

RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL

CLEARFIELD, PA., DEC. 12, 1866.

Tyrone and Clearfield Railroad. Train leaves Tyrone at 8:55 a.m. Arrives at Philipsburg at 11:00 a.m. Arrives at Philipsburg at 1:20 p.m. Arrives at Tyrone at 3:00 p.m.

RELIGIOUS.—Divine services will be held next Sabbath, in Clearfield, as follows: By Rev. Chambers in the Episcopal church, morning and evening; By Rev. Archer in the Presbyterian church, morning and evening; By Rev. Monroe in the Methodist church in the evening; By Rev. Semberow in the Baptist church in the evening; By Rev. Harrison in the Lutheran church, in the morning.

Where to attend School. The State Normal School at Edinboro is a place where sound, practical instruction is given by Professional teachers.

POCKET-BOOK LOST.—On Wednesday, Dec. 5th, Henry Albert, of Woodland, lost his pocket-book, in this borough, containing between $130 and $140. The finder will be liberally rewarded. See advertisement.

HORSE THIEVES ABOUT.—On Wednesday night, Dec. 5th, a fine dark bay horse was stolen from the stable of J. & J. Holden, in Pike township, this county. A reward of $50 is offered for the return of the horse, and an additional $25 for the apprehension of the thief.

STORE ROBBERED.—We learn that, one night last week, the store of John Ferguson, in Lumber-city, was entered by some unknown persons, and goods valued at $700 stolen therefrom. About $500 worth of the goods have since been found secreted under the Methodist church. Suspicions are entertained against one or two persons, but no arrests have been made so far as we could ascertain.

THE WEATHER.—During last week, the atmosphere was quite mild and spring-like, in this region. Some rain fell, which had the effect of making our roads very muddy, and in some places almost impassable. On Sunday night, however, old Boreas swept down over us again, and on Monday morning the ground was froze quite firm and white with snow, and cold and high winds have prevailed since then.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.—There seems to be considerable difference of opinion, by the newspapers throughout the country, respecting the President's Message—some alleging that he had said too much, whilst others contend that he said too little. But the people of Clearfield are of the opinion that he should have closed it with the following most important announcement: "Mossop sells the cheapest goods in Clearfield county. Buy all your goods at Mossop's!"

IS THIS SO?—In the Brookville Republican of Dec. 5th, we find the following item of "news": "We learn that the bones of a man were recently found near Luthersburg branch of the Sandy Lick Creek, Clearfield county, supposed by some to be those of a man named Himes, who suddenly disappeared in that neighborhood some six or seven years ago. It is the opinion of many that Himes was foiled dead with, on account of his money, or by reason of serious difficulties between him and some of his neighbors. His friends are supposed to live in the vicinity of Williamsport, Pa."

And the Bellefonte Press, of Dec. 7th, contains the following: "The people of Osceola were considerably startled on Saturday last by the finding of a human skeleton, about two miles from that place. From appearances it is supposed the body had been there for a period of five or six years. The bone of one leg still remained in the boot, which had been gnawed by wild animals as the marks of their teeth were plainly visible in the leather. There have been various surmises as to the identity of the body, none of them however prove satisfactory. This is the second or third human skeleton which has been found in that locality within the past three years."

"Will not some one of our Luthersburg and Osceola friends inform us whether the foregoing are facts? If the statements are correct, they prove conclusively that "to get news you must go abroad!"

AN ITEM FOR ALE-DRINKERS.—Not long ago the spizot of a large vat in one of the large breweries in one of our large cities, where they make the celebrated "XXX Ale," became obstructed. It was therefore necessary to draw off the ale in the vat, either by a siphon or some other means, in order that the cause of the obstruction might be ascertained and got rid of. The bottom of the vat being laid bare, the cause was at once discovered. There were about four bushels of drowned rats, in various stages of decomposition. The unfortunate creatures had fallen into the vat, and had become "drowned rats."
