RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., APRIL 24, 1867.

Tyrone and Clearfield Railroad.
Arrives at Philadelphia at 11:00 a. m.
Arrives at Philadelphia at 1:20 p. m.
Arrives at Tyrone at 3:00 p. m.

RELIGIOUS.—Divine services will be held next Sabbath, in Clearfield, as follows:
By Rev. Archer in the Court House, morning and evening;
By Rev. Sember in the Baptist church in the evening;
By Rev. Chambers in the Episcopal church, morning and evening;
By Rev. Guyer in the Methodist church, in the morning.

SNOW.—For several days past the air has been quite cold in this region, and this morning, Wednesday, as we go to press, the ground is covered with about two inches of snow.

STORM.—We had an unusually severe storm, in this region, on Saturday last. The wind blew quite a hurricane, and the rain fell in torrents, intermixed with some hail. No damage was done, however, so far as we have learned.

OUR CHURCHES.—The work on the Presbyterian church is progressing as fast as the condition of the weather will permit—a good portion of the foundation having been dug out within the past week. The Trustees of the M. E. Church are also having stone and other material hauled for their new building.

gone.—Our friend, Mr. John Ptaszyk, who has been engaged in tuning pianos in this place, for the past two weeks, has left town, but will return again in November. Persons who failed to obtain his services during his past visit should not fail to do so on his return, as he has the reputation of being a proficient in his business.

THE SENATE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE.—In our advertising columns will be found a notice from Senator Shoemaker, directed to the Judiciary Committee of the Senate, stating that the Committee will meet in Harrisburg on Monday, May 13th, at 2 o'clock, for the purpose of investigating the charges of extortion in freight and passenger rates, alleged to be made by railroad companies in this State. Parties interested in the investigation are also invited to be present.

JEFFERSON COUNTY.—The house of John J. Petel, of Barnett township, was entirely destroyed by fire, with all its contents, a short time ago—Mr. Petel, his wife, and three children, barely escaping with their lives. . . . On the 9th, James Ohles, a young man, was drowned in Red Bank at Broken Rock. He and another man were trying to get a part of a raft off the dam, when it suddenly gave way, and threw young Ohles into the stream. All efforts to rescue him, by those who were present, were ineffective.

GREENE COUNTY.—On Sunday night, April 14th, Martin Cane, of the village of Mount Morris, attempted to kill his wife and then committed suicide. He struck Mrs. C. two blows upon the head with an axe, and then fled to the orchard and hung himself with his suspenders. The first blow terribly fractured the skull, while the second seemed to have been warded off by the arm of the woman. Medical aid was at once summoned, and on the 17th Mrs. C. was still alive, with some hopes of her surviving her injuries. Mr. C. was a frugal and industrious farmer, living with his son-in-law at the time of committing the horrible deed, for which no positive cause is known. He was over sixty years of age, and his wife but a few years younger.

CENTRE COUNTY.—George Miller, an employee at Hunter's Dale Mills, met with a fatal accident on the 12th. It seems whilst engaged in sawing slabs into lengths for lath, he slipped and was thrown upon the saw, which caught him just below the shoulder of the right arm, mutilating it in a horrible manner—part of the flesh and bones being thrown across the mill. In his efforts to get away, his right leg came in contact with the saw and was cut off between the knee and ankle, and his left hand was almost severed at the wrist. He died in about five hours after the accident. . . . The house and household goods of Mrs. Eckley, a widow woman residing near the Advent Church at Milesburg, was destroyed by fire. . . . The citizens of Bellefonte, last week, contributed five hundred dollars to the Stormtown sufferers.

BLAIR COUNTY.—On Wednesday afternoon, April 10th, an old lady, named Mangold, was killed in Altoona, by being caught between two freight trains, whilst engaged in gathering some coal which had fallen from passing trains. . . . Mr. John Young, living on the Hollidaysburg plank road, whose poisoning we noticed several weeks ago, died on the 12th. The poison was contained in some biscuit. The other members of the family have recovered. . . . On the night of the 13th, the store of Hemphill & Beale, at Allegheny forge, was entered through one of the windows, and about one hundred dollars worth of goods stolen therefrom. A man named Mike Smith, who was tried in January, 1866, and sent to the penitentiary for eighteen months, for robbing the same store, and who was pardoned by Gov. Curtin, was arrested for the burglary, but succeeded in making his escape from the officers of the law.

NOTICE.—Just received at the Drug Store of Joseph R. Irwin, Curwensville, a large and full supply of oils, paints, varnishes, brushes and glass, which will be sold cheap for cash. Ap. 10-31.

BUTLER COUNTY.—On the night of the 14th, Sunday, the barn at the Orphans' Home, at Zelenople, was burned to the ground. Loss, $2,000; no insurance. The fire was evidently the work of an incendiary, as a barn was also burned on Saturday night, and another on Monday night, in the town.

New Books, etc.

A LAWYER'S TRIBUTE TO THE BIBLE, being a Lecture on "The Literary Character of the Bible," delivered before the Wilmington Institute, at Wilmington, Del., on the 8th January, 1867, by H. BUCHER SWOOPER, Esq. Published by M'Kay & Brothers, Phila. Bound in cloth. 45 pp. We have read this beautiful and classic production of our townsman, with unmingled pleasure. It was highly spoken of, at the time of its delivery in Wilmington, by the papers, and it fully merits the encomiums passed upon it. It discusses the literary character of the Bible, in its History, Philosophy and Poetry—pointing out its immeasurable superiority over all human productions. Most of the works written about the Bible, have been the productions of Clergymen, who view it entirely from a Theological stand-point. The one before us, is a purely literary view of the great volume, and will have the effect of causing those who read it, to find new beauties in the Inspired Book, and to refer to its wonderful pages with newly awakened interest. The work is for sale at Hartwick & Irwin's Drug Store.

PITTSBURG CHRONICLE; a Weekly paper, by Siebeck & Collins, Pittsburgh, Pa. Price $2.00 a year in advance. The Weekly Chronicle has been enlarged and improved, and now contains forty eight columns. It is neatly printed, and one of the best papers in Western Pennsylvania. The farmer, the merchant, the mechanic, the old and the young—in fact, everybody who desires a good weekly newspaper, will find something of interest in its columns.

THE LADY'S FRIEND, Monthly; Published by Deacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut street, Phila. Price $2.50 a year, in advance. The May number contains "The Recognition," a pretty and pleasant steel engraving; the usual elegant fashion plate; a toilet for the Opera; a Ball Dress, patterns for boys and girls; Music, etc. The literary contents are fine and entertaining. Specimen numbers sent on receipt of 20 cts.

The Yankee farmers in Jaffa, after all, are now reported to be doing very well, and to be contented and happy. What motive could have originated the story of their homesickness and desolation, it is difficult to imagine. The only theory that covers it is the famous one embraced in the exclamation of the fat Knight: "How this world is given to lying!"

The Republican party continues to win the most brilliant political victories in the municipal elections in the Northwest. Not only are Republican majorities increased in the old strongholds, but many gains of officers elected are made in former Copperhead municipalities. The West is organizing for the great national campaign of 1868.

The wonderful revival still continues in the Siloam Methodist Church, Philadelphia. Over eight hundred persons, have professed conversion since the revival commenced. To accommodate the increased membership, a frame building, 73 by 86 feet, has been erected in Otis street, above Girard Avenue. It will seat 1,600 persons.

A Washington dispatch dated the 16th says: "Enormous quantities of shad and herring are being caught in the Potomac. Over a hundred thousand herring sold yesterday for about six dollars per thousand, and twenty thousand shad for about ten dollars per thousand."

KENTUCKY.—The Hon. R. T. Baker, Union candidate for Lieutenant Governor, on April 19th, was prevented from speaking at Germantown by a gang of returned rebels. They threatened to mob him if he made the attempt. Such is "free speech" in Kentucky.

The New Orleans Plevigne puts the negro equality question thus: "It is ridiculous for any one to pretend that he is lowered or disgraced by going to the polls with a negro, when he crowds in at the general delivery with him to get a letter at the post office."

At the beginning of the war the population of Texas was between 600,000 and 700,000; it is now estimated at 1,200,000. Many of the negroes, however, who were sent there for safety during the war, are now returning to their old homes.

The Idaho Statesman says the Indians attacked a stage coach near Fernat's Ferry on the 26th ult., and killed the driver, named Younger, and two passengers named Ullman and Buchoe. Three other passengers escaped.

Young, the Irish rhymer, pensioned by Lord Derby, has published a defense of him self against the attacks of the press. One of his statements is this: "From causes too tedious to narrate, I was born in the year 1799."

The Emperor of Russia has studied American politics to more purpose than many of our own politicians. The tender of his American territory proves that he thoroughly comprehends the Monroe doctrine.

A recent meeting of the Cincinnati Pioneer Association, was opened with prayer by Rev. Isaac Collard, who sixty years ago helped Robert Fulton put the paddles on the wheels of the first steamboat.

The Chinese women who will wait on the Chinese restaurant in the Paris Exhibition were purchased in Canton; they cost $50 apiece. The pick of Chinese women cost only $120 apiece.

A meteor, which had light equal to a thousand gas burners, recently fell at Helena, Montana.

It is believed that the coming wheat crop will be the largest ever grown on this continent.

MARRIED:
On Wednesday, April 17th, 1867, by J. P. Farwell, Esq., Mr. ORANGE J. MICHAELS and Miss SARAH CATHART, both of Lumberville, Pa.
In St. Joseph, Mo., at the residence of Judge John R. Bell, on Thursday evening, March 14th, 1867, by Rev. A. P. Foreman, Mr. HARRY CARTER, formerly of this county, and Miss ADDA BELL, of St. Joseph.

DIED:
On the morning of the 23d inst., in Clearfield Borough, SAMMIE, infant son of George and Mary Newson, aged one year and ten months.

THE GREAT CAUSE OF HUMAN MISERY. Just published, in a sealed envelope. Price six cts. A lecture on the nature, treatment, and radical cure of Seminal Weakness or spermatorrhoea, Lymphatic Emissions, Sexual Debility, and Impediments to Marriage, generally. Nervousness, consumption, epilepsy, and fits; Mental and physical incapacity, resulting from Self Abuse. &c. By Robert J. Culverwell, M. D., author of the "Green Book." &c.
The world renowned author, in this admirable lecture, clearly proves from his own experience that the awful consequences of Self Abuse may be effectually removed without medicine, and without dangerous surgical operation; bougies, instruments, rings, or cordials pointing out a mode of cure at once certain and effectual, by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically. This lecture will prove a boon to thousands and thousands.
Sent under seal, to any address, in a plain sealed envelope, on the receipt of six cents, or Two postage stamps. Also Dr. Culverwell's "Marriage Guide," price 25 cents, sent free, by mail, to CHAS. J. C. KLINE, C. O.,
127 Bowery, New York.

DR. SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS, A SUBSTITUTE FOR CALOMEL.
These Pills are composed of various roots, having the power to react the secretions of the liver as promptly and effectually as blue pill or mercury, and without producing any of those disagreeable or dangerous effects which often follow the use of the latter.
In all bilious disorders these Pills may be used with confidence, as they promote the discharge of liver and biliary ducts, which are the cause of bilious affections, and generally, Schenck's Mandrake Pills cure Sick Headache, and all disorders of the liver, induced by slow complexion, coated tongue, costiveness, drowsiness, and a general feeling of weariness and lassitude, showing that the liver is in a torpid or obstructed condition.
In short, these pills may be used with advantage in all cases when a purgative or alterative medicine is required.
"Please ask for Dr. Schenck's Mandrake Pills," and observe that the two likenesses of the Doctor are on the Government stamp—one in the last stage of consumption, and the other in his present health.
