COMMISSIONED. - Michael A. Frank, Esq. of Clearfield borough, has been commissioned Assessor of Internal Revenue for the 19th district of Pennsylvania. We understand he will enter upon the duties of the office about the 20th of November.

FIRE -This, Wednesday, morning, about 84 o'clock, smoke was discovered issuing from the north end of G. L. Reed's dwelling house in our town, and upon examination it was found that the girders passing through the chimney and a portion of the weather-boarding were on fire, having been communicated from one of the flues. Considerable damage was done to the house before the fire was subdued.

MAP OF CLEARFIELD COUNTY. - The Messrs. Upton, assistants and agents of Mr. Pomeroy, are now delivering to subscribers the map of Clearfield county, which they were engaged in getting up during the past summer. The map is one of the finest we ever saw, the coloring and illustrations be ing unsurpassed by any county map extant. and, so far as we have been able to learn, is correct in all its details of streams, roads, surveys, houses, etc., etc. We feel confident that it will render entire satisfaction to the subscribers, and, as much promptness was exercised in getting up the maps, we trust that all will be ready to pay in an equally prompt manner for the copies they have agreed to take.

PHOSPHATE OF LIME AND GROUND BONE. We have been presented with samples of the above articles from the manufactury of Me ars. Miller & Smith, of Reading, Pa. We intend trying them next spring, and will then be able to speak from experience as to their effect on vegetation. Large quartities are used down east with profit, and we know of no country in which a cheap concentrated and effective fertilizer will pay better than our mountain region. Would it not be well for every farmer to try a barsel or two, and watch its effects on both fall and spring grain, roots, &c. 400 lbs is sufficient for an acre of wheat. Farmers think! One wagon load is sufficient to fer tilize five acres. The manufacturers are reliable, and strive to have the very best article in market. Price at the works: Ground bone, $40 00; Phosphate of lime, $50 00; Freight to Philipsburg, $8 00. Orders promptly filled.

How They Feel. Wade Hampten, of South Carolina, recently delivered a speech of which the keynote is his declaration that "shame would eling to us forever if we admit that we have been guilty of treason." This is the constant terror of Southern politicians-the evil which, more than all others, they wish to ward off from themselves and their posterity. After raising their paricidal arms against their country, and meeting with such a crushing defeat that no alternative was left but submission, instead of yielding spacefully to the decree of the stern arbiter they invoked, they are constantly striving to gain a moral vantage ground by eulogies of the justice of their lost cause, and declara-North was most powerful, not that secession was wrong. The method Wade Hampton adopts to efface the stigma of treason is the one usual in his section, but his trank enunciation of it is a peculiarly refreshing speciof rebel audacity. As nothing can be clear er than that one party or the other, in the late war, were traitors, be cuts the Gordian knot by hurling accusations against the North and eulogizing the South for (heaver save the mark!) loyalty! He asserts that had the North been half as loyal as the South has ever been, no war would have desolated our country." These doctrines are the natural offspring of a tatal reconstruction policy, and while their absurdity may provoke a smile at the North, they un fortunately control the Southern sentiment and surround with local odium and oppres sion the truly loyal men of that section.

Mr. WALLACE in his "funeral oration congratulates his political friends upon hav ing "almost carried the State." This re minds us of an incident in the history o Simon Suggs, who was once almost married "Simon asked Belinda to have him, and "Belinda she said 'No!' If Belinda sh "had said 'yes,' Simon would have been York, "married." So with the Copperheads. They asked the people to endorse their candidates, but the people they said No! If Rep. totals. 269,496 the reople had said yes, then the Cops would have carried the State. A-hem! | Majorities, 15,325
