he would like to see the widows of the North get back their brave husbands who fell fighting the battles of the Government, nor that the orphans should have their fathers that were murdered by traitors. It is only the Union as it was, that is asked for. The Union dead are of no account in the estimation of Copperheads and rebels.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

How They are Treated. Almost daily reports come from the South, of Rebel Grand Juries finding indictments against Union officers, citizens of the South, who, during the rebellion, seized and used, in the name of the Government, the property of armed traitors. President Johnson does not offer to interfere to put a stop to these prosecutions; but in every instance where attempts have been made to punish traitors in the South, and where military authority is yet in force, a Presidential pardon was ready to shield the guilty rebel. The "boys in blue" will make a note of these facts, and promptly rebuke the authors of such wrongs at the ballot-box on Tuesday next, October 9th.

Change of Policy. The President, a venal, upheld a subordinate for refusing to contribute to the aid of the Republican party, declaring that he did not desire any man in the employ of the Government to contribute a portion of his salary to the support of any party. Now, however, there is not a post office clerk, custom or revenue officer in Pennsylvania, who has not been compelled to contribute to the salary of the election of CLYMER. Is Cowan responsible for this change in the policy of the President?

GEN. GRANT'S POLIOY. "To ask any soldier to vote for such a man as HESTER CLYMER, of, at one time, known disloyalty, against another who had served four years in the Union army, with credit to himself and benefit to his country, IS A GROSS INSULT."—General Grant at Cincinnati.

MARRIED. On Thursday, Sept. 13th, 1866, by Rev. S. M. Hartsock, Mr. MARTIN L. REX, formerly of this county, and Miss EMMA C. SWOOP, of Mapleton, Huntingdon Co. Pa.

On Thursday, Sept. 27th, 1866, by Rev. John A. Nuner, Lieut. JOHN S. JURY, of 24th P. V., and Miss REBECCA McCORKLE, all of this county.

RESTORATION!

The Policy of the Union Party to Restore the National Union!

SHALL LOYAL MEN OR TRAITORS RULE THE GOVERNMENT!

The Union Party Pledged to the Payment of the National Debt, and Opposed to the Assumption of the Rebel Debt.

The following are the Amendments to the National Constitution, which were opposed by the Democratic party in Congress, which are opposed by the friends of Mr. Clymer, and which were passed by the Republicans in Congress and are now supported by the friends of Gen. Geary. The amendments constitute the platform of the Republican party. No man can vote understandingly who carefully reads and ponders this platform:

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, two-thirds of both Houses concurring, that the following article be proposed to the Legislatures of the several States as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which, when ratified by three-fourths of said Legislatures, shall be valid as a part of the Constitution, namely:

"ARTICLE.—Section 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States, and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States. Nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

"Section 2. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State, excluding Indians not taxed; but whenever the right to vote at any election for electors of President and Vice President, or for United States Representatives in Congress, executive and judicial officers, or the members of the Legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State, being twenty-one years of age, and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged, except for participation in rebellion or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in that State.

"Section 3. No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, elector of President and Vice President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the U. S., or under any State, who, having previously taken an oath as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; but Congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each House, remove such disability.

"Section 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States authorized by law, including debts incurred for the payment of pensions and bounties for service in suppressing insurrection, or rebellion, shall not be questioned, but neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave, but all such debts, obligations, and claims shall be held illegal and void.

THE TICKET. According to a law passed last winter, by the Legislature, voters will only deposit three tickets this fall, headed severally, STATE, COUNTY, JUDICIARY, which words are to be filled out. The name of the office, and name of the candidate will be filled in. The following is the form of the tickets, which are to be cut apart at the black lines between:

STATE, Governor, John W. Geary. COUNTY, Congress, Glenn W. Scofield. Assembly, James M. McKay. Commissioner, Jacob Hoover. Auditor, John Russell. JUDICIARY, Associate Judges, Arthur Bell, Thomas Liddell.
