Battsman's Journal.

CLEARFIELD, PA., APRIL 10, 1867.

OUERIES.

Is it anybody's business,
If a gentleman should choose To wait upon a lady, If the lady don't refuse? Or, to speak a little plainer, That the meaning all may know,

Is it anybody's business If a lady has a beau? Is it anybody's business When the gentleman does call, Or when he leaves the lady, Or if he leaves at all?

Or is it necessary That the curtain should be drawn, To save from further trouble The outside lookers on?

Is it anybody's business
But the lady's, if her beau
Rides out with other ladies, And doesn't let her know? Is it anybody's business But the gentleman's, if she Should accept another escort, Where he doesn't chance to be?

Is a person on the sidewalk, Whether great or whether small; Is it anybody's business Where that person means to call? Or if you see a person

And he's calling anywhere, Is it any of your business What his business may be there? The substance of our query, Simply stated would be this:

Is it anybody's business What another's business is? If it is, or if it isn't, We would really like to know. For we're certain if it isn't, There are some who make it so.

If it is we'll join the rabble, And act the nobler part Of tattlers and defamers, Who throng the public mart; But if not, we'll act the teacher, Until each meddler learns, It were better in the future

To mind his own concerns.

HALF AN ACRE ENOUGH. - A shoemake over in Jersey bought half an acre lot. He was fond of fruit and read the papers. The soil was wet clay, and he selected fruit suited to the climate. He built a house and put his land in a condition to produce fruit. He had no manure but the droppings of street cattle. In his leisure, he brought from the woods bark, rotten wood, moss and leaf mold, which he mixed with the soil three feet deep. This was done by degrees, and as fast as the ground was pre-pared he planted fruit. He became so interested and successful that he retired from the cobbler's bench. I was his near neighbor and knew him intimately. His half acre supported him and his wife comfortably, almost, in elegance. She had no serv-ant, and had plenty of time to cultivate flowers. Strangers inquired about their beautiful home. Isabella grapes and common currants formed the bulk of his fruit. With a better selection his income would have been larger. Others have had the same success on small pieces of ground. One I knew who supported his family on one acre. Half was in grapes, the crop of which in one season sold for $800, and he had no labor bills to pay. If concentration will give success let us know it and practice it. -Dr. Peck in N. Y. Tribune.

MIXING BABIES. - An Alliance correspondent of the Canton (O.) Repository relates the following: Some days ago there was a dancing party given for the benefit of the Fenians, on the outskirts of the town, and several of the ladies present had little babies, whose noisy perversity required too much attention to allow their ma's to enjoy the "hop." A number of gallant young men volunteered to guard the infantry while the ladies engaged in the "break-down." No sooner had the mothers left their cherubs in the hands of the mischievous wretches, than they stripped the darlings, changed their clothes, giving the apparel of one to another. The dance over, the mothers each took, as she thought, her own baby, and hurriedly left the scene of gaieties and started for their homes several miles apart, being far on the way before the "peep-o'-day." On the following day there was a tremendous Row in the settlement. Mothers discovered that a single night had changed the sex of their babies, and then commenced some of the tallest female pedestrianism. Living miles apart, it required two days to unmix the little cherubs, and will require as many weeks to restore the mothers to their natural sweet disposition.

FROZEN TO DEATH.—A late number of the Alton (Iowa) Reville contains the following sad item : "A man with a little son, started from Adel to go to Webster City, and was bewildered by snow, with the sluggish movements of the cattle. The little boy perished with cold, and the unhappy father covered him with hay, straightening the lifeless form lying quietly in the bottom of the wagon. Then he unyoked his oxen and let them go free over the white, wild waste. The man, with his blood almost congealed by suffering and sorrow, cast another look at the stiffened form lying quietly in the bottom of the wagon, and started through the whirling drifts to the timber. There he sat down exhausted, and soon, like the lifeless boy, "slept the sleep that knows no waking."

A NEW YORK SCANDAL. - The New York correspondent of the Boston Gazette says all that has been written of late concerning a very rich man of the Metropolis, and his domestic relations, must of course be true; "but," says the correspondent, "if a lady, not to be mentioned, should shortly depart for France, the owner of the prettiest domicil in Paris, and a five millions in her own right, and a bill of divorce in her own pocket, never say who whispered it. And if such an event should never come to pass, it will be because the lady in question declines the proposed terms, considering, I suppose, that five millions are not quite her legal third of fifty millions, more or less."

There are one million more women than men in England. John Stuart Mills is in favor of giving the right of suffrage to women. Sensible John.

ROPOSALS

PENNSYLVANIA AGRICULTURAL LAND SCRIP FOR SALE.

The Board of Commissioners now offer for sale 520.000 acres of Agricultural Land Scrip being the balance of the Scrip granted to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the endowment of Agricultural Colleges in this State.

Proposals for the purchase of this Land Scrip. addressed to "The Board of Commissioners of Agricultural Land Scrip." will be received at the Surveyor General's office, at Harrisburg, until 12 o'clock, M., on Wednesday, April 10, 1867.

This land may be located in any State or Territory, by the holders of the scrip, upon any of the unappropriated lands (except mineral lands) of the United States, which may be subject to sale at private entry. Each piece of scrip represents a quarter section of one hundred and sixty acres, is issued in blank, and will be transferable, without endorsement or formal assignment. The blank need not be filled until the scrip is presented for location and entry, when the party holding it can fill the blank and enter the land in his own name. Bids must be made as per acre, and no bids will be received for less than one quarter section.

The Scrip will be issued immediately on the payment of the money to the Surveyor General. On all bids for a less quantity than 40,000 acres. one-third of the purchase money must be paid within ten days, and the remaining two-thirds within thirty days after notification of the acceptance of the bid or bids by the Board of Commissioners J. M. CAMPBELL, Surveyor Gen'l. March 5, 1867. For the Board of Com'rs.

FASHIONS DEMAND J. W. Bradley's CELEBRATED PATENT DUPLEX ELLIPTIC (OR DOUBLE

SPRING) SKIRT. The wonderful Flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any lady wearing the Duplex El-liptic Skirt will be experienced particularly in all crowded assemblies, operas, carriages, railroad cars, church pews. arm chairs, for prome nade and house dress, as the skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a silk or muslin dress, an inval-uable quality in crinoline, not found in any single spring skirt

A lady having enjoyed the pleasure, comfort and great convenience of wearing the Duplex El-liptic steel spring skirt for a single day, will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For children, misses and young ladies, they are superior to all others They will not bend or break like the single spring, but will preserve their perfect and graceful shape when three or four ordinary skirts will have been thrown aside as useless. The hoops are covered with double and twisted thread, and the bottom rods are not only double springs, but twice, (or double) covered ; preventing them from wearing out when dragging down stoops stairs, &c. The Duplex Elliptic is a great favorite with all ladies and is universally recommended by the Fashion Magazines as the standard skirt of the fashionable world To enjoy the following inestimable advanta ges in crinoline, viz: superior quality, perfect manufacture, stylish shape and finish, flexibility. durability, comfort and economy, enquire for J. W. Bradley's Duplex Elliptic or Double Spring

Skirt, and be sure you get the genuine article. CAUTION .- To guard against imposition be par ticular to notice that skirts offered as "Duplex' have the red ink stamp. viz: "J. W. Bradley's Dupl ex Elliptic Steel Springs," upon the waistband—none others are genuine. Also notice that every hoop will admit a pin being passed through the centre, thus revealing the two (or double) springs braided together therein, which is the secret of their flexibility and strength, and a com-bination not to be found in any other skirt.

For sale in all stores where first class skirts are sold throughout the United States and elsewhere. Manufactured by the sole owners of the Patent.
