RELIGIOUS.—Divine services will be held next Sabbath, in Clearfield, as follows:
 By Rev. Archer in the Presbyterian church, morning and evening;
 By Rev. Semblower in the Baptist church in the morning;
 By Rev. Chambers in the Episcopal church, morning and evening;
 By Rev. Harrison in the Lutheran church, in the morning;
 By Rev. Monroe in the Methodist church in the evening.

LOGAN ACADEMY.—This institution, located at Bells Mills, Blair county, Pa., is represented as a first class and flourishing school. Read the advertisement published to-day.

LAND SCRIP FOR SALE.—In another column we publish the advertisement of J. M. Campbell, Surveyor General of Penna., offering for sale a large amount of Agricultural Land Scrip, to which we direct the attention of all who desire to invest in Western lands.

HOUSE BURNED.—We learn that a house belonging to G. D. Goodfellow, of Lawrence township, and occupied by Ed. Brooks, was destroyed by fire, together with most of the household goods, on Saturday, March 2d. The fire originated from a stove pipe. Loss about five hundred dollars. No insurance.

THE WEATHER, ETC.—During the latter part of last week the weather was mild and warm, and, in consequence, our lumbermen commenced rafting in their timber. On Sunday, however, a change took place in the atmosphere, and on Monday several inches of snow fell, which had the effect of stopping rafting operations, altogether. But, we presume, they will resume their work again in a few days, as the air is moderating at this time.

SOMETHING FOR THE LADIES.—Here is a recipe which our lady readers will find really the thing, and quite delightful. It is called "Apple Snow." Try it: Put twelve good tart apples in cold water, and set them on a slow fire. When soft drain off the water, strip the skins from the apples, core and lay them in a large glass dish. Beat the whites of twelve eggs to a stiff froth, put a half pound of white sugar to the apples, beat them, and then add the eggs. Beat the whole to a stiff snow, and turn them into a dessert dish.

THE DEPOT.—The question of the location of the Railroad depot in this place, has been somewhat agitated during the past week. The proposition to locate it on the public ground, in the north end of the Borough, seems to meet with much favor, on account of its eligible situation—being located on the bank of the river, and near the business portion of the town. This piece of ground has never benefited any one, except a few individuals, and we see no good reason why it should not be appropriated to some general public good. That such would be the case, were the Railroad depot located thereon, we presume few will deny. At least, the question of giving the ground for that purpose is worthy the earnest consideration of all who really desire the improvement of our Borough, and an increase of business within its limits.

DUTY OF TOWNSHIP AUDITORS.—It may not be generally known that a general law of the last session of the Legislature, approved April 11, 1866, requires the bounty accounts of every district to be carefully audited by the Township Auditors, and "prepare a condensed statement of the condition of these finances, and publish the same, at the cost of the district, for three successive weeks, in two papers." It not only requires this duty to be performed by the Township Auditors, but imposes a penalty of fifty dollars upon each Auditor who refuses to comply, one-half of which fine goes to the prosecutor, and the other half to the school fund of the district. It provides, also, that the Auditors shall notify the School Directors or other parties having the disbursement of the bounty funds, to appear before them at such time as the Auditors shall fix, for the purpose of enabling the Auditors to close up the bounty accounts of the township for the fiscal year.

MR. SWOOPES LECTURE.—As previously announced, the Lecture on "Chemical Force," by H. B. Swoope, Esq., was delivered in the Court House, on Tuesday evening, February 26th. Mr. Swoope's remarks were terse, beautiful, eloquent, explicit and eminently edifying to his hearers. The chemical experiments, in illustration of his subject, were truly grand, magnificent, brilliant, and highly entertaining to the large and appreciative audience in attendance. Mr. Swoope surely has great reason to be flattered at the favorable result of his experiments, as a like general success is seldom obtained in such a multiplicity of scientific elucidation, as on this occasion. Pecuniarily, too, the lecture was a success; the net proceeds being about $150.00, to be divided between the Methodist and Presbyterian churches, now in course of erection in this place—in aid of which objects the lecture was delivered, at the request of a number of our most prominent and influential citizens.

OUR RAILROAD.—We understand the Messrs. Collins are already on the ground with a large force of workmen, constructing shanties preparatory to commencing the work of grading the road between this place and Phillipsburg.

AMERICAN ZINC.—There are only three places in the United States where sheet and bar zinc is manufactured, and one of these places is Bethlehem, Pa., from ore taken from the mines at Friedensville, Lehigh county. Our zinc is preferable in purity to the imported article, but cannot compete with it in price, and is mostly made into paint. The total consumption of bar zinc in this country is estimated at ten thousand tons every year. That of sheet zinc is much greater.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.—The question of calling a Convention to amend the Constitution of Pennsylvania, is being discussed and earnestly recommended by a number of leading journals in the State. One of the main objects is, to guard against legislative corruption by an increase in the number of Senators and Representatives, and electing the latter by single districts, instead of counties as at present. The project is one deserving of the serious attention of all who have the interests of the commonwealth at heart.

A STRANGE ACCOUNT OF THE EFFECT OF A BALL RECEIVED IN BATTLE.—In the battle of Franklin, November, 1864, Captain George G. Biddulph, of Co. K, Thirtieth Illinois Volunteers, was hit by something, supposed at the time to be a piece of shell, from its effects upon the Captain's head. His left eye was entirely destroyed, his left ear deafened, his jaw so fractured to this day it is impossible for him to open his mouth only partially, his cheek bone fractured, a hole made upon the left side of the nose where something had come into the head, one large tooth on upper jaw split in two and half of it gone, and another large double tooth turned half round. He resigned his commission, returned home, and, although suffering from his wound, exhibited a true soldier's bravery in submitting without a murmur to his misfortune. On the morning of December 25, 1866, he had a sensation in the head—to use his own expression—"as though something had given way all at once," and the hearing was instantly restored to his left ear, the sound of ordinary conversation in the room seeming like a shout at the top of the voice. This feeling became less painful, until January 26th, 1867, when he felt a severe pain in the throat and raised considerable blood, and, after a few hours of suffering, coughed up a rough and battered once ball, which was as ragged as cinders from the furnace, and measured over an inch in width. Upon an examination of the throat, it was found that this ragged mass of lead had cut its way from behind the throat into the throat, about an inch below the palate. Were the ball smooth, the wonder would not be great, but the ball is battered and torn with sharp points and edges, until it has lost all resemblance to its original shape.

An exchange thinks President Johnson rivals a dancer in standing on one toe—the veto.

A Kentucky paper says Lexington has "a population of nine thousand persons with eleven souls."

There are twenty tanneries in Milwaukee, which together produce nearly two millions of dollars worth of leather.

A force is organizing at Leavenworth under General Hancock to operate against the Indians in Kansas and Nebraska.

The hotels of Richmond have been thronged, since the passage of the Reconstruction bill, with excited persons, who are for fighting again rather than comply with it.

In trouble—the Johnson Democracy, because they fear he will make another swing round the circle, dropping them in thorny and barren wastes, where not an office is to be had!

A sub-inspector of revenue at Williamsburg N. Y. has received $10,000 in presents from a single distillery which he was appointed to watch. He pocketed his watch and watched his pocket, too.

The Stuyvesant pear tree, planted by Governor Stuyvesant, some two hundred years ago, at the corner of what is now Third Avenue and Thirteenth Streets, New York, was destroyed a few days ago by a vehicle coming in collision with it.

Saulsbury, U. S. Senator from Delaware, has proven himself a drunkard so hopeless to reform, that a resolution for his expulsion from the Senate will be offered before the adjournment. He signed a pledge a few weeks since, and was drunk in ten hours thereafter.

One of the fathers in the family of West Pittsfield, Mass., Shakers, came to the conclusion, last week, that it is not good for man to be alone, and acting upon the new revelation, he deserted the brotherhood in company with a blooming Shakeress, young enough to be his granddaughter.

"Squeezing" the girls rates at a high figure in the Oil Regions. Mr. Stephen Hedglin, for a little bit of obtrusive affection, in putting his arm about a lady's waist, pays a fine of twenty dollars, by order of the Venango criminal court. Stephen is evidently inexperienced in such matters; he didn't go the right way about it.

A young man named B. S. Ayers, residing in Dallas, Texas, was literally buried alive, on the 12th Feb. He had gone down a deep well to recover a bucket which had got loose from its fastenings, and while at the bottom, the well caved in covering him to the depth of about fifty feet. It took two days to dig him out and recover his body.

Reverdy Johnson is one of the first constitutional lawyers in the country, and did not hesitate to vote for the reconstruction bill. Among the many Republicans are many sound lawyers, not one of whom questions the constitutionality of the measure, nevertheless the Supreme Court is relied on in advance to reverse the action of Congress, so much has that court come to be regarded as a political machine.

Pennsylvania Items.

JEFFERSON COUNTY.—Scott Smith, of Young township, and J. G. Hughes, of Punxsutawney, both aged about 15 years, have been arrested on a charge of robbing the mail, which Smith is employed to carry between Punxsutawney and Kittanning. They are both in Kittanning jail, awaiting the action of the U. S. authorities. Chase, one of the murderers of Mrs. McDonald, is still at large.

WASHINGTON COUNTY.—Robert Folger, indicted for the murder of Robert Dinsmore, was tried at the February term of Court. The case was submitted to the jury on Tuesday night, Feb. 25d. The murder was committed on the night of December 14th, by Folger, and a young man named Montgomery. The two called at Mr. Dinsmore's house, about four miles from Washington, and called him out, when he was seized and murdered. The jury found Folger "guilty of murder in the first degree." Wm. Montgomery, the son of a prominent lawyer of Washington, was also tried as an accessory in the murder, but as Folger had refused to testify against him, it is not likely he will be convicted.

FAYETTE COUNTY.—On Wednesday, February 27th, Gilbert Congenour, living on Water street, Connellsville, was weighing a quantity of rock powder to be used in blasting sand rock for Smith & Dennison, at their works near town. He had about nine pounds of powder in a bucket in a small room, within about ten feet of a coal fire—his family, except the youngest child, being in the room or at the door, when, without any apparent cause, the powder exploded. Mr. Congenour, wife and two children were in the room, and were horribly burned; two other children, who were just outside the door, were severely burned, one of them being struck by the door (which was blown off the hinges) and cut severely on the forehead. A stick of wood had been thrown on the fire, and it is supposed that a spark flew into the powder and caused the explosion. The ignition of such a large quantity of powder shook the houses in the neighborhood, and caused much excitement. How any of the family escaped with life is miraculous. Their sufferings are intense, but there are hopes of the ultimate recovery of all. The citizens are doing everything in their power to alleviate the sufferings of the family.

BODY FOUND.—On Sunday, the 17th of February, the body of a man was found in the Ohio river, near Sistersville. The body had evidently been in the water for several days; the deceased was a middle aged man, about five and a half feet high; black hair; he had on a black coat, black pants, and a black-barred shirt; in his pockets were found a small day book and twenty cents in money. His head was badly bruised, and the half of one of his feet was cut off. The remains, when found, were fast in a portion of a bridge which had been caught in the river. It was thought probable that he had been on the bridge when it fell and was washed away. The remains were taken to Sistersville and interred. The above may be the body of the man supposed to have been lost in the destruction, by the ice gorge, of the Mahoning bridge.

MAN DROWNED.—On Sunday, the 17th of February, the dead body of a man was found in the Allegheny river, near Natrona, about twenty-five miles above Pittsburgh, by some men who were crossing the river in a skiff. The body had apparently been in the water for some time. The deceased was of medium size, and had dark hair and sandy whiskers. He wore striped woolen pants, a gray flannel shirt, blue-barred woolen vest and heavy boots. He had lost one front tooth from the upper jaw, and the right eye was so much swollen as to lead to the opinion that the deceased was blind. There was nothing found in his pockets but a key and comb, and nothing could be ascertained which would lead to the identification of the body.

MARRIED.
 At Osceola, on Feb. 28th, 1867, by W. S. Wells, Esq., Mr. W. G. ROGERS, of Michigan, and Miss MARY HICKS, of Decaturville, Clearfield county, Pa.

DIED.
 On Feb. 24th, 1867, JANE OWENS, of Knox township, aged 70 years, 11 months and 12 days.

On Sunday, March 3d, 1867, of consumption, Miss ANNA NEWSON, of Clearfield borough, aged about 23 years.

On Sunday, Feb. 24th, 1867, of pneumonia, Mrs. PASCALINE SMITH, wife of Josiah W. Smith, Esq., of this Borough, in the 57th year of her age. Mrs. Smith was possessed of the many virtues that make up a truly Christian character, and was beloved by all who intimately knew her. She was the daughter of Ferdinand Huxthall, and grand-daughter of Peter A. Karthaus, one of the first settlers in this county. Mrs. Smith's sudden death is deeply lamented by her large circle of friends and acquaintances.

On Monday morning, March 4th, 1867, Mrs. MARIA MOSSOP, mother of Richard Mossop, Esq., of this place, in the 73d year of her age. Mrs. Mossop was a very amiable, affectionate, and Christian lady, and greatly beloved by her acquaintances. Her death is sincerely mourned by her family and friends.
