THE CARRIER returns his thanks to all readers of the Journal, who liberally respended to his call on New Year's day.

THANKS .-- We tender our thanks to Gov ernor Curtin, and to Wien Forney, of the Harrisburg Telegraph, for early copies of the Governor's Message.

N. Y. TRIBUNE. - In another column will be found the prospectus of the Tribune, to which we direct the attention of those in want of a first class political journal.

"BECKIE;" your communication is rewived. The three first verses are good, but the other two are not; besides, your name hence will not appear.

week of prayer is being observed in this place. On Monday evening services were had in the Lutheran church, and on Tuesday evening in the Methodist; and this evening (Wednesday) there will be services in the Presbyterian church, and on Thursday evening in the Baptist.

IN LUCK!-Meek, of the Bellefonte Watchman, acknowledges the receipt of four turkeys, as Christmas presents. Like the boy fishing, if we had got the one we anticipated, and three more, we would have been even with I eek, a fact that shows that our pstrons are nearly as liberal as those of our Bellefonte cotemporary.

LEG BROKEN.-On Friday, Jan. 4th, Jerry Dudy, an Irishman who was working on Leavy's log job, on Huston tp., had his leg broken, above he knee, by a descending og, whilst he was engaged in repairing the slide. The unfortunate man was brought to this place, had the fracture reduced, and doing as well as could be expected from the nature of his injuries.

FATAL ACCIDENT. -On Friday, December 27th, 1866, John L. Gearhart, son of John Gearhart, of Decatur township, this county, met with a fatal accident. Young Gearhart and a Mr. Mease were in the woods cutting down a tree, which lodged in falling, and whilst Gearhart was trying to dislodge the same, it swung round, knocked him down and fell across his body, crushing him to death instantly.

Serious Frosting. -On Friday, Dec. 25th, 1866, a young man named Andrew Snyder, whilst engaged at cutting a timberroad, near Grahamton, in this county, had his feet so badly frozen that, it is thought, amputation of both will become necessary. years in the army, and escaped without serious injury, it seems like a hard fate to be now thus maimed for life.

Ice. -The hard-freezing weather which we have been experiencing here for several weeks, has frozen over the River and smaller streams, and for some days a brisk business has been done in the way of filling the | side. ice-houses in our borough. The quality of the ice is most excellent-indeed, we think we can't be beat, either in "quantity or quality," by any section of country that does | dead vet. not lie in much closer proximity to the North Pole than ours.

LAWRENCE TOWNSHIP ELECTION. -The following persons were returned, as elected, in Lawrence township, on Dec. 28th: Justice of the Peace, Levi F. Irvin: Constable, Taylor Rowles; Assessor, William P. Read; Assistant Assessors, Clark Brown, A. H. Shaw; Judge of Election, H. F. Rowles; Inspectors, Lewis C. Bloom, P. A. Owens; Sapervisors, Elisha Ardry, S.B. Jordan John Orr, S. H. Shaffner; School Directors, Taylor Rowles, Hugh Orr; Overseers of Poor, J. W. Thompson, Matthew Read; Auditor, A. C. Tate; Clerk, R. H. Shaw; Treasurer, Wm. A. Read.

More "VARMINTS" ABOUT .- On Tuesday. Dec 25th, Mr. J. W. Powell, of Bradford township, killed a large catamount, sear McBride's. Having discovered the foot prints of the animal, he followed them for a short distance, when they suddenly ceased. After looking around a little, he again found them twenty-seven feet from their termination, the "varmint" having leaped that distance for the purpose of catching a rabbit, a portion of which was still lying on the ground, the approach of her pursuer having evidently caused her catamountship to abandon her hasty repast. Mr. P. then followed the animal to its lair, where he succeeded in shooting it.

AGRICULTURAL MEETING. - Notice is a hereby given that there will be a meeting of the Clearfield County Agricultural Society on Monday evening next, January 14th, 1867, in the Court House, for the purpose of electing a board of officers for the ensuing year. By order of the President. I. G. BARGER, Secretary.

THE BOROUGH ELECTION. -On Friday, Dec. 28th, the following named persons, were returned as elected to the several offices named: Justice of the peace, John W. Shugart; Constable, John McClellan; Assessor, James T. Leonard; Assistant Assessors, Wm. Bigler, Jas. B. Graham; School Directors, T. J. McCullough and D. F. Etzweiler, for 3 years, and G. W. Gearhart, for 1 year; Overseers of Poor, Frank Short and J. L. Leavy; Judge of election, James Wrigley; Inspectors, Jas. A. Moore and C. D. Watson; Auditor, C. B. Sandford; Burgess, W. W. Betts; Town Council, I. G. Barger, L. R. Merrell; High Constable, Andrew Shugart.

TO DIRECTORS.—There has, perhaps, been no time since the establishment of the Common School system, when a meeting of Directors of the county, was more needed than at present. It has, therefore, been considered practicable, to hold a Director's Convention, on Tuesday evening of January Court, at the office of T.

The school system has reached a crisis, in this county, which we can in no other way so effectually meet.
