Republican State Convention.

The "Republican State Convention" will meet at the "Herdic House," in Williamsport, on Wednesday, the 26th of June next, at 10 o'clock, A. M., to nominate a candidate for Judge of the Supreme Court, and to initiate proper measures for the ensuing State canvass. As heretofore, the Convention will be composed of Representative and Senatorial Delegates, chosen in the usual way, and equal in number to the whole of the Senators and Representatives in the General Assembly. By order of the State Central Com-F. JORDAN, Chairman.

EUROPE. - Late news by the Atlantic Cable would indicate the adjustment of the Luxumbourg question between Prussia and France, by the mediation of the other great powers in Europe. But, whether this effort will result in a permanent peace, or whether it will only have the effect to postpone the commencement of actual hostilities, remains to be seen-the latter being most probable. That Europe is ripe for a revolution, admits of no serious doubt, and it is hard to conjecture what a day may bring forth. Should the proposed mediation result very unfavorable to the aspirations, or anticipations of either Napoleon or Bismark, as a last resort, the disappointed ruler may raise for a republic in every kingdom of the Old | alry? World; and then, all the continent would rock, and bayonets in a moment flash from the Atlantic to the plains of Asia.

How IT WORKS .- In Chicago and other places where the eight hour agitation has been successful, the consequent reduction of wages is causing a great deal of dissatisfaction among the mechanics whom it affects. relish the diminution of their earnings from four dollars to three and a quarter per day. They seem to have imagined that they would be paid the same for eight as for ten hours work, and that they were gaining a gaeat advantage at the expense of the employers Their expectations have not been realized. Manufacturing and railroad companies have given notice that henceforth they will hire laborers by the hour at the same rates as heretofore, and this counter check effectually neutralizes the object sought to be gained by the original movement, SPAIN.-It is announced that a new re bellion has broken out in Spain, but the intelligence is too indefinite to admit of any speculations at present as to its magnitude or results; yet, it would excite but little surprise, if the present outbreak would be the instigation of a grand revolutionary uprising in that country, which would result in an entire change of government, and the flight of the last reigning Bourbon. That the Queen of Spain has anticipated such a denouement, is apparent from the fact that she some time since sent her jewels and a large amount of money to England-the refuge of fugitive sovereigns. Further news from Spain will be anxiously looked for.

MEXICO. - Notwithstanding the contradictory character of the news from Mexico, enough of the truth is known to make it evident that the Empire is at tn end, and that Maximilian will be tortunate if he succeeds in escaping the toils of the Liberals with a whole skin. It is said, the moment Juarez occupies the City of Mexico, Minister Campbell will be instructed to go thither, and the recognition of the Liberals as the constitutional government of Mexico will be continued, despite the efforts being made at Washington to force the claims of Ortega upon the notice of the administration.

COMPELLING A BODY OF FIREMEN parading the streets of a Southern city to display in their line the American flag, is regarded by Copperheads as a great outrage the chivalry of the South. It is unconstitutional. It is an act of radical tyranny sufficient to provoke another rebellion, and unless the President interferes to prevent a repetition of the outrage, the Democracy of the North will march South (as they went to Canada) to aid their Southern brethren in resisting their oppressors.

The three-per-cent certificates authorized by the act of March 2, 1867, will not be issued before August. The compound-interest notes falling due in June and July will likely be redeemed in money at maturity.

Bail to the amount of one hundred thousand dollars for the release of Jeff Davis will Greeley becoming securities.

STARVATION, OVER NICE. - A contemporary says, the starvation point that has been | case of child-whipping which lately occurred reached in South Carolina is evidently only relative. That point of famine which no longer admits of fastidiousness in the choice and the fiendish woman-a niece of the late of food has not yet been arrived at. They Horace Mann-who lived with him, spent are hungry, but some delicacy of appetite yet remains. Thus, for instance, General Sickles writing to the Chairman of the Southern Relief Committee in Boston, says: "If you send corn meal let me suggest that you send white meal: for white persons will not eat yellow meal. It is only given here to cattle, an even the colored people refuse it." When we call to mind what Union soldiers, who crowded the rebel prison pens at Salisbury and Andersonville, had to feed upon in their extremity, it certainly requires some stretch of charitable feeling to arouse anything like sympathy for people who are so very particular about the quality of the alms they beg for.

WHAT OUR TERRITORY COST .- The following shows the succession in which we acquired our territorial possessions, with a statement of what the domain cost : 1. The purchase of Louisiana and the Mississippi Valley, in 1803, from France, tor $45,000,000. 2. The purchase of Florida, in 1819, from Spain, for $3,000,000. The annexation of Texas in 1845. 4. The purchase of California, New Mexico and Utah, from Mexico, for $15,000,

5. The purchase of Arizona from Mexico. for $10,000,000.

000, in 1848.

6. The purchase of the immense Russian possessions, running down the Pacific coast, from the North Pole to 54 north latitude, at the rate of 3 cents per acre.

A Congressional inquiry into the facts connected with the capture of Jeff. Davis fully confirmed the report that he was disguised in female garments when taken. He had on a lady's water-proof cloak, gathered at the waist, and a shawl drawn over his head. He carried a tin pail upon his head as if going for water. A pair of top-boots, which the cloak did not hide, betrayed him.

We believe that the whole party of exrebels have quaked more in their souls at the probable testimony as to Jeff's disguise when captured, than at the idea of having the banner of universal freedom and declare the old traitor hung. How are you, chiv-

James Buchanan, Ex-President, entered upon his seventy-seventh year on the 22d ult. He is in vigorous health and occasionalmakes a trip from Wheatland to Laneaster, three miles and a half, on foot; and what is more remarkable, in passing over that long public thoroughfare, though met by many people, he scarcely ever receives the respect-The ship carpenters, for instance, do not fal calutation of any man. Traitor-sympathizers are not popular in Lancaster county

> The Copperhead organs which have re ceived and announced the news of Jeff Da vis' probable release, are jubilant over the intelligence. It is more than probable that Jeff will be one of the principal orators employed by the Cops to assist in conducting future elections in the interest of the latterday Democracy.

For once the President and Congress, as well as the Supreme Court, seem to be of one accord. They all unite in condemning the folly and illegality of the Sharkey-Walker Cowan-Black injunction. It is not the first time these gentlemen have found themselves in a minority against a united country.

Another Fenian has been sentenced to be hanged in Canada, but not a word will our Democratic cotemporaries say on the matter -those journals whose bowels of compassion were moved so strongly for the luxurious martyr of Fortress Monroe.

The President has appointed Hiram J. Ramsdell, one of the Washington correspondents of the New York Tribune, as special agent of the Postoffice Department. He is ordered to take charge of the Postoffice at New Castle, Pa.

THE HISTORY of the Secret Service during the Rebellion. By General L. C. Baker, late Provost Marshal and Chief Detective of the War Department. Philadelphia:

P. Garrett & Co. The publication of this startling and highly interesting book will form an era in the historical literature of the late war. Historians of the Rebellion, both North and South, have been groping in the dark concerning many important phases in the eventful period between April 1861, and the Spring of 1866. Now the chief custodian of the Government's secrets, he who took a most active part in all of the secret plans of the War Department, and who originated many of them. writes a book and divulges all the hitherto well kept historical secrets. General Baker makes a clean breast of the matter; he evidently has kept nothing in reserve that is of interest to the public These revelations will create a profound sensation on the rights, preferences and feelings of in all sections of the country, and even the vaunted Government police of Europe may learn lessons from this history. The late Chief Detective has sere ned no one, and there will be gnashing of teeth in the high places at Washington when the racy chapters of this secret history will become generally known. The work scomplete in one handsome octavo volume of 700 pages, bound in durable and ornate binding clearly printed on fine white paper, and embellished with seventeen superior engravings. Sold by subscription only. by authorized agents.

THE INDEPENDENT BANNER; Clarion, Pa.; S. Young, Editor and Proprietor. This sterling Republican sheet made its appearance last week, with a new head and other improvements. Col. Young has had quite a fight with some refractory Republicans, during the past six months, but, it seems, he has beaten his enemies, and he is now master of the field. The be tendered, Augustus Schell and Horace Banner is a good paper, and merits a liberal support from the Republicans of Clarion.

EFFECTS OF SPIRITUALISM. - The horrible at Norwich, Connecticut, is a delightful example of the diabolical effects of spiritual-Williams, the brutal mono-maniac. ISID. nearly two months in torturing the unfortunate daughter of the former, almost starvcracked with drought and fever, whipping her with a raw-hide till the blood streamed from her-sometimes as often as six or eight times a day-and keeping her in a cold dark room until her teet were frozen; and the mean excuse of the male devil on his trial was, that he had acted in obedience to the direction of the spirits. He further declared that N iss Mann first suggested the discipline of the child; that Miss Mann suggested the gag; he said he had never struck the child until Miss Mann came to the house, and that he never should if she had not come, although he believed she meant to do right; Miss Mann was the controlling spirit and had got the upper hand of him. It is some consolation to know the paltry wretch was sentenced to five years imprisonment. Somehow or other, though, the woman managed to escape punishment.

ATLANTIC CABLE. - Information from Liverpool is to the effect that a movement is on foot in London to clear off the whole of the mortgage debentures of the Atlantic Telegraph Company. More than $200,000 has been paid in for this purpose, and in addition to this one of the largest shareholders, in a circular addressed to his fellow shareholders, of whom there are upwards of four thousand, undertakes to subscribe the sum of £4,500 to the completion of this project, provided the other shareholders respond in proportion to their holdings. This debt being removed, there is but little doubt that the Anglo-American Company will be shortly paid off, and the original Atlantic Company, after all its reverses, will then come into the enjoyment of its valuable property. It would be able, then, to reduce the tariff of charges. In the second SNAKE STORY .- The Banner von Berks, of Reading, is responsible for the following snake story: "One day week before last, the family of Mr. Texter, residing near the deep cut on the Reading and Columbia Railroad, in Spring township, were attracted to the yard by the screaming of a cat. when they found her engaged in a desperate combat with a monster black snake, measuring between five and six feet in length and five and one-half inches in circumference. After a desperate and exciting contest his snakeship caved in and lay prostrate before the victorious cat who continned the work of destruction nutil the life of the enemy became extinct.

It is one of the curious things about the European complication that Austria, in case of war with France, will side with Prussia. Fear of the Czar is said to be one of the reasons. Be this as it may, we are apt to suppose that the shrewdness of Bismark is at the bottom of it. Whatever is, has in Whatever is, has in some way been brought about; and we can readily believe that the large headed Count has had a hand in so managing matters as to cause Austria to reach the conclusion she is eported to have reached.

The news from New Orleans that Gen. His last order sets uside all existing commissioners for the improvement of navigation and protection of property, and thus ends a state of things which promised to show how not to do it.

A certain minister lately perperated the following involuntary (we hope) pun, in the course of a flight of eloquence in the pulpit. The question of what shall be done with Jeff Davis will soon be brought to a head. Judge Underwood of the United States District Court of Virginia, on May 2d, granted a writ of habeas corpus at Alexandria, for the purpose of bringing the prising her to death, gagging her till her lips oner before his court at the present term, which met at Richmond, on Monday, May 6th. The writ was made returnable on Monday, May 13th, and is directed to Gen. Burton, the officer in command at Fortress Monroe. With reference to the surrender of Davis by the military authorities, it may be stated that his counsel profess to have assurances from the Secretary of War that Gen. Burton will be directed to obey the writ-in other words, that the military custody of the prisoner shall cease, and that he be surrendered to the civil authorities, to be dealt with under the laws. U.S. District Attorney Chandler, of Virginia, has been in consultation with Attorney Gen. Stanshery in regard to the practicability of a trial at the present term. Davis' counsel will demand his early trial or his unconditional discharge.

The Judiciary committee met on the 3dthe chairman and a quorum being present. One witness was examined.

A delegation from New Orleans had an interview with the Attorney General on the 3d May, and, it is said, were informed that the administration intended to give the disfranchising clause of the reconstruction law a liberal construction, so as to allow full registration. The Attorney general declared that the registers under General Sheridan had done wrong in refusing to register city, county and township officers, for he did not regard them as officers of the State. He is week of April the traffic averaged $6,150 in also of the opinion that Congress did not intend to exclude a man from voting who had happened to take an oath to support the Constitution and then participated in the rebellion, unless he had hold an office which required an oath of fidelity to the National Government.

Gov. Patton, of Alabama, is here to testify before the Judiciary Committee, in the impeachment investigation relative to the manner in which pardons were obtained for Alabamians. It will be recollected that as high as three hundred pardons were forwarded to the Executive of that State at one time, and it is charged that one agent in the business of obtaining pardons received torty thousand dollars for his services from citizens of Alabama.

Congressman Kelley, of Pennsylvania, instead of following Senator Wilson in his campaign through the South, is to proceed directly to New Orleans, and commence there to make a Radical speech, making a tour through Louisiana, Alabama, Mississippi, Northern Georgia and Tennessee.

Fifty thousand dollars is the fee claimed by the counsel employed by the United States to defend the Fenians on trial last winter in Canada, and the question arises as to how Mr. Seward can pay it, there being no provision for any such outlay, and the Senate not being very apt to grant any appropriation for the purpose.
