READY FOR DELIVERY .- We would state for the information of the subscribers for the map of Clearfield county, that it will be ready for delivery from the 1st to the 10th of November next.

ROBBERY.-We learn that the Jewelry store of Mr. Mullen of Curwensville, was forcibly entered on Tuesday night, October 9th, and about $600 worth of valuables carned off. A colored barber, named Snowden, residing in Curwensville, and his brother, are supposed to be the thieves -some of the articles having been discovered in the barber shop, where they had been concealed. Both have been arrested and are now in jail to await a trial.

Accident.-Mr. James McConnell, of Punzsutawney, who had been working in this place for more than a year, on Thursday last, Oct. 11th, whilst on his way home, got out of the stage a few miles above this place, to see a gentleman, and as he approached the house, slipped and fell and badly fractured the bone in one of his legs, just above the ankle. He is lying in Curvensyille, and getting along as well as could is apected under the circumstances.

THE RESULT IN UNION TOWNSHIP .- A correspondent in Union township says: "By the loss of eight Republican votes, the men being absent on business, and by removalby one Republican voting for Clymer because we did not nominate him for 'Squire last spring-by making two soldiers, who could not read and write, believe that the negro soldier got $300 bounty and the white one only $100-by voting several supposed deserters-and by getting an idiotic person to go to the polls and vote for Clymer and Scott, under the promise to buy him a new suit of clothes and a pound of tobacco and the payment of his taxes, the Cop majority was made up in this township. But for these sober truths the result would have been otherwise."

THE CLEARFIELD JUBILEE. - On Saturday evening last, October 13th, the Republicans of Clearfield and vicinity, had a jubilee, in our borough, in honor of the victory schieved on the Second Tuesday of October. A delegation composed of persons from Curwensville, Pennville and Lumbercity came in about 6 P. M. Soon after dark a torchlight procession was formed, which perambulated our streets, preceded by an excellent band of martial music. Most of the friends of Geary and Scofield had their houses and places of business illuminated. and as the procession passed they were greeted with cheers and other manifestations of approval. Between 8 and 9 o'clock the procession halted in front of the residence of H. B. Swoope, Esq., who responded, in an were made for him. At a later hour, the procession stopped at the residence of J. B. McEnally, Esq., who also responded in some appropriate remarks. Soon after, the crowd dispersed, and by 11 o'clock our streets were as quiet as though nothing unusual had transpired. It is a matter of gratification that nothing improper or unpleasant occurred - on the contrary, everything passed off agreeably and satisfactorily, and in a manner that was highly creditable to all

THE CURWENSVILLE JUBILEE .- The friends of Geary and Scofield, in Curwensville, had a ratification jubilee in that place, on Monday evening, October 5th. Delegations from Pennville and Clearfield were present, as well as many persons from the immediate vicinity. A torchlight procession was formed during the evening, and warehed through the several streets, preceded by a most excellent band of martial music. The business houses and residences of the friends of General Geary were brilliantly illuminated in honor of the grand victory achieved at the recent election. As the procession passed from street to street, it ever and anon manifested its approval of these signs of rejoicing, by greeting them with loud cheers and vociferous applause. During the evening the procession halted in front of Montgomery & Hartsock's store, where calls were made for Mr. James Ross, who responded in a few brief remarks appropriate to the occasion. John Russell. Esq., of Pennville, was then called for, who came forward and addressed the assemblage briefly, in his usual happy and felicitous manner. When Mr. Russell had carnestly called for; whereupon Mr. I. in a short address congratulated the rejoicing people over the glorious victory they had schieved over the enemies of the Union on the Second Tuesday of October. During the evening, several young ladies, who incidentally met at Mr. Arnold's, also sung a number of patriotic songs, which added much to the hilarity and good feeling of the rejoicing people. After some further manitestations of joy, and at a late hour, the crowd began to disperse; and return to their mer the pleasure of the occasion.

true abstract from the Quarterly Report made to the Comptroller of the Currency Oct. 1st. 1866. SAM'L ARNOLD, Cash. MANHOOD: HOW LOST, HOW REnew edition of Dr. Culvenwell s Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of Special cure (without medicine) of Spermatorrhecea, or Seminal Weakness. Involuntary Seminal Losses. Impotency, Mental and Phisical Incapacity. Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, Consumptiou, Epilepsy, and Fits, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance. The celebrated author, in this admirable e.say, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice. that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife-pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer. no matter what his con diton may be, may cure himself cheaply, private-

PATENTED MAY 29, 1866.

This is an article for washing without rubbing, except in very dirty places, which will require a very light rub, and unlike other preparations offered for a like pur pose. WILL NOT BUT THE CLOTHES. but will leave them much wairen than ordinary methods, without the usual wear and tear It removes grease spots as if by magic, and soft-ens the dirt by soaking, so that rinsing will in ens the dirt by soaking, so that rinsing will in ordinary cases entirely remove it.

This powder is prepared in accordance with chemical science, and upon a process peculiar to itself, which is secured by Letters Patent. It has been in use for more than a year, and has proved itself an universal favorite wherever it has been used. Among the advantages claimed are the following viz following, viz. It saves all the expense of soap usually used on cotton and linen goods.

It saves most of the labor of rubbing, and wear and tear.

Also, for cleaning windows it is unsurpassed.

With one quarter the time and labor usually required it imparts a beautiful gloss and lustre, much superior to any other mode. No water re-much superior to any other mode. No water required except to moisten the powder.

Directions with each package.

And can be readily appreciated by a single trial. The cost of washing for a family of five or six persons will not exceed three cents.

The manufacturers of this powder are sware that many useless compounds have been introduced to the public which have retted the cloth or failed in removing the dirt. but knowing the intrinsic excellence of this article, they confidently proclaim it as being adapted to meet a demand which has long existed, and which has heretofore remained unsupplied. Hanufactured by HOWE & STEVENS, 260 Broadway, Boston.

Also, manufacturers of family dye colors for sale by Grocers and Dealers everywhere.
