

RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., APRIL 3, 1867.

Tyone and Clearfield Railroad. Train leaves Tyone at 8:55 a. m. Arrives at Philipsburg at 11:00 a. m. Train leaves Philipsburg at 1:20 p. m. Arrives at Tyone at 3:00 p. m.

RELIGIOUS.—Divine services will be held next Sabbath, in Clearfield, as follows: By Rev. Archer in the Court House, morning and evening; By Rev. Sembover in the Baptist church in the morning; By Rev. Chambers in the Episcopal church, morning and evening; By Rev. Harrison in the Lutheran church, in the morning.

To ascertain what is promised for one dollar, read the advertisement headed "Grand Gift Enterprise," published to-day.

LAW.—We direct the attention of the public to the card of J. H. Fulford, Esq., printed in another column of to-day's paper. All business entrusted to his care will be punctually attended to.

A GOOD JOB.—The stone crossing at the mouth of the alley adjoining Mr. Bridge's Merchant-tailor establishment. We tender the thanks of pedestrians generally to Mr. B. for that much needed improvement.

WHITE SWAN SHOT.—Mr. Alfred Southard, of this place, shot a large White Swan on Monday evening last, on the milldam below town. The bird was a noble specimen of his species, and measured 64 feet from tip to tip of wings.

EYRE & LANDELL, Fourth and Arch streets, Philadelphia, are now offering a large stock of Spring Dry Goods to purchasers. This is an old, established and reliable Dry Goods House. Read their advertisement in another column.

NOTICE.—Miles Miller, of Goshen township, requests us to state, that having sold most of his household goods, the public sale heretofore advertised will not take place. The few articles still on hand, and his firm, will, however, be sold at private sale, if application be made soon.

NEWSPAPER ENLARGEMENT.—The Pittston Gazette has been enlarged to an eight column paper, and now, with its new dress, makes an appearance second to no other paper in the State. The Gazette is a live paper, and well worthy the support of the Republicans of Luzerne county. Long may it wave.

THE READING JOURNAL.—This staunch Republican paper appeared last week in a complete "new suit," and an enlarged form. It now contains thirty-six columns, and is one of the handsomest printed sheets in Pennsylvania. Besides, it is one of the most spicy and ably conducted journals in the State, and merits the hearty support of the gallant Republicans "Tom Altes Berke."

THE WEATHER, ETC.—Cold winds, snow-flakes, rain, and warm sunshine, have been the prevailing features in the weather during the past week—the latter predominating; and causing the snow in the forests to melt sufficiently to raise the river to a moderate rafting stage. Several rafts, we understand, passed this place on Tuesday, and should the present warm sunshine and mild air continue, rafting will be resumed in earnest within a few days.

THE ILLUSTRATED DOMESTIC BIBLE, which has recently been put in circulation, in this State, by Mr. H. A. Street, of Harrisburg, has many valuable and interesting features peculiar to itself, and the wants of the people. The agents for this excellent work, we are informed, are having great success. Teachers or others, wishing honorable and useful employment, would do well to address Mr. Street at once for particulars and secure territory. See his advertisement in another column.

JEFFERSON COUNTY.—The Commissioners of Jefferson county offer a reward of five hundred dollars for the apprehension of Wm. D. Graves, charged with being one of the murderers of Mrs. Betty McDonald. Graves is described as about twenty-three years of age; five feet ten inches high, rather slightly built, and a little stooped; light hair, light eyes and fair complexion; the third finger on right hand crooked; caused by a cut; wears light colored pants and vest, black frock coat and low crowned hat.

HOW TO KILL RATS.—The rats having become very numerous and troublesome in the barn of Mr. Philip Antes, in Lawrence township, that gentleman constructed a large box trap, after the style of a rabbit trap, which he divided into two compartments, by a partition in which was a two-inch auger-hole. Half of the lid is stationary, while the other half can be raised up. He then placed some corn-meal in the back compartment, as a bait for the rats, which the "varmints" must approach through the auger-hole in the partition—the movable part of the lid being held up by having one end of a string attached thereto, whilst the other end is fastened at some distance from the trap. Each evening Mr. A. quietly goes to the barn and unties the farther end of the twine, when the lid drops and closes the trap. The rat is then carried and set in the flyer to drown the rats. In this way Mr. A. succeeded in catching 54 rats in 11 days—23 at one time. Persons troubled with rats had better try this mode of getting rid of them.

MARRIED.—On the 22nd of September, 1866, at the residence of D. S. Rankin, Mr. W. L. Wilson, of Clearfield county, to Martha M. McCain, of Clarion county.

DIED.—On Tuesday, March 26th, 1867, NEWTON BAILEY, of Pike township, aged 25 years, 11 months and 20 days.

BOARDING, $3 50 per week, at the Normal School, in Curwensville. See advertisement.

A "DARKIE" AFFRAY.—On Monday evening, April 1st, two colored men, John Wilson and Ed. Williams, of this place, got into a fight, during which the former cut the latter with a razor, on the neck, face, arm and body, so severely that doubts were entertained as to his surviving the injuries. At last accounts, however, Williams was resting comfortably, with a prospect of his recovery. Wilson was arrested and lodged in jail, to await the result of his murderous assault upon Williams.

BLAIR COUNTY.—Mr. John Young, of Allegheny township, together with his wife and four children, were poisoned, on Sunday morning, March 24th, by eating biscuit, in the making of which, it is supposed, tartar-emetie was used in mistake for cream-tartar. Mr. Young and two of the children were dangerously ill, but all are likely to recover. Persons cannot be too careful in the use of drugs, and this occurrence should admonish all to be more watchful in the future.

NEW PAPER.—We have received the first number of a new paper, entitled the "Lycoming Standard," just started by Levi L. Tate, Esq., at Williamsport, Pa. The Standard is printed on new, clear type, and makes quite a good appearance. In politics it professes to be "Democratic," and will advocate the principles of the latter-day Democracy, as enunciated by Vallandigham, Wood, Salsbury & Co. We congratulate the Colonel on the neat appearance of his paper, and wish him pecuniary success in his new enterprise.

CLINTON COUNTY.—At three o'clock on Monday morning, March 25th, the smoke-house and out-house connected with Mr. Geo. Brown's residence, in Look Haven, was discovered to be on fire, and was burned to the ground. It is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary, who likely robbed the smoke-house and then set it on fire to conceal the theft, as no fire had been in the building. Mr. B.'s loss is about $4,000, and a Mr. Groninger's about $1,000—the latter having a lot of beer stored in the cellar of the out-building. No insurance.

GONE!—The old wooden Presbyterian Church is gone! It having been torn down, during the past week, to make room for the erection of a new and magnificent stone building in its stead. The old house will now only be remembered with the things of the past. The place that "once knew it shall know it no more;" yet, it will long live in the memories of many, as the much loved house in which they first found the Saviour precious to their souls—as the place of rejoicing on seeing souls reclaimed from sin's destructive sway—as the house of mourning, previous to committing the remains of loved and dear friends to their mother-dust. Such are the reflections presented to our minds, as we contemplate the removal of that old house, which has stood as a beacon, since 1840, to direct the immortal soul to that haven of rest—the throne of God. Let all learn a lesson from this. Let us remember that we are but mortal, that we are hastening towards our journey's end, that soon we will pass away, and then all that will remain of us will be the good or the evil that we have done. Then, may we all so live, that when we come to die, we shall only be remembered for our many Christian virtues, and our many good deeds. So mote it be.

Our Book Table. BACK BONE. Photographed from the "Seal-pearl." By Edward H. Dixon, M. D., author of "Scenes in the practice of a N. Y. Surgeon." 400 pp. Price, cloth, with photographic likeness of author, $1.50. R. M. De Witt, Publisher, 13 Frankfort St., New York.

This highly interesting work is the embodiment of much that is valuable in science and striking in incident. The facts and narratives here grouped together have been gleaned during a practice both varied and lengthy, and from sources the most diverse both in means and matter. The canopied couch and the lowly pallet—pampered luxury and starved mendicancy—have each contributed to illustrate some of those phases, the peculiarity of which has led many a reflecting mind to exclaim—"Verily, life is a mystery, and death the solution thereof." "backbone" records, in good, strong, unmistakable language, many very interesting events that have come under Dr. Dixon's notice. How skillfully he applies the scalpel, and lays bare the many physical and moral ulcers that are eating into the heart of the material and moral world, let this book attest. "Let us anatomize Regan," said old Lear: Dr. Dixon obeys the injunction, and here is the result. Everybody should read this book.

The Tribune's new Orleans special says: Gen. Sheridan's order No. 5, sweeping from office the rogues, Attorney-General Heron, Mayor Monroe and Judge Abell, and substituting good and loyal men, fills the Unionists with joy and the nullifiers with dismay. The Grand Army and Butler's organization, representing five thousand voters, recommended H. C. Warmouth for Mayor, but he declined, and a second agreement falling, the choice remained with Gen. Sheridan. Such changes are thought to revive the chances of the campaign, as the city may carry the State.

Clippings and Scribbings.

The South is hurrying to embrace the negroes for fear of confiscation.

Recent scientific investigations show that a square inch of diseased swine contains exactly fifty-seven thousand and forty-one poisonous reptiles. Who wants a slice?

Butter and lard should not be kept in the same apartment with kerosene, as all fats readily absorb and retain odors, and the fine aroma of butter may thus be seriously injured.

A Vermont man recently bought 26 railroad tickets, intending to take his wife and twenty-four children to the West. Among the two dozen are eleven pair of twins—all boys.

A theological school for colored ministers has been established at Augusta, Georgia, with thirty attendants. A reverend gentleman of high culture has been assigned to the charge of it.

An Atlanta paper disputes the assertion of the Macon Journal that there are but twenty-seven counties in the State which have a majority of negro voters. It says there are forty-five.

Senator Sherman, of Ohio, has written a letter stating that he alone is responsible for the rejection and subsequent confirmation of Col. Langdon as Internal Revenue Assessor at Cincinnati.

The Montgomery Mail estimates that if the number of whites disqualified in Alabama averages three hundred in each county, the negroes will have a majority of five thousand in the State, if they all vote together.

A countryman on his first sight of a locomotive declared that he thought it was a devil on wheels. "Faith, and yer worse than myself," said an Irish bystander "for the first time that I saw the creature I thought it was a steamboat hunting for water."

Senator Lowry, of Erie, has been eaned by John Burns, the "hero of Gettysburg." The cane bears the following inscription: "The root of this stick was baptized by the blood of Gen. Reynolds, cut by the hands of John Burns, who presented it to Senator Lowry."

Cousin's advice to a young friend just beginning life was: "You are young and inexperienced; take my advice; earn money and save it. If you do not you will earn for yourself a dishonored old age, and when your hair is gray and your faculties fail, you will have no alternative but a hospital or the Senate!"

The American Board of Foreign Missions, during the year ending February 28th, received in donations from the people of the United States, $175,608 15. This is $4,070 50 more than the receipts of the present year, but is reported to be much less than the increased expenses of the Board of Missions demand.

The right of suffrage is not considered a great boon in Kentucky, if one may judge by a jury's estimate. Edward Williams brought an action against two persons in Covington, for illegally preventing him from voting in the Presidential election of 1864, and laid his damages at $20,000. The jury gave him a verdict of one cent.
