RELIGIOUS. - Divine services will be held next Sabbath, in Clearfield, as follows: By Rev. Archer in the Presbyterian church, morning and evening; By Rev. Sembower in the Baptist church by Rev. Chambers in the Episcopal church, morning and evening

New Music.-C. M. Tremaine, No. 481 Broadway, New York, has favored as with the following new music: "Where have the Beautiful gone?" Duette, Poetry and music by James G. Clarke, price 35 cents; and "Juvenile party," Gallop, by J. De Jasienski price 40 cents. Sent on receipt of price.

Logs. -We noticed yesterday (Tuesday) a large quantity of logs floating past this place, most of which belong to Mr. Blanchard. We understand that Mr. B. will have his "drive" out of Anderson creek, and in the river, in the course of eight or ten days. "Phil" is always ready for a flood, and hence always gets his logs to market.

THE RIVER .- Owing to the quantity of rain and snow that has fallen during the past two days, and the mildness of the air, the water in the river has reached a good rafting stage. The prospect for a favorable niting flood is excellent, as large quantities of snow still remain in the forests-the melting of which, under a mild air, will keep the streams up for some time to come.

THE WEATHER. - For several days past the weather has been very unpleasant in this region. On Monday night snow commenced falling, but it soon assumed the form of sleet and rain, which continued to fall in moderate quantities throughout Monday night and the greater part of Tuesday. This morning-air cool, with clouds, and a tog rising indicating a general thaw. The streams are high, and the roads becoming very muddy.

RAFTING. - Notwithstanding the unpleasantness of the weather, some of our lumbermen have been at work on the river, during the past eight days, but have made comparatively little progress. But as the air is becoming mild and warm the operation of "rafting-in" will be commenced in earnest. This (Wednesday) morning, however, the streams are quite high, which will yet, in the course of eight or ten days, we anticipate to see a large number of rafts on their way to the eastern markets.

THUMB CRUSHED. - On Wednesday, March 6th, Milton Brown, son of William Brown, of Lawrence township, met with a painful accident, under the following circumstances. Mr. B. was engaged in hauling timber, and had placed a handspike beneath the stick to keep it off the ground. When he started the horses the handspike willed, and, having hold of it with his left hand, it caught his mitten and drew his thumb against the timber stick in such a manner as to csush the bones to atoms. The thumb was afterwards amputated above the second joint.

THE EARTHQUAKE IN CALIFORNIA. -The earthquake on the 4th of February caused much damage in Argostoli and Lixuri, and rained the villages of Cosmopoli. Skenaia and St. Thekla. For some days after the first great shock smaller ones were frequent, occurring once in every twentyfour hours. These continued shocks keep the inhabitants in a state of alarm. Their food, elothing and furniture, lie buried under their homes; at Argostoli and Lixuri some of the inhabitants are in vessels in the harbor or in hastily constructed huts. At the former place, out of five thousand peo-ple, fifty were killed, and many others who were wounded have since died. Of the twenty-five thousand inhabitants of the whole island, a large number have fled to Zante or Patras, and four hundred have taken refuge in Corfu. The western part of the island suffered most, and along the road from Lixuri to the village of Cosmopoli are ruins of habitations and monuments, and rocks lying in every conceivable position. A wing of the large convent of Kipouri, which was located on the western cliff, overhanging the sea, at a height of three hundred feet, was carried into the sea, but the monks were fortunately in the section left standing. Handsome buildings on the island were partially or wholly destroyed. The people need tents immediately to shelter them from storms. At last accounts from Corfu the shocks were still felt at short intervals.

REJECTION OF GEN. GRANT'S RECOMthe Boston Post says: It is rumored on tolerably good authority, that the result of tells the Legislature that it is constitutional, the President and Cabinet's deliberations, upon the military appointments to be made in the South in pursuance of the Reconstruction bill, has been to decide against General Grant's nominations of Sheridan. Thomas and Sickles. In preference of the latter, the qualifications of Hancock, Meade, Sherman and Scofield, were the subject of prelonged and finally favorable consideration.

The Richmond Whig of Friday has an earnest article in favor of the immediate acceptance of the terms of the reconstruction It says there is but one course to pursue, and that it would be unwise to hesitate. "The sooner we eat our peck of dirt," it re-marks philisophically, "the sooner we shall feel refreshed"—which is indeed refreshing

Book Notices.

ALEXANDER H. STEVENS, in public and private, with letters and speeches, before, during, and since the war; by Henry Cleveland. Published by National Publishing Company, Philadelphia, Pa.: Mr. Stevens has for a long time fi led a large space in the public attention throughout the United States. For a quarter of a century he has been an active participant, and betimes a leader, in the great questions of war, peace, change, and progress, and there is little doubt this work will be eagerly read by those who admire the man not less for his having filled the position of Vice Presdent of the lately attempted Southern Confeder acy, than for his ability as a scholar and orator. As a biographical sketch of one of the leaders of the rebellion, this work will find a sale among all classes of people, but more especially with those whose sympathies went out towards the cause to which Mr. Stevens had allied himself. The book having been revised by Mr. Stevens can be relied upon as correct in all its essential facts. Persons desiring to subscribe for this work, can have an opportunity of doing so by calling upon P. A. GAULIN, at the Post-office in Clearfield.

CONSUMPTION CURABLE BY DR.
SCHENCK'S MEDICINES.
To cure consumption, the system must be prepared so that the lungs will heal. To accomplish this, the liver and stomach must first be cleaned. and an appetite created for good wholesome food, which, by these medicines will be digested properly, and good healthy blood made; thus building up the constitution. Schenck's Mandrake Pills cleanse the stomach of all billious or mucuous accumulations; and by using the Sea Weed

Tonic in connection, the appetite is restored.
Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup is nutricious as well as medicinal, and, by using the three remedies, all impurities are expelled from she system, and good, wholesome blood made, which will repel all disease. If patients will take these medicines secording to directions, consumption very frequently in its last stage yields readily to their action. Take the Pills frequently, to cleanse the liver and stomach. It does not follow that because the bowels are not costive they are not required, for sometimes in diarrhea they are neccessary. The stomach must be kept healthy, and an appetite created to allow the Pulmonic Syrup to act on the respiratory organs properly and allay an irritation. Then all that is required to perform a permanent cure is, to prevent taking cold Exercise about the rooms as much as possible, eat all the richest food-fat meat, game, and, in fact, anything the appetite craves; but be particular and masticate well.
