RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL. THE

Raftsman's Journal.

S. J. BOW, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. CLEARFIELD, PA., DEC. 12, 1866.

Arrest of John H. Surratt.

Our readers will doubtless remember that John H. Surratt, who was implicated in the assassination of President Lincoln, made his escape, and that his whereabouts have remained well concealed ever since. The evidence taken before the Military Commission in June, 1865, proved that he was one of the principal conspirators. It was at the house of his mother that the meetings were held; he made frequent journeys to Richmond ; Booth was his constant companion; Dr. Mudd concealed him in the woods near his house; Payne consulted with him; and Atzerodt confessed that he was induced by Surratt to join the conspiracy. Up to the 3d of April none of the principals were so frequently seen, yet on the afternoon of the 14th he was seen for the last time, booted and spurred, ready for his escape. From that time the very existence of John Surratt was a mystery; it was believed that he was either dead, or having revealed the names of his associates in crime, had been permitted to escape. It was noted that no reward was offered for his arrest. And as time passed on, John Surratt was nearly forgotten, when the other day came the electrifying news that he had been arrested by the American Consul-General in Egypt.

Of his wanderings, little is known. It is said that he was recognized on a Liverpool steamer shortly after the murder. Then came the rumor that he was serving as a private soldier in the Pope's Guards at Rome. We know now that he had been a soldier in the Papal Zouaves at Veroli, and served under the name of John Watson. The fact became known to Mr. Rufus King, our Minister at Rome, who telegraphed to his seizure. Surratt was taken; he was imprisoned; and on removal from jail, guarded by five soldiers, broke from their hands, jumped, it is said, over a precipice more than 100 feet high, and escaped into the Italian territory. Mr. Marsh, our Minister at Florence, obtained telegraphic instructions from the Italian Government to have all the scaports of Italy watched to prevent his escape. He was soon supposed to have embarked in a steamer for Malta, and a dispatch to the island arrived too late to detain him ; another was sent to Alexandria, and when Surratt stepped upon the shores of Egypt, he was seized by the strong, farreaching arm of America. United States detectives, it is said, have watched him since October. But long before this he must have been overtaken by a speedier, surer foe. Fear was ever at his back; from remorse he could hardly escape, for even if he could forget the crime he had committed, how could he ever cease to see the phantom of his mother on the gallows? Coward all the world believed him, since the day when he fled and left her to suffer ; a coward, it was said, she held him, and in her last moments refused to hear his name.

Wrangles of the Democracy. The Latter-Day Democracy, it seems, are having a rather "happy time" at settling their political family differences. The advocacy of negro suffrage by the Chicago Times, Boston Post, and other influential journals of the party, is being bitterly denounced by such of their organs as are "joined to their old idols." Thus we find an article from the N. Y. Day-Book copied into the last Clearfield Republican, which pours a perfect broadside of vituperation and condemnation into such "Democratic journals and leaders" as "have been doing all they could "for five or six years to educate the people 'in the Black Republican abomination of 'loyalty.'' Says the Day-Book :

"These Democratic leaders went over hemselves into the filthy slough of Black Republican loyalism alias despotism, alias devilism, of every infernal type, and did their utmost to drag the people after them, and now are trying to drag them out again with just about the same kind of ropes or principles, with which they dragged them Vain attempt! Worse than vain to attempt to drag the people out of the Abolition slough with Abolition ropes ! . . . The organization, the machinery of the party, s worn out and broken in the service of its enemies. It smells at once of the stench of negroes and the blood of white men ! It is loathesome to every Democrat, that is, to every Democrat who has refused to be a party to the stupendous crime of the Abolition war. If the Democratic party, we say, ev-er returns to power, it must be by other means than this old, filthy, venal, bloody, negroized machinery of the party organization.

That is, surely, not a very flattering account of the condition of their party, but as the Day-Book and Clearfield Republican are organs in good standing with the Latter-Day Democracy, we must take it for granted that they "know whereof they affirm," and hence that their representations they assert that "The attempt to make it a mulatto party. or something between a white man and a negro, has resulted in nothing but disgraceful and continuous defeat. These cunning or rather foolish leaders have been trying to split the difference between a white man and a negro, and the result is, that they have made political Mongrels of them selves.

That sounds like harsh' language, but it must not be forgotten that we are quoting, italics and all, from the Clearfield Republican. It is in the columns of that paper that we find these bitter accusations. Nor is this all. Prominent Democrats who our Government, and was instructed to se- took part in the 14th of August Convencure his arrest. Mr. King conferred with tion at Philadelphia are also dealt some Cardiral Antonelli, who issued an order for heavy blows. That assemblage is stigmalized as "A bastard concern, where the marplots of one section held their bloody hands over the voiceless mouths and choked throats of the other section, reading them lessons of reprcof and submission. If there is any man who bore a prominent part in it, who is not already ashamed of both its action and its results, let us believe that he is past blushing. It must be highly refreshing to Chairman Wallace, ex-Gov. Bigler, and other Democrats of our town who "bore a prominent part" in that Convention, to be told by their home organ that if they are not "ashamed of both its its action and its result," that they are "past blushing"-that the "politi-'cal offspring born of such an embrace-'the white State of South Carolina hugging 'the black State of Massachusetts-could 'be nothing but a mongrel brat." We should think that such "left-handed" compliments would be comforting, in an eminent degree, to our "distinguished fellow citizens" who attended that celebrated convocation of heterogeneous political spirits. Whilst the organs of the Latter-Day Democracy, from which we are quoting, are thus disgusted with the course of "many" journals and leaders of their party, it must not be supposed that they are at a loss for a remedy. "An early great Convention of "the true old Democracy of the States," is suggested as a sovereign balm for the complication of ills that is now racking the body of their distracted organization. It is to be composed, not of the "black and mu-"latto politicians that have been holding "their conventions all around," but it is to be made up of "genuine white politicians," of "brave and true patriots," like the editors of the Day-Book and Republican, we presume. None of those "who are foolish 'enough to think they can hold the Radical 'bull by the tail," are expected to intrude ; but only "those who mean to seize the beast "by the horns," "who want the Union as "it was and the Constitution as it was," are invited to attend. "Such a Convention," it is hoped by its brilliant projectors, 'might start an enthusiasm which will 'arouse the sleepy ear of the old Democra- from Matamoras. cy again, and give us at least one campaign in which Democrats shall not be in doubt whether they are running a Democratic or 'a Black Republican platform." We trust this enterprise will be encouraged by the 'faithful." As all other "conventions" held by the Democracy, for some years past, have proved rather harmless affairs, we want to see what one, gotten up on the highpressure principle, may do. We would, however, kindly suggest to our neighbor and better secure the services of a vigilant inthe Constitutional Amendment by a large politicians" who have been running the "ma- of Hon. Charles Sumner, he was admitted ized" leaders will force the editors of the Day-Book and Republican to place the Democratic party again on what they term the "prostituted, bloody, negro-worshipping basis of loyalty."

The Mexican Muddle.

The reported action of Marshal Bazaine, ommander-in-chief of the French forces in Mexico, in giving arms and ammunition to the partizans of Ortega, indicates the possibility of a new complication in that country. Jaurez and Ortega are rival claimants for the Mexican Presidency. Neither was chosen to fill that office at the proper time and in the proper constitutional way. Continued military disturbances prevented a peaceful election. Both base their claims on their former position as Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, that officer being the proper incumbent of a vacant Presidential chair. The issue between them is whether the old Chief Justice or the new one has the best claim to authority. Our Government has not only refused to recognize any other ruler than Jaurez, but it arrested Ortega when he was attempting to enter Mexico. France appears as anxious to favor his cause as we were to oppose it, and thus the two great nations most deeply interested espouse the claims of opposing candidates. It is to be hoped that this dispute will not lead to our entanglement in a war of succession, after the fashion of the famous old conflicts of Europe.

THE COURSE OF THE DEMOCRATS IN CON-

GRESS.-The Democrats in Congress are said to have agreed to wait for s mething to turn up, in the hope that, as the only chance, the Republicans will commit some excess, of which advantage can be taken. Not much opposition will be made to measures, however extreme, which, considering are correct. They not only thus admit that how utterly powerless they are, is very contheir organization is in a sorry plight, but siderate. The President in adhering to the 'My Policy'' doctrine, took their advice, that he might not appear to be inconsistent, although no one doubted that his policy was a failure. It is evident the Democrats and the President have heard how the elections went.

THREATENS TO REBEL. - The Richmond Enquirer, alarmed at the indications of a disposition on the part of Congress to dismantle the Southern rebel governments set up by Andrew Johnson, has the audacity to threaten a new revolt if this policy is pursued. It says that "the President is bound by his oath to maintain the State goveroments in their just rights, and any attempt to abolish them by Congress, as proposed by the caucus, would necessitate a collision." These are brave words, but the adds, "to exercise whatever influence we time has gone by when the Representatives of the American people are to be intimidated by arrogant Southern traitors. SERVED THEM RIGHT.-The Republican U. S. Senators, in the re arrangement of the standing committees, deprived Doolittle. Cowan and Dixon of their chairmanships. Doolittle, who was next to Summer on the Committee of Foreign Relations has been placed at the foot. Ramsey is head of the Post Office Committee, vice Dixon, displaced, and Henderson is made chairman of Indian Affairs instead of Doolittle; while Cowan is transferred from the head to the foot of the Committee on Patents. THE INDIAN TROUBLES. - The casual reader has, probably, not fully comprehended the nature of the difficulties with the Indians in our Western States and Territories. The extent of these troubles may, however, be inferred from the fact reported by the Secretary of War to the House of Representatives, in answer to a resolution of inquiry, that the total amount expended for the suppression of Indian hostilities, for the year 1864 and 1865, is $30,500,000. MARTIAL LAW IN MISSOURL-The Governor of Missouri has been compelled to place several of the western counties of that State, which are inhabited principally by rebels, under martial law, to secure the life and property of Union men. This exhibition of their proscriptive feelings in a Commonwealth under the control of a loyal Legislature and Executive illustrates the dangers to which Unionists of States dominated by rebel Governors are subjected. U. S. TROOPS IN MEXICO.-We have at length a trustworthy statement that Matamoras was occupied by the United States troops under Gen. Sedgwick. This was done under the protest of saving American citizens from plundering operations. General Sheridan, acting under an order from Gen. Grant, has relieved Gen. Sedgwick of his command and placed him under arrest. The U. S. Troops have since been withdrawn The Chinese at Pekin have been eleven months without rain or snow. This is in China a great public calamity, which is sought to be averted by fasting, prayer and expiatory ceremonies. In the Summer of 1864 the drouth was so great that the Emperor himself made a vow to "rectify his conduct and be more anxious for the welfare of his people." John S. Rock, Esq., the well known colto his New York cotemporary, that they had ored lawyer, of Boston, died a few days since at his residence in Phillips street, of spector, so that the Democratic "mulatto consumption. A short time ago, on motion chinery" that "smells of the stench of ne- to practice in the United States Supreme son's opposition to it was quoted as an ar- groes and the blood of white men," are not Court at Washington, being the first color- it is said, has abandoned Methodism and permitted to get inside, or those "negro- ed man who ever enjoyed that privilege.

The President's Message.

It is not so much what the President says as what he declines to say. The first impression of the message is that his Excelleny is chastened. He makes no allusions to Congress hanging on the verge of the Government. This is something from an Executive who has been in the most unreasonable humor for so many months. Mr. Pierce could not have written a weaker massage. Congress would as readily have heard an essay upon the cause of thunder as this tame and harmless disquisition. There is much that the President regrets. There are some good words from Washington and Jefferson, ikewise Jackson. We marvel that his Excellency neglected the other fathers of their country. For any living fact, for any suggestion, for any helpful thought, we might as well turn to the last novel of Trollope as to the President's message. Ephraim seems irrevocably joined to his idols. There is much that Mr. Johnson might have done. He has missed many golden opportunities-but none so glorious as this. ongress came from the people magnanimous and kind. There was no disposition to remember anything that had been done-not even the shameless antagonism to the people in the recent elections. All good men trusted that one word might be said which would show a disposition on the part of the President to reach a solution of the many difficulties surrounding the country. All kindness and rest. We believe that there was no feeling of resentment to the President, not even in the hearts of the most Radical members of Congress, that would not have given way before the slightest tendency of the President to harmonize the country. In his Message he shows no such tendency. He clings to his dogmas with as much tenacity as when he hoped to carry the country in the late elections. There is not one word for the negro-not one word for the loyal in the South-not one sentence which might not as well have been written a hundred years ago as to-day, for all the truth and comfort it brings.

In a mere business way the Message is of little importance. It refers briefly to the Treasury Report, advocating thorough reretrenchment, and the other Reports of the Departments, but makes no suggestion of importance. Mr. Johnson thinks the Pacific railroad will be finished before the time set by Congress as a limit; advises such legislation as n ay be necessary to preserve the Mississippi Levees; urges the importance of admitting to Congress a delegate from the District of Columbia, and touches upon the aid that body should give to the effort of the Southern States to reorganize their agriculture. He congratulates the country on peace with foreign nations and the success of the Atlantic telegraph, and thinks there is reason to expect greater re sults from the projected Pacific line by way of Behring's Straits. The Mexican question is briefly alluded to, Gen. Sherman's mission being said to be the obtaining of information necessary to maintain proper in-tercourse with the republic of Mexico. "It scemed an obvious duty on our part," he Pennsylvania Items.

LYCOMING COUNTY .- Peter Bota was hung at Williamsport, on Tuesday, Dec. 4, in the presence of about one nundred spec He confessed that he killed his tators. wife, but thought he should not be hung therefor, as the deed was committed in selfdefence-his wife having attempted to kill him with a hatchet.

VENANGO COUNTY .- Hon. C. V. Culver. now held in custody by the civil law, was brought before Judge Trunkey, at Franklin, on Dec. 6th, on a writ of habeas corpus, and asked to be discharged on the ground that he was a member of the Thirty-ninth Congress from the Twentieth Congressional district of Penn'a. After able arguments by counsel on both sides, Judge Trunkey decided that a member of Congress Trunkey decided that a member of Congress was not entitled to his privilege when held mail on the following terms: for an indictable offence.

BLAIR COUNTY .- Milton Stevens, age sixteen years, and another boy named John Jones, aged thirteen years, had a quarrel or the 28th Nov., in Hollidaysburg, during the course of which Jones threw a piece of iron, striking Stevens on the temple, and so completely stunning him that he died at 10 o' clock the same evening. Young Jones was arrested and entered bail, in the sum of $2,-000, for his appearance at Court. . . Three bears, that had been killing a great many of the sheep in Scotch Valley, were shot a that his Excellency has done was no longer remembered when we saw the peace he might bring to a harrassed nation, loving burg, shot a wild cat on the Brush Mountain on Thanksgiving day. . . . Martin Fry and Harry Jackson were lodged in the Hollidaysburg jail, last week, on a charge of stealing a watch, worth $150, from H. Gorsuch, who had staid over night at one of the furnaces in that place, where the accused were working. . . . A web of pilot cloth, worth $200, was stolen from the tailoring establishment of Jonathan Stouffer, in Hollidaysburg, on the night of Dec. 1st.

WASHINGTON COUNTY. -Robert W. Dinsmore, a thriving farmer, residing about five miles from Washington, in Hopewell township, was murdered in cold blood on the night of Dec. 4th. He had been to town trying to get a $1,000 bond changed, and returned home late in the evening. At about 10 o'clock he was called to the door by a rap, when he was told that a neighbor was sick and asked that one of the boys should be permitted to go there. On replying that he had no boys, the two assailants sprung upon him, and in the struggle that followed Mr. Dinsmore was shot and cut in the breast in such a manner "that death ensued in about three hours. Mrs. Dinsmore was a spectator to the horrible tragedy, fright restraining her from getting away. A little daughter making a noise up stairs, scared the villians away before they got any plunder A man named Robert Fogle was next day arrested, and on searching his room a suit of clothes, covered with mud, a pair of boots with one heel off. were discovered. A heel that fitted the boot nicely being found at the scene of the marder, seemed to fix the deed upon Fogle beyond a doubt. Finding the evidence strong against him, he confessed that he and a boy, about 17 years of age, named Wm. Montgomery, had committed the murder

HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH FOR 1867.

GEO. BERGNER. PROPRIETOR GEO. BERGNER. PROPRIETOR As the approaching session of the Legislature will be one of unusual interest. to the people of Pennsylvania—owing to the fact that a United States Senator is to be elected, and other matter of great importance will be acted on by the Leg-islative bodies of the Commonwealth-tad change will take place in the Executive Depart-ment of the State by the inauguration of Great al John W. Geary as Governor—the attention al John W. Geary as Governor-the attention the public is invited to the following Prospects of the HARRISSURG TELEGRAPH for 1867

THE DAILY TELEGRAPH Now the largest daily paper in Central or Son ern Pennsylvania, besides containing a full a port of the proceedings of the Legislature. and truthful account of affairs at the Capital, will fin copious telegraphic reports of all impress events that transpire throughout the county synopsis of Congressional proceedings and other

1	Six months, in advance, .	٠.	8 ja	3 50
B	Three months, in advance, For the Session.			1 75
n	No subscriptions taken for	less	that	2 three

THE WEEKLY TELEGRAPH Will contain a resume of the important busitess transacted in Congress and the Legislature. Tels graphic reports which appear in the Daily on mercial and financial intelligence, and other to portant matters necessary to make up a first-che Political, Literary and Family newspaper. TERMS : One year, in advance,

Three copies to one address, in advance 4 Five copies to one address, and an extra copy to the person sending the club.

No names will be placed on our books man he cash accompanies the order Address, Dec. 12, 1866. GEORGE BERGNER Harrisburg.P.

TODEA.S LYDA.S BOOM FOR 1867.

The Fashion Magazine of the World

Literature, Fine Arts and Fashions. The mas magnificent steel engravings. Double Fashien plates. Wood engravings on every subject that can interest ladies. Crochet knitting netting embroidery, articles for the toilet, for the parlar the boudoir, and the kitchen. Everything, in fact, to make a complete Lady's Book. The l ady's favorite for thirty seven years M Magazine can compete with it. None attempt it Godey's Receipts for every department of household. These alone are worth the prim he book Model cottages (no other Magazine gives the with diagrams Drawing Lessons for the Young. Another me

ciality with Godey. . Original music worth $3 a year. Other Mag zines publish old worn out masie; but the ut scribers to Godey get it before the music stores. Gardening for Ladies. Another peculiarit vith Godey Fashions from Messrs A. T. Stewart & Co lew York, the millionaire merchants appear in Godey, the only Magazine that has them.

Ladies' Bonnets. We give more of them in a year than any other Magazine. In fact the La dy's book enables every lady to be her own be et maker.

MARION HARLAND, authoress of "Alone." "Hid den Path." - Moss Side." "Nemesis." and -M. riam." writes for Godey each month, and for no other Magazine. A new novel by her will be published in 1867. We have also retained all car old and favorite contributors.

TERMS: (from which to One copy, one year,		1.4		$3.00
Two coj ies. one year.	iner i	1.00		5.50
Three copies, on- year,	1.2.1		20	7.56
Four copies, one year,	140	1.1	162.1	18.91

New revelations are expected from the trial of Surratt. In this the public may, however, be disappointed; but there can be no doubt that, if he could be induced to confess, he could give a correct account of the assassination of Mr. Lincoln.

ANOTHER CONVERSION .- Marvelous as it may seem it is nevertheless a fact, that the Philadelphia Age is a convert to the new faith as propounded by the Chicago Times. It even goes further and heartily endorses the nomination and election of a negro to office as a member of the Massachusetts Legislature. It says: "For our own part we heartily indorse the nomination. We believe that the color of the skin is no badge of dishonor, and when qualified by education to hold the ballot, the man should be eligible to office. The nominee, we hear, is a man of sense and sagacity, and will do no discredit to the State." When will wonders cease?

DECISION IN A DESERTER CASE.-Two election officers of Nippenose township were tried at the recent Court in Lycoming county, for having refused to take the vote of Jas. S. Stewart, a deserter from the draft. The Jury rendered a verdict of, Not Guilty, The Law Judge of the county, Hon. A. Jordan, is a Democrat, and, we presume, charged the Jury that the officers had only obeyed their oaths, and that the State law had disqualified deserters from voting; and the Jury decided accordingly.

The Legislature of Alabama has rejected majority, and it is significant that Mr. Johngument by its enemies, possessed for the restoration and permanent establishment in that country of a republican form of government." A clearer account of the object of sending Gen. Sherman with Minister Campbell would have been desirable. Complaint is made that France has broken its compact with our Government, by declining to remove any of its troops in Mexico till next Spring. The United States have protested against this determination, and the President trusts that the Emperor will recede from his present ground. He regrets that the Alabama claims have not been settled by Great Britain, but thinks there is reason to expect our demands will be met in a friendly spirit. He condemns the Fenian invasion of Canada; thinks mercy should be extended to the prisoners ; thinks Congress ought to do something for the rights of American citizens abroad, and without referring to their wrongs at home, as illustrated by the New Orleans massacre and such trifles, closes with the customaty praver.

We have no heart to dwell upon this dreary, lifeless document. There is nothing that any loyal man can read with comfort or hope. Andrew Johnson is as much an enemy as when he menaced the nation from his White House steps ten months ago. He does not mean to help us in the work of reconstruction. The duty devolving upon Congress becomes more solemn and responsible, and we look to Congress with infinite yearning. Let there be kindness and patience, charity toward all, malice toward none, firmness and devotion ; but above all, a single hearted determination, come well or ill, despite Presidents or Cabinets, to labor without ceasing, until over this land there shall be peace and rest, liberty and protection, and all rights for all. -N. Y. Tribune.

Secretary McCulloch's statement of the public debt on Dec. 1st shows that, deducting $135,364,637 in the Treasury, the total is $2,549,631,238. The report does not compare these figures with those of last year. Nov. 30, 1865, less cash in the Treasury, the debt was $2,714,633,314, which shows a decrease of $165,002,076.

The reception of a satisfactory reply from the Emperor of France to the note of Mr. Seward, concerning the speedy evacuation of Mexico by the French, will relieve the anxiety which has been felt on the subject for the last week. The evacuation, it is said, is to be in good time.

According to a statement of the Senators elect from Colorado and Nebraska, their respective Territories show a population in Colorado of 90,000 and Nebraska 80,000. Likely both will be admitted as States at an early day.

In the Annual Report of the Director of the Mint, he refers to an improvement made on the mode of parting gold and silver, by which $70,000 a year will be saved.

The cause of temperance has found new life in nearly all of the principal cities in the Northern States.

Rev. J. R. Effinger, of Washington city. become a Unitarian.

which they had plotted three weeks before. Montgomery, it is hoped, will also be arrested.

Advertasementsset inlargetype, cuts, or out of plain style will be charged double price for space occupied

To insure attention, the CASH must accompa ny notices, as follows -All Cautions and Strays, with $1,50; Auditors'. Administrators' and Executors' notices, $2,50, each ; Dissolutions, $2; all other transient Notices at the same rates Other advertisemen's at $1,50 persquare, for 3 or less insertions. Ten lines (or less) count a square

UFFALO ROBES and Sleigh bells. just re D ceived and for sale cheap at MOSSOP'S. RAIN WANTED .- Corn, Rye and Oats want ed, for cash or trade, at DUFFALO OVER SHOES, 50 pairs, best quality just received and for sale at $2 a pair. at December 12, 1866. MOSSOP'S. December 12, 1866.

DATENT BROOMS, the best invention out, 43 dozen just received and for sale cheap at December 12,1866. MOSSOP'S

HEAP HOODS AND NUBIAS .- 25 dozen, of U the best quality of Wool Hoods and Nubias, selling at from 40 to 75 cents each, at MOSSOP'S Dec. 12,1866

$20 REWARD.-Was lost, in the bor-$20 ough of Clearfield, on Wednesday afternoon. Dec 5th a large sized black pocketbook, containing between $130 and $140 in bank notes mostly National currency. The above re ward will be paid to the finder up on leaving the said book and money at the Journal office, or returning the same to me at Woodland. Pa Dec. 12, 1866. HENRY ALBERT.

REGISTER'S NOTICE. -Notice is here-by given that the following accounts have been examined and passed by me,and remain filed of record in this office for the inspection of heirs. legatees.oreditors.and all others in any other way interested, and will be presented to the next Or-phans' Court of Clearfield county, to be held at the Court House, in the Borough of Clearfield, commencing on the 2d Monday of January, 1867. Partial account of James Hegarty, one of the executors of the last will and testament of R.B. Hegarty, late of Guelich tp., Clearfield co., dec'd Final account of Frederick Kohler, administra tor of all and singular the goods and chattels. rights and credits, which were of Caroline Trout wine. late of Brady tp . Clearfield county, dec'd Account of John Witherone, guardian of Lydia Hegarty one of the heirs of R. B. Hegarty. late Hegarty one of the heirs of R. B. Hegarty. Inte of Guelich township. Clearfield county deceased Account of John Witherone, guardian of Mary W. Hegarty, one of the heirs of R. B. Hegarty, late of Guelich tp. Clearfield county, deceased. Account of John Witherone, guardian of Sarah A. Hegarty, one of the heirs of R. B. Hegarty. late of Guelich twp., Clearfield county, deceased. Final account of Michael Shafer. administra-ter of all and singular the goods and chattlels. tor of all and singular the goods and chattels rights and credits which were of Frederick Sha-fer, late of Brady tp .Clearfield county, deceased. Final account of John Owens, administrator of all and singular the goo's and chattels, rights and credits which were of Peter Owens, late of the borough of Lumber-City, Clearfield county, dec'd Final account of John Crowell, administrator of all and singular the goods and chattels, rights and credits which were of Henry Crowell, late of Bradford township, Clearfield county, deceased.

The second partial testamentary account of G. L. Read, and James B. Graham, executors of Henry Loraine, deceased

The final account of James B. Graham and L. Read, Trustees of Martha E. Carlisle, under the will of Henry Loraine, deceased

The final account of James B. Graham and G. L. Reed, trustees of J. O. Loraine, under the will of Henry Loraine, deceased

The account of Thomas Campbell executor of the last will of J. H. Smith. late of Bell town ship. Clearfield county, deceased, filed by Jacob W. Campbell, the administrator of said Thomas Campbell, executor.

I G BARGER, Register Dec. 12, '66;

king six copies. Eight copies.one year, and an extra copy to the person getting up the club, ma king nine copies

Eleven copies. one year, and an extra copy to the person getting up the club.

making twelve copies, 27 56 All additions to clubs at club rates. Cip subscribers will be sent to any postoffice where the subscriber may reside. Godey's Lady's book and Arthur's Home Magazine will be sent, each one year. on receipt of $4.50 We have no club with a sty other Magazine or newspaper. The money must all be sent at one timely any of the clubs. Address, L.A. GODET, N.E. corner Sinth and Chestnut Streets. Dec. 13, 1866. Philadelphia

DITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL Prospectus for 1867.

By common consent the COMMERCIAL ranks find among the papers published in Western Pen-sylvania. Although but recently established its circulation and influence are already widely ex-tended. As a journal of enterprise in gathering the latest intelligence, and giving in each issue a large amount and great variety of reading at ier. it does not suffer in comparison with the best It is thoroughly indentified with the city in which it is published, and an extended circle around heyond the limits of our own State, when and the number of its readers and its influence and constantly increasing. An unflinching advocate of sound Union principles, it at the same time pays special attention not only to all matters general interest, but to topics of moment to the apitalist, the Laborer, the Agriculturist, the Me chanic, and the family circle. Its ample columns embrace a carefully prepar ed literary and valuable scientific miscellaty agricultural and horticultural information from he best sources

In giving the earliest and fullest news from a quarters, neither expense nor labor is spared and it has complete arrangements for extended and valuable commercial reports giving the sixe financial, dry goods, grocery, cattle and general market reports of Pittsburgh, and the latest re-ports by telegraph of the markets of the leading cities of the world; and in every department aims to keep pace with the foremost in the progress of improvements so conspicuous in journal ism at the present time Firmly established.it is confident in its position, and will enter upon the new year with new plans, well matured, looking to ind o increased strength and usefulness. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION : Daily Paper er year, $10 00 : Daily Paper, per week by cat riers and agents, 25 cts.

THE WEEKLY COMMERCIAL.

This is one of the best and cheapest papers pub-lished in the country, each issue being equal to a good sized volume. Carefully made up and spe-cially adapted to the wants of the weekly reader. its influence will always be healthy and impro-ing. One feature of it is an original sermion eving. One feature of it is an original serm ery week, prepared specially for its column. The fifty two discourses given in the course of year, will be worth many times the subscription price. In its columns it gives, also, a Weily Review of the Pittsburgh and other leading askets of the country, including a carefully prepa ed report of the Pittsburgh Family Matkel.

TERMS: Weekly paper, single copies, $2 in In clubs of 20, $1 50. (One copy gratis to the set er up of the club)

THE COMMERCIAL Now is the time to subscribe. Pittsburgh, Pa Dec. 12, 1866

ON HIS OWN HOOK

W. F. CLARK,

Would respectfully announce to the citizens of Clearfield and vicinity that he has taken the rooms, formerly occupied by P. A. Gaulia, is Graham's Row, immediately over H. F. Naujet inwelvy store. jewelry store, and will continue the tailering a siness in all its various branches. A full ason ment of cloths, cassimeres, and vesting", stantly on hand and made up to order or the shortest notice. Particular attention will be giv-en to cutting mens.' boys.' and childrens' cloth ing, in the most fushionable styles. Give him a call. [Dec. 5, '66.] W. F. CLARY.

FURS-A large stock of furs. closing out ve cheap, at >