THE RIVER SHORE.

Walking by the quiet river Where the slow tide seaward goes, All the cares of life fall from us, All our troubles find repose.

Nought forgetting, nought regretting, Lovely ghosts from days no more Glide with white feet o'er the river, Smiling toward the silent shore.

So we pray in His good pleasure When this world we've safely trod, May we walk beside the river Flowing from the throne of God.

All forgiving, all beloving, Not one lost we loved before Looking to ward the hills of Heaven Calmly from the eternal shore.

"We must draw the line somewheres," as Mr. Lillyvick's barber in "Nicholas Nickle-by" remarked, when he declined shaving the dustman, notwithstanding he had just performed that operation on the baker. A distinction of somewhat similar delicacy ap- lishment of the kind in this part of the State. pears to be made in the matter of member-ship in the New York Union Club. We are told that it is formed entirely of gentlemen of wealth and eminent merchants-no retail dealers being admitted, "except Mr. A. T. Stewart." Clearly Stewart is the line in this instance. Probably they only accept him, for fear they should buy them out, club-house and all, at some inconvenient moment when they would be least prepared for it.

A society for earrying on systematically the business of stealing and secreting and selling stolen goods has just been unearthed and broken up in Norwalk, Conn. It was regularly organized with President, Secretary and Treasures, and was composed mostly of clerks in all branches of trade. A strict account was kept of the stealings of each member, and the value accredited to him on the society book. Profit enough had been already secured to enable two families connected with it to visit the Paris Exposi-

Natives of Southern Germany who have become citizens of the United States had better make up their minds to renounce the Fatherland altogether and so avoid getting their adopted country into unnecessary trouble. If they venture back to their former homes there is great danger of their being held to military service under the now famous secret treaties between Russia, Bavaria. Wurtemburg and Baden.

The Philadelphia mint has recently received for coinage some very fine specimens of gold from Antauga county, Alabama, which are said to rival in quality the finest brought from California. The discovery of this ore has discovered considerable excitement, and attracted numerous exploring parties to the LATEST FASHIONS DEMAND J. W. Bradley's CELEBRATED PATENT DUPLEX ELLIPTIC (OR DOUBLE SPRING SKIRT.

The wonderful Flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any lady wearing the Duplex El-liptic Skirt will be experienced particularly in all crowded assemblies, operas, carriages, rail-road cars, church pews, arm chairs, for prome-nade and house dress, as the skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and niently as a silk or touslin dress uable quality in crinoline, not found in any single spring skirt

A lady having enjoyed the pleasure, comfort, and great convenience of wearing the Duplex El-liptic steel spring skirt for a single day, will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For children, misses and young ladies, they are superior to all others

They will not bend or break like the single spring, but will preserve their perfect and graceful shape when three or four ordinary skirts will have been thrown aside as useless. The hoops are covered with double and twisted thread, and the bottom rods are not only double springs, but twice, (or double) covered; preventing them from wearing out when dragging down stoops, stairs, &c. The Duplex Elliptic is a great favorite with all ladies and is universally recommended by the Fashion Magazines as the standard skirt of the fashionable world

To enjoy the following inestimable advantages in crinoline, viz: superior quality, perfect manufacture, stylish shape and finish, flexibility, durability, comfort and economy, enquire for J. W. Bradley's Duplex Elliptic, or Double Spring Skirt, and be sure you get the genuine article. Caution .- To guard against imposition be particular to notice that skirts offered as "Duplex" have the red ink stamp. viz: "J. W. Bradley's Duplex Elliptic Steel Springs," upon the waistband—none others are genuine. Also notice that every hoop will admit a pin being passed through the centre, thus revealing the two (or double) springs braided together therein, which is the secret of their flexibility and strength, and a com-bination not to be found in any other skirt. For sale in all stores where first class skirts are old throughout the United States and elsewhere. Manufactured by the sole owners of the Patent.
