PATENTED MAY 29, 1866.

This is an article for washing without rubbing, except in very dirty places, which will require a very light rub, and unlike other proparations of fered for a like purpose. WILL NOT BOT THE CLOTHES, but will leave them much watten than erdinary methods, without the usual wear and tear. It removes grease spots as if by magic and sol-ens the dirt by soaking so that ringing will in ordinary cases entirely remove it.

This powder is prepared in accordance with science, and upon a process reculiar to itself, which is secured by Letters Patent. It has een in use for more than a year, and has proved itself an universal favorite wherever it has been nsed. Among the advantages claimed are the following, viz.

It saves all the expense of soap usually used on cotton and linen goods.
It saves most of the labor of rubbing and wes: and tear. Also, for cleaning windows it is unsurpasse With one quarter the time and labor usually required it imparts a beautiful gloss and laste, much superior to any other mode. No water required except to moisten the powder. Directions with each package And can be readily approxiated by a single trial. The cost of washing for a family of five six persons will not exceed three cents The manufacturers of this powder are even that many useless compounds have been introduced to the public which have rotted the dath. or failed in removing the dirt. but knowing the intrinsic excellence of this article, they confident ly proclaim it as being adapted to meet a denset which has long existed, and which has horte-fore remained unsupplied.
