RELIGIOUS.—Divine services will be held next Sabbath, in Clearfield, as follows: By Rev. Chambers in the Episcopal church, morning and evening; By Rev. Archer in the Presbyterian church, morning and evening; By Rev. Monroe in the Methodist church in the morning; By Rev. Sembover in the Baptist church in the evening;

SHERIFF FAUST advertises a number of properties for sale.

SCHOOL DIRECTORS should read the new advertisements in to-days JOURNAL.

DAVID JOHNSON, publishes a caution in our advertising columns to-day, to which the attention of the reader is directed.

HARLEY & SONS, give notice to those indebted to them for castings, that their accounts have been left with John W. Shugart, Esq., for settlement.

LOCAL OFFICERS.—The election for Borough and Township officers will take place, in this county, on Friday, Dec. 28th, this year. Persons interested should bear this fact in mind.

GOODY'S LADY'S BOOK.—The January number of this highly interesting Lady's Magazine, is already out, and is truly a most magnificent number. Now is the time to send in your subscriptions for 1867. For terms, etc., see advertisement in another part of to-day's Journal.

FIRE.—On Saturday, Dec. 15th, at about 10 o'clock, the roof of the residence of Alex. Irvin, Esq., in this borough, was discovered to be on fire. On the alarm being given our citizens hastened to the spot, and soon succeeded in extinguishing the flames, by the prompt application of water. The loss is small, and covered by insurance.

DEEP SNOW.—On Sunday last, Dec. 16th, we had a heavy fall of snow in this region. The snow commenced falling in the morning, before daylight, and continued to descend throughout the day, and by evening it had reached a depth of nearly 17 inches. This is the heaviest body of snow that has fallen in this region, at one time, for a number of years.

SEVERELY INJURED.—On Thursday evening, Dec. 13th, as Mr. E. Spackman, of this borough, was driving down street in a one-horse wagon, the animal took fright, and jumped aside, broke the shafts, and at the same time ran the vehicle against a post, throwing Mr. S. on the side-walk with great force, and inflicting several large cuts on his head. The scene was a rather frightful one, and the wonder is that Mr. S. was not more seriously injured.

TRIAL LIST.—The following causes have been set down for trial at the next term of our Courts, commencing on Monday, Jan. 14th, 1867:

- FIRST WEEK. Huntzberger vs. Feister. Patton vs. Mays, No. 15, June 1865. Patton vs. Mays, No. 22, June 1865. Rouch vs. White, No. 47, March 1866. SECOND WEEK. Kratzer vs. Hagan, No. 59, Jan. 1861. Wallace vs. Askey, No. 89, Jan. 1863. Genni vs. Renaud, No. 75, June 1863. Fulmer vs. Patchin, No. 2, Sept. 1863. Jordan vs. Blanchard, No. 17, Sept. 1863. England vs. DuBois, No. 51, Jan. 1865. Com. vs. Breth, No. 60, March 1864. Sankey vs. Fisher, No. 42, Sept. 1864. Biddleman vs. Snyder, No. 40, June 1865. Buttersbaugh vs. Wagouer, No. 110, Ju. '65. Trezinylny vs. Brenner, No. 42, Sept. 1865. Brooks vs. Thompson, No. 49, Jan. 1866. Beyers vs. Thompson, No. 46, Jan. 1866. French vs. Schoonover, No. 174, Jan. 1866. Hertzler vs. Thompson, No. 237, Jan. 1866. Deitrick vs. Thompson, No. 129, Mar. 1866. Vanderpool vs. Robison, No. 76, June, '66. Vanderpool vs. Shoof, No. 77, June, '66.

THE BUSINESS MEN.—There are comparatively few business men who understand the art of advertising. Some men advertise for a short time after they commence business, and think that is sufficient; others omit advertising after they have established a flourishing business by its aid. From the moment a house ceases to advertise, however large its reputation and standing, it begins to decline. The changes are so rapid in this country, the public mind is so constantly occupied by new applicants for their attention, that to be out of the papers, where everybody seeks information on every subject, is to be forgotten. The press is daily becoming a necessity, and its usefulness as an advertising medium is as constantly increasing. No man is wise or just to himself, who undertakes to do business without availing himself of its advantages. A blacksmith would be looked upon as foolish, if he were to pile coal on his forge, apply the fire, and neglect to blow. The merchant who fills his store, or the tradesman who opens his shop, and fails to keep the fact before the people, is equally short-sighted. The trade may come, but it will be slow indeed. Be up and doing; show people that you are at work—striving to succeed, and we warrant you hard times will never knock very long or loud at your door. Providence helps those who help themselves, and the largest crops come from the best tilled fields every time.

GEO. W. GEARHART, offers $100 reward for the return of a mare and thief. See advertisement.

CHANGE OF BASE.—A change of base having recently taken place—snow instead of mud being the predominating element under foot—one half the sleds in this vicinity now seem to be hauling goods to Mossop's store, while the other half are engaged in hauling them away again. The reason: Mossop sells the cheapest goods in the county. Buy your goods at Mossop's.

"CHRISTMAS."—Before another Journal will reach our readers Christmas will be here, and we now wish all a "merry" time, and may all be blessed with an abundance of the good things usually prepared for the occasion. But, while you are blessed with plenty, you should not forget those who are less fortunate—the poor and the needy. A small gift bestowed upon one of these unfortunate ones, accompanied by a kind word and a pleasant smile, who can tell its influence for good, or the amount of joy and happiness it may cause. Reader, think of this! and while you are enjoying a "merry Christmas," may you also be the means of making some one of God's less fortunate creatures happy.

United States Treasurer Spinner, on Dec. 11th, received a letter from a rebel agent in Europe, enclosing a certificate of deposit, of the "Confederate Government" of $400. He stated in his letter inasmuch as no such Government was in existence, the money belonged to the United States. Gen. Spinner gave orders to have it sold and the proceeds turned over to the treasury.

MARRIED: On Thursday, Dec. 13th, 1866, by J. H. Sloppy, Esq., Mr. Wm. HOOPER, of Pike tp., and Miss ELIZABETH A. M'KEE, of Knox tp., Clearfield county, Pa. On Thursday, Nov. 15th, 1866, by Rev. James M. Smith, Mr. JOSEPH MILLER, and Miss POLLY ANN BARGER, both of Bradford township.

HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH FOR 1867. GEO BERGNER, PROPRIETOR. As the approaching session of the Legislature will be one of unusual interest, to the people of Pennsylvania—owing to the fact that a United States Senator is to be elected, and other matters of great importance will be acted on by the legislative bodies of the Commonwealth—and a change will take place in the Executive Department of the State by the inauguration of Governor John W. Geary as Governor—the attention of the public is invited to the following Prospectus of the HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH for 1867:

THE DAILY TELEGRAPH. Now the largest daily paper in Central or Southern Pennsylvania, besides containing a full report of the proceedings of the Legislature, and a truthful account of affairs at the Capital, will give copious telegraphic reports of all important events that transpire throughout the country, a synopsis of Congressional proceedings and other matters at Washington, and will be furnished by mail on the following terms: One year in advance, $7 00. Three months, in advance, 3 50. For the Session, 2 00. No subscriptions taken for less than three months.

THE WEEKLY TELEGRAPH Will contain a resume of the important business transacted in Congress and the Legislature. Telegraphic reports which appear in the Daily, commercial and financial intelligence, and other important matters necessary to make up a first-class Political, Literary and Family newspaper. TERMS: One year, in advance, $2 00. Three copies to one address, in advance, 4 00. Five copies to one address, and an extra copy to the person sending the club, 7 50. No names will be placed on our books unless the cash accompanies the order. Address, GEO. BERGNER, Harrisburg, Pa. Dec. 12, 1866.

DOBBINS' ELECTRIC SOAP.

SAVES TIME! SAVES MONEY! SAVES LABOR! SAVES CLOTHES! SAVES WOMEN! AND ALL GROCERS SELL IT. It is used by cutting into small shavings and dissolving in hot water, then soak the clothes five to ten minutes, and a little hand rubbing will make them as clean as hours of hard machine rubbing would do, with ordinary soap, and the most delicate fabric receive no injury. We can refer to thousands of families who are using it, and who could not be persuaded to do without it.

Manufactured only by DOBBINS & LOVE, Wholesale Office: 107 SOUTH FIFTH STREET, PHILADELPHIA. October 31, 1866-67.

NEW FALL GOODS. C. KRATZER & SON, Are just opening at the Old Stand above the Academy. A large and splendid assortment of Fall Goods, which they are selling at greatly reduced prices.

Particular attention is invited to their stock of CARPETS, (Cottage, common Ingrains, and superior Ingrain, and Brussels.) Floor and Table Cloths, Window Shades and Wall Papers. Special pains has been taken in the selection of Ladies' Dress Goods, White Goods, Embroideries and Millinery goods.

PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL. Prospectus for 1867. By common consent the COMMERCIAL ranks first among the papers published in Western Pennsylvania. Although but recently established its circulation and influence are already widely extended.

As a journal of enterprise in gathering the latest intelligence, and giving in each issue a large amount and great variety of reading matter, it does not suffer in comparison with the best. It is thoroughly identified with the city in which it is published, and an extended circle around and beyond the limits of our own State, where the number of its readers and its influence are constantly increasing. An unflinching advocate of sound Union principles, it at the same time pays special attention not only to all matters of general interest, but to topics of moment to the capitalist, the laborer, the agriculturist, the mechanic, and the family circle. Its ample columns embrace a carefully prepared literary and valuable scientific miscellany, agricultural and horticultural information from the best sources. In giving the earliest and fullest news from all quarters, neither expense nor labor is spared; and it has complete arrangements for extended and valuable commercial reports, giving the stock, financial, dry goods, grocery, cattle and general market reports of Pittsburgh, and the latest reports by telegraph of the markets of the leading cities of the world; and in every department it aims to keep pace with the foremost in the progress of improvements so conspicuous in journalism at the present time. Firmly established, it is content in its position, and will enter upon the new year with new plans, well matured, looking to increased strength and usefulness. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION: Daily Paper, per year, $10 00; Daily Paper, per week by carriers and agents, 25 cts.

THE WEEKLY COMMERCIAL. This is one of the best and cheapest papers published in the country, each issue being equal to a good sized volume. Carefully made up and specially adapted to the wants of the weekly reader, its influence will always be healthy and improving. One feature of it is an original sermon every week, prepared specially for its columns. The fifty-two discourses given in the course of a year, will be worth many of the subscription price. In its columns it gives, also, a Weekly Review of the Pittsburgh and other leading markets of the country, including a carefully prepared report of the Pittsburgh Family Market, a sure and safe guide to producers. TERMS: Weekly paper, single copies, $2 00; In clubs of 20, $1 50. (One copy gratis to the getter up of the club.) Now is the time to subscribe. Address, THE COMMERCIAL, Pittsburgh, Pa. Dec. 12, 1866.

A GREAT DISCOVERY.—One of the greatest and most useful discoveries in medical science was made by the celebrated Dr. J. Dumas, of Paris, Chief Physician to the Imperial Infirmary of France, in 1862. Those who have been afflicted with the painful disease known as the Piles, and effectually cured by the use of Dr. DUMAS' FRENCH PILE SALVE, cannot speak too highly of the benefits conferred upon them by the use of this certain remedy. It has never before been known to fail in effecting a permanent cure in a single case. In this respect it surpasses all other medicines of the kind. It will do just what it is recommended for; if not, the money will be refunded. One or two boxes is sufficient to effect a permanent cure in four or six days, if the directions on the box are followed. Price one and two dollars per box, according to size. Sent by Mail or Express to any part of the United States or Canada. Sold by Druggists generally. Liberal discount made to the trade. Sole Proprietors and Manufacturers for the United States and Canada. $500.00 REWARD will be paid in greenbacks to any person who has used Dr. Dumas' Pile Salve according to directions and has not been cured. Address, D. S. DUNHAM & CO., Williamsport, Pa. Dec. 5th, 1866-ly.

MANHOOD! HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED.—Just published a new edition of Dr. CUTLER'S CURE FOR CONSUMPTION (without medicine) of Spermatorrhoea, or seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, &c.; also, Consumption, Epilepsy, and Fits, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance. Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.

The celebrated author, in this admirable, easy, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequence of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife—pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter how long his complaint has existed, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land. Sent, under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address postpaid, or sent by mail, with its postage stamps. Also, Dr. Cutler's "Marriage Guide," price 25 cents. Address the publishers, CHAS. J. C. BOWEN & CO., 127 Bowery, New York. Oct. 10 '66—ly. Post Office box No. 4,586.

DR. SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP. This great medicine cured Dr. J. H. Schenck, the proprietor, of Pulmonary Consumption, when it had assumed its most formidable aspect, and when speedy death appeared to be inevitable. His physicians pronounced his case incurable, when he commenced the use of this simple but powerful remedy. His health was restored in a very short time, and no return of the disease has been apprehended, for all the symptoms quickly disappeared, and his present weight is more than two hundred pounds.

Since his recovery he has devoted his attention exclusively to the cure of consumption, and the diseases which are usually complicated with it, and the cures effected by his medicine have been very numerous and truly wonderful. Dr. Schenck makes professional visits to several of the larger cities weekly, where he has a large concourse of patients, and it is truly astonishing to see poor consumptives who have been lifted out of their carriages, and in a few months healthy, robust persons. Dr. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Sea-Weed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills are generally all required in curing consumption. Full directions accompany each, so that any one can take them without seeing Dr. Schenck, but when it is convenient it is best to see him. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer his fee is three dollars.
