CLEARFIELD, PA., OCTOBER 10, 1866.

The Result in Clearfield County.

We give elsewhere returns from all the Districts except three, from which it appears that the Democratic majority in this county will probably be 1,150.

This result is not as favorable to the Democracy as the leaders of that party anticipated. In their calculations they generally claimed 1,500 of a majority, and the unexampled efforts and vigor which they threw into the canvass, seemed to justify them in making such an estimate. That they are disappointed in the result they plainly show by their conduct since the election, and they have the poor consolation of knowing that with all their persistent falsehoods and misrepresentations about the proposed Constitutional Amendments, "negro suffrage" and "negro equality," they utterly failed in their attempts to deceive and mislead the intelligent freemen who stood by and sustained the Government when these men were sympathizing with and encouraging the Rebels in their efforts to destroy it.

Too much credit cannot be given to the Republicans of Clearfield county for the noble stand they have made in this campaign, and an analysis of the figures exhibits some highly encouraging facts. Comparing the vote of 1864, which was the largest ever return to Service or to Report to a Provost cast in the county, we find that in Beccaria, Boggs, Bradford, Clearfield, Goshen, Graham, Jordan, Knox, Morris, Curwensville, Pike, Brady and Bloom, we have made gains amounting to 210, whilst in Chest, Guelich, Karthaus, Lawrence, Woodward and Union the Democrats increase their the law is with us in this matter, and that we vote 73, giving the Republicans a net gain will be sustained in receiving these votes in of 137. In the balance of the Districts, this may be changed one way or the other a little, but upon the whole we have done well in reducing the McClellan majority of 1,391 can ever be enforced, I have the very highest to one not exceeding 1.150 for Clymer.

We clip the following complimentary no tice of our townsman H. Bucher Swoope, Esq., from the Harrisburg Telegraph of Tuesday. The indications are now quite positive that there will be no anticipation of the interest due on 5-20 bonds November 1st, though there are some who look for the payment of this interest about the 15th of the month. The recent advance in the price of these bonds in the face of the unexplained and unexpected decline on the other side, shows that our market is sufficiently strong to act independently of either the London or Frankfort exchange.

READ AND PRESERVE! Wallace in favor of Deserters!

He advises Violation of the Election Laws! Though it may seem rather late to do so after the election, we publish below, as a matter of record, a circular issued. by Wm. A. Wallace, Chairman of the so-called Democratic State Committee, which every honest and well-meaning man will read with astonishment and indignation, and which will attach to its author a stigma that he can never outlive. Illegal voting is counseled and encouraged, and assurances are given that justice "SHALL NOT" be executin receiving fraudulent and illegal votes, and "almost every means to poll them" 'will be justified,' while Republican officers are to be compelled to admit them. But over and above all this it is virtually claimed that Democratic President Judges and District Attorneys, present and prospective, are pledged to carry out these "assurances," and that only such Democrats as are "reliable" in these "plain cases," can sit as Jurors. Besides this, the spirit of the circular assumes that the deserters belong to the Democratic party-a fact which no one will attempt to deny. That the revolutionary and threatening purposes avowed in this precious document, have been attempted all over the State, is by this time a matter of history. But here is the circular. Read it carefully and then preserve it for future use. Circular 4-Private.

PENNSYLVANIA ITEMS.

ALLEGHENY COUNTY.—A very painful calamity occurred last Thursday evening, whereby Mrs. Catharine Douglas, wife of Mr. Wm. Douglas, of Jefferson township. came to an untimely death. Mrs. Douglas was filling with oil, a lamp, in which the light had been left burning. Somehow, the stream poured from the can, or the gas that was thrown off from it, became ignited, and a terrible explosion instantly followed. The can was torn to fragments, the metalic part of the lamp was melted in a moment, and the spreading flames communicating to the unfortunate lady's garments, soon wrapped her in a blaze. Before assistance arrived, nearly all her clothing was consumed, and her flesh horribly burned. In this shocking state of agony, she lingered till the foled against the violators of the laws; Demo-cratic election officers are to be "sustained" lowing afternoon, when death finally came to her relief. . . . A little girl, a daughter of Wm. Murphy, of North Strabane, met with a most terrible death a few days since. The child's mother was boiling soap in a large kettle, which was taken from the fire and set on the floor. The child was playing about and fell backwards into the boiling The entire surface of the child's body was literally cooked before it could be YORK COUNTY .- A horse and buggy wagon, the property of Mr. John Murphy, residing in the neighborhood of the Brogue Tayern, in Chanceford township, this county, was found, on Sunday morning, Sept. 30th, hitched at the stable of Messrs. Heppenstall and Gohn, at the Canal basin, in Wrightsville. The thieves, of which there were two, drove up the towing path of the canal, arriving here about one o'clock that morning, and were seen by a boatman, but becoming alarmed, abandoned their booty and made their escape. The theft was committed some time during Saturday night, and on Sunday morning Mr. Murphy recovered his property. The jail birds are still at large.

LANCASTER COUNTY.—The barn of David E. Potts, near Witmer's Bridge, was destroyed by fire on the night of the 27th. Sept. Cause not known. . . An unknown woman, about 25 years of age, was found drowned in Mill Creek, near Enterprise, on the 5th Oct. Mexico.

It appears to be a settled point that Maximillian's career as Emperor of Mexico is about closed. The Liberals are pressing upon him closer and closer, and with steadily augmenting forces. The question now is-

The political experience of Mexico for a period of over thirty years affords but little foundation for hope that it will now settle down in peace under a well-ordered government. The elements essential to such a condition seem to be wanting. Rival chieftains, with their factions, composed of ignorant and unreflecting followers, have kept the country in perpetual turmoil, by refusing, as did our rebels, to submit to the decisions of the ballot. Political parties there are warring factions; and hence neither principles nor authority can be regulated and settled by the voice of majorities.

Santa Anna is figuring to get in once more; but in the maze of conflicting rumors it is impossible to tell whether he has any prospect of success. The Fenians, too, are being mixed up in the confused imbroglio; but we have no idea that they are destined to play any important part in it.

The fact is, the missionary and the schoolmaster, in their quiet way, will have to do the work, so far as the Mexican people are concerned, and a constant stream of immigration, which will be sure to follow these powerful agents of civilization, will furnish the fresh blood required for the social and political recuperation of those sick people. The Bible in the hands of the people will do more for them than all the constitutions

THE REBELLION TO BE RENEWED-FREED MEN WHIPPED-THE BENHAM AFFAIR-LETTER FROM GEN. SHERIDAN.

[Special dispatch to the N. Y. Tribune] Washington, Thursday, Oct. 4, 1866.

The following dispatch has just been reeceived from The Tribnne Bureau in New

New Orleans, Thursday, Oct. 4, 1866. Some important disclosures will soon be officially made public in reference to secret Rebel societies, which permeate the entire South. These organizations have branch circles in New York City and the West. That in New York is said to number 50,000, principally composed of men who served in the Rebel army. Each circle has a different name. Some are known as "The True Sons of the South," others as "The Knights of Arabia," and all are well armed with the most approved weapons, ready at a mo-ment's notice, should a favorable opportunity arise, to renew the struggle for the lost cause. One of the chief members of this organization, now in prison, is said to have made important disclosures. Gen. Sheridan is concentrating troops in this city for important purposes, which will soon be made apparent.

Nine cases of whipping of negroes have been recently officially reported in the par-ish of Bienville. One old woman, 70 years f age, received 400 lashes.

The following explains itself:

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 20, 1866. To His Excellency, Gov. Throckmorton. have just received from Col. Mason his report on the affair which occurred at Brenham, Texas, on the 7th inst., and have di-rected him to notify Brevet Major Smith quest of your Excellency to do all in your power to allay the excitement there, and I will do all in my power to satisfy the ends of justice in every case, but I doubt if much justice could be done in a community which compels our officers and soldiers to remain inside of the defense thrown around their camps. I will have an additional and thorough investigation of this affair, if possible, to ascertain if any soldiers were guilty of the affair, but Col. Mason is clearly of the impression that those designated for arrest are innocent. Respectfully, your obedient servant, P. H. Sheridan, Major General U. S. A.

Capt. Smith. Commandant at Brenham. Texas, who was charged with the knowledge of the burning of the town, has issued an order for the disarming of all the inhabitants of the neighborhood, and in effect declares martial law. But little importance was attached to these demonstrations by her husband and acquaintances, who attributed her peculiar actions to the fact of her being in a weak state of health. She has been possessed of an exciteable and rather fiery temper, but has almost invariably displayed a reasonable degree of affection for her husband and children. On the morning of Oet. 3d, after her husband had gone to the sta-ble to attend to his morning chores, she, with the cunning of insanity, which had long been gathering, and only awaited a favorable opportunity to burst with terrible razor, approached her own bed, wherein her youngest child was sleeping, and cut the throat of the little innocent from ear to car. In a trundle bed were sleeping the three other children, aged, respectively, four seven and nine years. With cat-like tread she approached the sleeping children, an I repeated the same bloody deed upon the youngest and next youngest, killing them almost instantly. The oldest, a boy, lay next the wall, and with his back toward the other children. She reached over the bodies of the first two, and attempted to draw the razor across the throat of the oldest boy, but, owing to his position, or some cause unknown, she only succeded in inflicting a severe, but not fatal gash. Thinking, however, her bloody task accomplished, she drew the recking weapon across the front of her own throat, and sunk to the floor on the spot. The oldest boy, who had only been partially stunned, upon recovering, by his cries of fright and terror brought the father and some of the neighbors to the house, and hastening to the room from whence the cries proceeded, the horrible scenes met their gaze. The three younger children were entirely dead, and in about ten minutes the mother breathed her last. The affair has created an intense excitement throughout the county, and the opinion seems generally to prevail that the woman was hopelessly insane. The Coroner was summoned, and this forenoon held an inquest upon the bodies, the result of which is not yet known.
