RELIGIOUS.—Divine services will be held at Sabbath, in Clearfield, as follows:
 By Rev. Archer in the Court House, morning and evening.
 By Rev. Sempower in the Baptist church in the evening.
 By Rev. Chambers in the Episcopal church, morning and evening.
 By Rev. Guyer in the Methodist church, in the morning.

HOUSE BURNED.—The house of Mr. Jacob Campbell, of Bell township, with most of its contents, was destroyed by fire, on Saturday, April 6th. Loss about $1,500.

NOTICE.—Just received at the Drug Store of Joseph R. Irwin, Curwensville, a large and full supply of oils, paints, varnishes, brushes and glass, which will be sold cheap for cash. Ap. 10-36.

MAN KILLED.—We understand that Mr. George Hinton, of Osceola, on Thursday, April 4th, whilst engaged in rafting at the mouth of Moshannon creek, was so seriously injured by the rope catching around his body and one arm, that he died in about an hour after the accident.

LEG BROKEN.—Mr. Wm. Kilmer, of Beccaria township, in this county, met with an accident, on Friday, April 5th, whilst snubbing a raft at Sandy. It seems Mr. K. had thrown a hitch around a stake, when another person picked up the end of the rope, for the purpose of assisting him, when, by some means the rope caught around Mr. K's leg and broke it.

SPRING IS COMING.—Notwithstanding the cold and blustery weather which still lingers amidst our mountains, robins and blue birds have made their appearance amongst us, and their lively and familiar song impresses us with the idea that spring is near at hand. But, as the weather has been "so sadly out of joint," of late, we dare scarcely anticipate anything on the subject lest we find ourselves mistaken. So we will wait and see.

STAMPS ON NOTES.—Promissory notes are liable to a stamp duty of five cents for each $100 or fractional part thereof. If a note contains any special agreement, such as waiving the stay of execution, right to inquiry, appeal, or exemption, it is liable to an additional duty of five cents. Notes containing a confession of judgment are liable to an additional duty of five cents. Notes containing a confession of judgment are liable to an additional stamp of fifty cents.

WORTH KNOWING.—If people planting orchards would give strict orders to mark the north side of trees with red chalk before they are taken up, and when set out to have the tree put in the ground with its north side to the north, in its natural position, a large proportion would live. Ignoring this law of nature is one cause of so many transplanted trees dying. If the north side is exposed to the South the heat of the sun is too great for that side of the tree to bear, and therefore it dries up and decays.

RAFTING.—The river being at a good rating stage, on Sunday and Monday a large number of rafts passed through this place on their way to market—most of them going safely "through the mountains." On Monday near noon, however, a jam occurred at the "Big stepping-stone," occasioned by one man running out of the course just above which caused another raft to swing and close the channel; but we have not, as yet, learned the loss occasioned thereby. But if, as reported, from sixty to eighty rafts were jammed together there, the damage will be heavy, as it is not likely that so great a number of rafts could be disengaged at that point without losing many of them.

A LITTLE GIRL DROWNED.—On Saturday evening, April 6th, at about 5 o'clock, our citizens were somewhat startled by the announcement that Alice Foley, aged about 13 years, and youngest daughter of Hon. Wm. C. Foley, had fallen into the river. A large number of persons at once hastened to her rescue, but they were too late—she had sunk to rise no more. The facts in the case, as near as could be ascertained, are as follows: Alice and a little daughter of Judge Barrett's, had gone on a raft to watch the drift-wood floating by, and whilst thus engaged, and when near the lower end of the raft, it seems Alice became dizzy and staggered backwards, until she stepped off into the water. The other little girl at once gave the alarm, and Mr. Foley ran to the relief of his daughter, but by the time he reached the water's edge the swift current had carried her a considerable distance down the stream. Mr. Foley at once jumped in to his skill, and hastened to her relief—she was still floating on the surface of the water—and had approached almost within reaching distance of her, when she sunk out of sight. Alice was a very amiable, loving and interesting child, and hence the grief of the family is deep and heartfelt on account of her sudden and unlooked-for bereavement. The entire community sincerely sympathize with the mourning family in their loss. Although every effort has been made by our citizens to recover the body of Alice, up to this time, they have been unsuccessful.

ICE CREAM.—An ice-cream festival will come off at Mrs. M. A. Frank's, on Saturday evening next—the proceeds to be applied to Home Missions, and the use of the Baptist congregation.

MAN DROWNED.—It is reported that a Mr. Miller, of Morris township, was drowned in Moshannon creek, on Saturday, April 6th, whilst engaged in rafting, but we have been unable to obtain any particulars in regard to the occurrence.
